Arrested by Martin Maher on Charge of Picking Pockets

Inspector Burr of Boston Knows Some of Them and Says They Are Professionals—Man Fined $15 for Assault; Another $2 for Breaking Window

In the arrest of the four alleged pickpockets at the Middlesex street station yesterday by Inspector Martin A. Maher, of the local police department, assisted by two employes of the Boston & Maine railroad, the police feel sure they now have in custody four of the cleverest pickpockets in this section of the country. Despite the fact that they stood the ordeal of the "third degree" at the police station in a manner which stamped them as either telling the truth or else being experts at lying, they lost their air of bravado this morning when they were confronted by Inspector L. W. Burr of Boston police headquarters.

The recognition between the inspector, who knows practically every crook of note in the east and a good many in the west, and the four men arrested on suspicion was mutual, and the latter knew that the presence of Inspector Burr would tend more to bring out the facts than did the several hours they were being questioned yesterday afternoon.

While it was John Corcoran, ticket agent at the Middlesex street station, who first suspected the men now under arrest, it remained for Inspector Maher to work up the case and subsequently arrest the quartet.

When arrested they gave the names of Thomas Kelly, John W. Ellis, Ernest Capasso and Frank Gilbert; but when Inspector Burr put in an appearance this morning he identified Kelly as Fred Berry, alias Andrew McLaughlin, a well known pickpocket. He recognized John W. Ellis as "Big John" W. Crane of Philadelphia, and Capasso as Frank Kelly of New York. He was not positive of Gilbert's name, but has known him as Owie Liss of Philadelphia, who it is alleged was at one time a pugilist. All four have served time for picking pockets.

Thomas Kelly or Berry is well known to the police, and it is said that in previous scrapes in which he has figured he has done the delicate work of picking the pocket of a victim, while the other three members of the gang did the jostling, and held the victim in such a position that the latter could not use his arms.

The quartet was arraigned in police court this morning on a complaint charging larceny from the person, the specific charge being that they stole a pocketbook valued at $2 and $19 in money from Bathdlomew J. Cullinan.

Lawyer Joseph Sullivan of Boston appeared for the defendants, waived the reading of the complaint and entered a plea of not guilty and asked for a continuance for one week. The continuance was granted, each of the defendants being held under $600 bonds.

Case Continued

Fined for Evading Carfare

William E. Flannagan, a young man residing in Roxbury, who evaded paying carfare on the Lakeview line the night before last, entered a plea of guilty and a fine of $5 was imposed.

Threatened His Wife

Maria Comtois informed the court that her husband, William, had threatened to kill her and also assaulted her.

The defendant said that he might have threatened his wife, but he did not mean to do her bodily harm. He said he only tried to frighten her. He was found guilty and ordered to furnish $100 bonds to keep the peace for six months.

Arrested in Billerica

John E. Brown accummulated quite a supply of intoxicating liquors yesterday and when he reached the square in Billerica Centre he saw a wagon and thought he would take a ride. He was about to climb to the seat when the owner, Arnold Pickering, objected. Brown decided that he was going to have the ride and when Pickering pulled him to the ground he turned around and struck the owner of the outfit. Constable E. Livingston was notified and he placed Brown under arrest.

This morning in court Brown admitted that he was drunk and when asked to plead to the complaint of assault he said: "I might have struck him," but that plea would not go with the court and so the defendant pleaded guilty.

He was found guilty on both charges and fined $15 for assault and $5 for drunkenness.

Smashed a Window

Hugh McCrossen was charged with drunkenness and breaking a pane of glass in the second hand clothing store conducted by David Bernstein at 186 Middlesex street. Bernstein testified that McCrossen entered his store yesterday afternoon and wanted to sell a coat. The man was under the influence of liquor and when Bernstein said he would give him 25 cents for the coat, McCrossen called Bernstein vile names and then seizing a shoe last threw it through a large pane of glass.

McCrosen admitted that he was drunk but said that he did not think of raising any rumpus until Bernstein called him a vile name and he said he was not used to being called such a name and he forgot himself for the time being.

He said that he had money and if given a chance he would settle for the window and the court continued the cases until tomorrow morning, but a few minutes later McCrossen said that he desired to be sentenced right away, so the court withdrew the order of continuance and imposed a fine of $20 for breaking the window and $5 for drunkenness.

Charles Hague, charged with being drunk, was fined $6, James F. Sproule was fined $6, four first offenders were fined $2 each and five simple drunks were released.

DEATHS

SHAW—The many friends in Lowell of Miss Mary B. Shaw will be pained to hear of her death, which occurred at her home in Pittsfield, N. H., on August 7 last. Miss Shaw was of the advanced age of 86 years

MERRILL—Charles H. Merrill, proprietor of the Vaughan house at Caribou, Me., died in Portland yesterday and the burial will be at Danforth, Me. Mr. Merrill leaves a wife who was Miss Felicia Nix of this city, and whom he married in June of the present year, and two daughters by a former wife.

SMITH—The body of Mrs. Mary Tower Smith was brought to Westford yesterday from Portland, Maine, where deceased died after a short illness of a few days. Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Fannie Prescott, and niece, Mrs. Oscar Spalding, with Mr. Spalding were in Portland at the time of her death.

Mrs. Smith was a former resident of Westford, where she was favorably known and highly respected. Deceased is survived by her husband, Dr. J. A. Smith, and two sons and one daughter.

IVY BALDWIN

TO TRY TO FLY ACROSS THE GOLDEN GATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Ivy Baldwin, an aeronaut who was formerly in the balloon service of the United States army, announces that he will attempt tomorrow morning to fly in an aeroplane across the Golden Gate, the entrance to San Francisco harbor. The machine is one of his own construction in which he has made trial flights.

HEAVY DAMAGE

Done to the Crops in Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 26.—Market gardeners throughout this state have suffered losses amounting to more than $150,000 through damage to the cucumber crop by a new disease. The crop has been reduced 75 per cent and unless something can be found to check the epidemic the cucumber is threatened with extinction in Rhode Island. Melons have been affected as well. One large market garden firm in Cranston has already suffered a loss of $50,000. The ravages of the pest have become so extensive that plant specialists from the department of agriculture at Washington have come here to study the disease at the request of Dr. H. J. Wheeler, director of the experimental station at the Rhode Island State college at Kingston.

GREAT PITCHING

Nixey Coughlin Makes Record at Revere

Who said Nixey Coughlin of this city is a has been as a pitcher?

Nixey pitched for Lowell in the game between the John Hancock Insurance men of Lowell and their brethren of Lawrence.

The Lowell men won 15 to 0. Only 15 men went to bat in the five innings and Nixey struck out 13 of them, only two men reaching first base in the entire game. Rep. Erson B. Barlow umpired the game in faultless manner.

The outing was held at Revere by the Lowell and Lawrence agencies and it was a competition that has been on for three months, the agency making the smaller net increase in business during the three months being obliged to settle for the outing. Lowell not only beat out Lawrence but has shown the largest business thus far this year in the history of the company. During the year it was announced the Lowell agency has written more ordinary business, policies of $1000 and over than any other agency of the company in the United States, a Brooklyn agency being second.

The local men left Merrimack square at 7.15 o'clock in the morning on a special electric car and at Reading they were joined by the Lawrence men.

At the conclusion of the ball game the Insurance men repaired to Sleeper's restaurant, where an excellent shore dinner was served. An informal program was carried out after the dinner. T. P. Donahue, Supt. of the Lawrence branch, delivered a humorous speech which was productive of vociferous applause, after which James West of Lowell entertained with a song. The song was composed by Mr. West and included compliments and knocks to members of the party.

In the afternoon the members of the party went bathing, after which the sights along the boulevard were taken in and Wonderland visited.

Specials left, conveying the party homeward at 8 o'clock, and the same route was covered on the way back, the Lawrence contingent leaving the local aggregation at Reading. The success of the affair was due to the efforts of Frederick G. Woodworth, Supt. of the company for Lowell, and of Supt. T. P. Donahue of the downriver city.

EXPERIMENTS

TO BE MADE BY ISTHMIAN CANAL OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—With the last three barges built of concrete just completed for canal work, officials of the Isthmian canal are to undertake other novel experiments with this construction material. According to a report to the Isthmian canal zone, experiments are to be undertaken at once on both the Atlantic and Pacific divisions of the canal to determine the effect of seawater on the concrete for the lower docks at Gatun and Minaflores. The object is to ascertain if steps will be necessary in order to protect the concrete. Slabs of concrete will be subjected to the seawater. Some of them will be left in their natural state; some will be treated with sodium silicate in the form of soluble glass in solutions of different strength, and some of them will be treated with alum and soap, using three-quarters of a pound of soap to one gallon of water, applied boiling hot for the first wash and 24 hours later a solution of alum, two ounces to the gallon, applied cold.

The only walls that will be subject to action by salt water will be those of the lower or sea level locks and the guide wall leading into these locks. At Minaflores about 1,400,000 square feet of surface will be thus exposed and at Gatun 1,270,000 square feet.

LAWN TENNIS MATCH

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The Lawn Tennis association today cabled to Dr. James Dwight, president of the United States Lawn Tennis association, and to President Hoskins of the Australian Tennis association, asking if it would be agreeable to both associations to have the preliminary matches between the English and American challenging teams for the Dwight F. Davis cup played off in America this year. It had earlier been proposed to play off the preliminaries in Australia, but the Australian association declined to guarantee the money necessary for the expenses of the two teams on the ground that the proposed British team is not sufficiently strong.

The final matches for the cup of which the Australians are the defenders for the third successive year will be played in December.

FOR A NEW PUMP

Bids Called for on Specifications by Water Board

Six of the Biggest Pump Concerns in the Country Will be Asked to Bid on the Pump Contracts

The water board met last night and, pursuant to the request of the mayor the board of aldermen, voted to call for bids for a pumping engine for the Centralville pumping station, before the money for the pump has been appropriated.

The request made by the mayor and board of aldermen was not in any way mandatory, but the water board decided that if compliance with the request would hasten definite action on the pump, for the matter had been hanging fire for months, it was up to the board to do it.

In the first place the water board asked for $75,000 for a pump. The matter was referred to the committee on appropriations and the committee voted to recommend the sum of $65,000. The matter went back to the board of aldermen and, on suggestion of Ald. Carmichael, was recommitted to the appropriations committee with the further suggestion that the committee ask the opinion of the city solicitor as to the legality of calling for bids for the pump before the money for the same was appropriated.

The city solicitor's reply to the communication from the appropriations committee asking for an opinion was to the effect that it would be legal for the city water board to call for bids before the money was appropriated providing there was no expense attached to the call.

The appropriations committee then sent a communication to the water board asking the board to call for the bids and the board replied to the committee stating that the board deemed it inexpedient to call for bids before the money had been appropriated.

That was all that was heard of the pump question until Alderman Gray came out with the statement to the effect that the water board had replied to the committee on appropriations when it should have replied to the board of aldermen. The water board, in reply to Alderman Gray's statement, gave copies of the committee's letter to the board and the board's letter to the committee and that, of course, proved plainly that Alderman Gray was in the wrong, for up to that time the board of aldermen had not taken the matter up with the water board.

When Alderman Gray found that it was his turn to move, a resolution was introduced in the board of aldermen, requesting the water board to call for bids. The mayor signed the resolution or request, and the board at its meeting last night voted to call for bids. The call, copies of which will be sent to the six largest pump concerns in the country, reads as follows:

Proposals for pumping engine.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Lowell water board, Lowell, Mass., until 2 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 27, 1910, for the construction, delivery and erection, complete, ready for use, for vertical triple expansion crank and fly wheel pumping engine of 8,000,000 gallons capacity, for the city of Lowell, Mass.

The proposed engine is to be located at the pumping station now in use by the city on West Sixth street and known as the Centralville pumping station. The supply of water is to be drawn from pump well now in use, through a pipe 30 inches in diameter. Capacity of pump well 85,000 gallons.

The water is pumped into a force main 24 inches in diameter, extending from the engine house to existing reservoir, where it will discharge over weir now in use, the total length of pipe being approximately 2675 feet. The steam pressure available at the boiler is 125 pounds. The various elevations concerned in the work, measured above the city datum plane, are as follows:

Engine room floor	37.5 feet
Boiler room floor	32.5 feet
Pump well, high water mark	31 feet
Pump well, low water mark	19.5 feet
Pump well floor	15.5 feet
High water reservoir	182 feet
Low water weir at reservoir	151 feet

Datum, 35 feet below top of Pawtucket dam.

The proposed pumping engine to be self contained, requiring no foundations excepting under pump chambers, and to include and have attached thereto a surface condenser, air pump and boiler feed pump of sufficient capacity, also steam throttle valve and all piping excepting the main steam, free and suction pipes.

The bidder is to furnish, in connection with his proposal, a full description of the engine, together with drawings illustrating the same, a photograph or perspective, showing its general appearance when erected and in operation, and drawings of the foundation. He is also to furnish a complete set of specifications in detail, giving the kind and quality of the material of which the various parts are to be composed, the sizes and strength of the principal working parts subjected to strain, and the manner in which they are constructed, so as to furnish a clear understanding of all points regarding the workmanship, strength, durability and general efficiency of the whole mechanism. He is also to state the working pressure of the engine, and speed of the pumps, when working at their rate capacity, and he is to specify in detail the various appurtenances which are to be supplied in order to fully equip the engine for its work, giving the name of the manufacturer of all parts not made by himself, and the time of completion of the contract. Furthermore, he is to guarantee the amount of continuous duty which the engine will perform, the said duty to be at least 160,000,000 foot pounds, on 1000 pounds of steam, and the amount of slips of the pumps. These various descriptions, specifications, drawings and guarantees are to form a part of the contract.

It is desired that the engine and its full equipment shall be complete in every respect, and that in the matter of material, workmanship and construction, it will conform to the best practice. The bid is to cover the cost of furnishing all the materials and doing all the work required in the construction and erection of the complete engine above the foundations.

The engine is to be capable of delivering from the pump well to the reservoir 8,000,000 United States gallons in 24 hours, through the 2675 feet of 24-inch pipe already named in regular service, and further, it must be capable of working to 20 per cent. higher capacity without undue strain or injury to the mechanism.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or cashier's check, upon a national bank of the city of Lowell or Boston, payable to the order of the treasurer of the city of Lowell, for the sum of $1000, said check to be returned to the bidder in case his proposal is not accepted. The party whose bid is accepted will be required to execute the contract of the form on file in the water works' office within 10 days from the time of notification of such acceptance, and in such case of failure or neglect so to do, the check accompanying the proposal will be forfeited to the city of Lowell. The party to whom the contract is awarded will be required to furnish a bond for the faithful performance of the work, in such sum as shall be fixed by the water board, this sum to be not less than 50 per cent. of the contract price. The bond must be signed by two or more sureties, who are residents of the state of Massachusetts, and satisfactory to the water board.

No bids will be considered for others than a vertical triple expansion crank and fly-wheel engine, nor from other than the regular pump manufacturers. Bids shall be addressed to the President of the Lowell water board, and marked, "Proposals, for Pumping Engine."

The water board reserves the right to reject any and all bids, should they deem it for the interest of the city of Lowell so to do.

These proposals are invited pursuant to a resolution of the mayor and board of aldermen of the city of Lowell, as follows:

City of Lowell
In board of aldermen.

Resolution requesting water board to procure competitive bids for new pump. Resolved by the board of aldermen of the city of Lowell, assembled, as follows: That the water board be and it is hereby requested to procure competitive bids for a new pump for Centralville pumping station, so that an accurate estimate of its cost may be obtained.

In board of aldermen, Aug. 9, 1910.
Approved Aug. 10, 1910.
John F. Meehan, Mayor.

Copies of the call will be sent the following companies:

R. D. Wood & Co., 400 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

William Tod Co., Youngstown, Ohio.

160 LIVES LOST

Men Perished in the Disastrous Forest Fires

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 26.—Following is a revised list of the number killed in the Idaho, Montana and Washington forest fires last Saturday and Sunday.

United States forest employees, Idaho and Montana, 100.

Settlers and fire-fighters, St. Joe Valley, Idaho, 50.

Settlers at Newport, Washington, 4.

At Wallace, Idaho, 3.

At Mullan and Spokane, 3.

Total 160.

The Missoula forest officials' list of 79 dead forest employees omits 21 killed at the Bullion mine, Montana, and on the big fork of the Coeur d'Alene.

Missing:

Negro soldiers near Avery, Idaho, 4.

Ranger Holms' party, headwaters of St. Joe, 15.

Forest employees in St. Joe valley, 25.

Reports received today by Supervisor Weigl at Wallace concerning the number of dead forest employees did not agree with that obtained at Missoula. The reports to Wallace, that of Ranger Hollingshead's sixer men on Big creek, 11 bodies have been found and the other men are missing.

Of sixty men on Setser creek 48 bodies have been found and five men are missing. These sixty-two deaths of forest employees added to the 21 deaths at the Bullion mine and on the big fork of the Coeur d'Alene and the deaths in Montana and various creeks would bring the total number of deaths in the service up to 160.

WAS NEARLY DROWNED

Ex-Alderman Daly Was Saved by His Brother

Was Struck by Boat and Sank Unconscious—His Brother Dove in and Rescued His—His Arm Numb From Nervous Shock

Ex-Alderman John W. Daly, the noted athlete and swimmer had a narrow escape from drowning at Revere Monday afternoon, and but for the heroic efforts of his brother Chris Daly would have succumbed.

Since he announced his determination to swim from Boston to Boston Light, Mr. Daly has been enjoying his vacation at Revere beach, taking long swims daily including the celebrated stunt of swimming from Revere beach to Nahant.

JOHN W. DALY

On the afternoon in question Mr. Daly was out for his usual swim and his brother and William Pugan of this city followed him in a row boat. The water was exceedingly rough, a strong wind blowing. After he had been in the water for two hours and out a great distance, Mr. Daly became thirsty and called to his brother for water. The boat in the first drew near to give him a drink and as they got close to him the wind caused the bow of the boat to swing about suddenly striking the swimmer with terrific force behind the ear.

The force of the blow rendered him unconscious and he immediately sank. Mr. Chris Daly becoming alarmed at the suddenness with which his brother went down, without waiting to remove his clothes dove in after him and brought him to the surface. He was pulled into the boat in an unconscious condition and all haste was made to get him to the shore where a physician was hastily summoned.

He regained consciousness in a short time, but felt a numbness in his arm. The physician attributes the condition of the arm to a nervous shock as the result of the blow and doubts if Mr. Daly will be able to do any strenuous swimming stunts for some time to come. The party will return to Lowell before the end of the week.

The bearers were Seth McKenzie, John S. Haynes, Emil Widen and R. H. Anderson. Burial took place in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

COLLINS—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine R. Collins took place from the Talbot chapel in the Lowell cemetery yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Chambers, rector of St. Anne's church. The bearers were Dr. Simpson, Mr. Wilfred Farrar, Dr. Leonard Huntress and Mr. H. R. Fletcher. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

FUNERAL NOTICE

BROCK—The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Brock will take place tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock from her home, 267 Worthen street, and at 9 o'clock a mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church. Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

THE NINTH REGIMENT

Is Making a Fine Showing at Pine Camp

PINE CAMP, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Yesterday was an interesting day for the militia regiments in this camp, and particularly so for the 9th infantry. It was out early yesterday morning for battalion drill and yesterday afternoon participated in a very interesting problem, in which the three battalions had a part.

Maj. Casey's battalion represented a part of the red army, which had been gathering supplies in the vicinity of the camp, and took its position at Dolan's crossing, some three miles from camp, and was allowed about 30 minutes to get into position. His wagon train was supposed to have broken down and he received information that he was to be attacked by two battalions of the blue army, which was represented by the 1st and 3d battalions of the 9th, commanded respectively by Maj. Murray and Maj. Dunn, but they were late in discovering Maj. Casey's position and by that time he was well intrenched, and as he had only to hold the position until 4 o'clock the task was comparatively easy. But he was fiercely attacked by Maj. Murray's battalion, while Maj. Dunn had worked around his flank.

Time undoubtedly saved Maj. Casey's little force, and according to the umpire's decision, he had held the position and retired in good order. The "battle" was well fought on both sides and the observers were loud in their praises of the work of both officers and men. Both the Maine and Vermont regiments had interesting problems to work out.

The beauty of these maneuvers is that intrenchments and earthworks are thrown up by the men and not theoretically built, as in all previous maneuvers. This makes the work more realistic. Of course all are very much interested in the coming bivouac—and battle tomorrow which has been arranged, when all the troops will participate, but no orders have been given, consequently all are in the dark on the subject.

This evening the cavalry are working out a problem in the rain, as almost immediately after they left the camp the first rain of the week began to fall. The fighting took place close to the camp site, but as the moon was overcast but little of the maneuvers could be seen. Hogs Back, where the searchlight had been placed by the engineers, was crowded with officers who were disappointed that more of the fighting could not be seen.

The rain not only had a dampening effect on the camp, but also on the spirits of the officers and men, who would hate to lose the maneuvers, which they have worked so hard for the last four days to grasp and become proficient in. It would undoubtedly be a great disappointment to every man.

The great progress made by the men of the 9th regiment has been a revelation to the officers who have charge of their instruction, and the instructors have not been afraid to express themselves to the writer and also to the officers. The regiment does not make a move that is not followed by a dozen observers and umpires.

Possibly the most conspicuous company on the field is Co. L of Natick, as it is well known that it had trouble in connection with its officers just before coming to camp. It is here, however, with 60 men and two officers, and it is doing great work. It turns out with full ranks at every drill. Brig. Gen. Elliott C. Dill, adjutant general of Maine, arrived tonight. Yesterday morning Hon. William S. McNary of South Boston "blew" into the camp of the 9th, where he received a warm welcome from his old comrades. Some years ago he held a commission in the regiment.

At the band concert of the 9th over 1000 men of the 10th cavalry and 24th U. S. regiment were present, Band master Barrington Sergeant having captured the colored troops with his star aggregation. At the close of the concert Chaplain Jas. Lee conducted the men in singing "America," which had to be repeated. The men then took possession of the temporary bandstand and conducted a most enjoyable vaudeville show until taps were sounded.

MAY YOHE IS ILL

She Was Stricken With Paralysis

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 26.—May Yohe, once Lady Hope of the English nobility and later wife of Major Putnam Bradlee Strong, is destitute and ill in a local hospital. She was stricken with paralysis in a cheap cafe where she was singing, and death may end her adventurous career at any time. May Yohe was born in Pennsylvania in a little town near Philadelphia. Her mother took her to the city, where she learned French and German. She developed a singing voice that was first heard in a Philadelphia church choir. Then she went on the stage. She attracted the attention of Lord Francis Hope, son of the Duchess of Newcastle. One of the wedding presents was the famous Hope diamond. It was in 1895 that they were married, and for seven years they lived together. Then came Captain (later Major) Putnam Bradlee Strong, the son of the mayor of New York. Fresh from the Philippines, he met her in San Francisco, and they eloped, going to Japan, and Lord Francis Hope divorced her. She and Major Strong traveled much, separating and uniting several times, but finally separating for good. Since then May Yohe has been heard of from time to time, dropping lower and lower in the ranks of the profession until the end came in the San Francisco cafe. Strong when last heard from was at Macao, in China.

THE HOT SPELL

THE BACKBONE OF IT MAY BE BROKEN TODAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A drop of 25 degrees in temperature made Chicago shiver last night. On the streets the women wore their wraps and the men their overcoats.

The change it isn't a cold wave, says the weather man, for cold waves come only in winter. It is sweeping across the western states, shattering some summer records as it advances eastward. Snow in the far west and killing frosts in many states are unseasonable companions of the change.

The sudden drop in temperature is accompanied by high winds, and the weather bureau issued a special storm warning to navigators on Lakes Michigan, Huron and Superior. High westerly winds will prevail and summer voyagers will have a rough, cold time of it for the next 24 hours.

Will be said this week.

THE LAST WORD

It will be clear and emphatic. If you're within hearing distance, you'll understand it. We've reserved our trump card for the last play this week, when we will offer the odds and ends of our

Fancy Mixture Suits

That Sold Up to $25.00, at

and we don't use the $25.00 price as a joke—it's a fact—we hate to admit it—it reflects on our buying judgment—but it's a fact.

Some stores would hold these for more money, but our customers expect only new goods each season from us. We've educated them to that point, and we'll hold to it at any reasonable cost.

There are 20 suits—one, two, three of a kind, but fairly well assorted as to size—fancy worsteds and cassimeres, mostly light colors, sizes 32 to 42.

The Last Word On Outing Trousers

for white flannels and tropical worsteds that were $5 and $6.

The Last Word on Staws and Panamas

$1.00 for the Straws that sold at $2.00 and $3.00.
$3.00 for Men's and Ladies' Panamas that were $5 and $6.

39c for the 50c Underwear.
35c for the 50c Neckwear.
19c for the 25c Wash Neckwear.
35c—3 for $1.00—for the 50c Fancy Hose
50c for odd lots $1.00 Shirts.

And so all through the stock. This is the last word—the final clean up. What do you say?

TRAFFIC CLOSED

Ice and Milk Supply Cut Off From Hudson

NASHUA, N. H., Aug. 26.—The bridge connecting Nashua and Hudson and spanning the Merrimack river was closed to traffic last night after the last passengers had transferred from trolley cars.

The closing of the bridge came suddenly as the result of the breaking away of a wall on the Nashua approach, where the excavations are being made for the Nashua abutment. This wall has been pushed out to one side by the pressure behind it and the contractors fear that it may push toward the river, hit the supports which are now holding the jacked up bridge and let the entire 600-foot structure into the river.

The Nashua end of the long bridge has dropped considerably and it was necessary last night to shut off the gas main running from this city to Hudson, thus putting many homes in darkness.

Supt. Anthony Morris remained at the bridge all night with two watchmen, and while teams were barred entirely Nashua people in Hudson and Hudson people in Nashua were permitted to return home with the understanding that they were crossing the bridge at their own risk. Today all traffic was suspended. This will cut off a large portion of Nashua's milk and ice supply.

The Nashua Coal and Ice company, one of the city's largest supply companies, has its entire stock in Hudson. Its only means of getting the ice to Nashua will be to hire wagons to draw to the railroad and ship that way. The same will have to be done with the milk that comes from Hudson to Nashua.

Supt. Morris stated last night that with careful work the roadway approaching the bridge will be dug out and the pressure from the rear removed. Then after building a new approach the bridge will be reopened.

BIG ICE WAGON

CRASHED INTO A POP CORN CART

One of the heavy wagons of the Daniel Gage Ice company crashed into a pop corn cart drawn by a horse on the Thorndike street bridge yesterday afternoon. There were a number of vehicles on the bridge and the driver of the horse attached to the pop corn wagon, a Mr. Gifford, in trying to avoid colliding with another vehicle steered his horse to one side only to get in the path of the ice wagon. The result was that the ice wagon overturned the lighter vehicle.

When the wagon was upset Mr. Gifford was thrown out and his stock of popped corn, unpopped corn, butter, bags and cooking utensils were scattered about the street.

When the man was thrown out of the car he had a narrow escape from being run over by the ambulance which passed over the bridge about that time on its way to the scene of another accident. The driver of the ambulance thinking that Mr. Gifford was hurt stopped but upon finding that the man had escaped injury he drove on.

THE LADIES' AUXILIARY

Elected Miss Conway on the State Board

The convention of the Ladies' auxiliaries of the A. O. H. came to a close yesterday afternoon with the election of Miss Mary McAndrews of Adams as mistress-at-arms and Miss Delia A. Conway, of this city, as sentinel.

Mrs. Catherine E. Burke, the retiring president, was presented a purse of gold in acknowledgment of her services as president and bouquets were given and gifts made to other officers.

Before adjournment the newly elected officers were installed by Mrs. Mary E. McCarthy of Westfield, the national vice president.

In electing Miss Conway on the state board the Ladies' Auxiliary made no mistake. She is one of the best speakers and ablest presiding officers to be found among the women of Lowell, but she is so modest, only her intimate friends and fraternal associates are aware of it.

CONSTABLE BUSY

Brought Consternation to Summer Colony

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 26.—Again yesterday Constable John G. Cross, the young Harvard law student, brought consternation to members of the summer colony who frequented the alleged gambling parlors at the Narragansett club before they were closed Aug. 7, following a raid by him. Mounted on a bicycle he made an unexpected visit yesterday afternoon to the Point Judith Country club, where the polo matches were being contested, and moving through the crowd of society folk served summonses on three Philadelphia men to appear in court on Monday next. Then he was ordered by Philip S. P. Randolph of Philadelphia, president of the country club, to leave the grounds.

Mr. Randolph had called a policeman and the crowd of gaily dressed women with the men looked for something exciting. But Constable Cross declared he had served all the summonses he had with him and was ready to go.

When asked last night for the names of the men he had summoned to attend on Monday the trial in the second district court at Wakefield of William E. Arnold, who is charged with maintaining a gambling place at the Narragansett club, Constable Cross refused to make any statement

It looked for a moment as if there would be trouble when one of the men whom Mr. Cross buttonholed yesterday afternoon shook his fist in the constable's face. The latter continued reading the summons, however, and the remonstrating Philadelphia social leader carried his objections no further.

The Narragansett club was closed tight as a drum yesterday for the first time this season.

NO CHANGE YET

In Strike Situation in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—Following the failure of the contractors to meet William McLean, president of the Bricklayers' union, on Thursday afternoon in a conference which had been arranged, both the contractors and the strikers are resting today as far as any important events in the laborers' strike are concerned. The strike leader, Dominick D'Alessandro said today that he did not know what his next move would be, possibly he would withdraw from the city and allow the laborers themselves to adjust their difficulties.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

A social and dancing party was held in Merrimack hall, Merrimack street, Wednesday night under the auspices of the Lady Wolfe Tones, I. N. F. There was a large attendance and the affair proved to be a success.

DIRECTOR CHANGED

REV. BRO. JORDANS LEAVES ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

Rev. Brother Jordanus, director of St. Joseph's college, has been transferred at his own request to the Marist school at Robervial, Lake St. John, where he will fill the office of assistant director. He left this city last night for his new place.

The change came at the request of Rev. Brother Jordanus himself whose health had not been of the best lately, and who desired less arduous duties for a time.

Rev. Brother Leon Marcel, for the past three years director of the Marist school at La Malbaie, Que., is coming to Lowell to take the direction of St. Joseph's college. He is a native of France, 31 years old.

SALVATION ARMY

TAKES CONTROL OF THE CHILDREN'S PICNIC

The annual outing of the poor children of this city, which in years previous has been conducted by Constable John McManus, will be held next Wednesday at Mountain Rock grove under the auspices of the Salvation Army corps, and under the direct management of Adjutant and Mrs. Harry Hawkins of the local branch of the army.

The success of the affair depends in no small measure on the generosity of the public and for several weeks boxes have been placed at points of vantage along the principal streets and considerable money has been received, but the army is in need of more money and balls, bats, neckties, shoes, candy, peanuts and various notions, the latter to be offered as prizes. If the public desires to contribute either the money or different articles can be sent to the barracks or a post card sent to 32-34 Jackson street, and the articles will be called for.

Fifteen hundred lunch boxes have been given by A. F. French and in each box there will be placed a ham sandwich, a doughnut, a cheese sandwich, a cup cake and a banana. There will be plenty of lemonade for the youngsters.

Up to date 13 cars have been donated but five more are needed.

The Provincial band of New England, with headquarters in Boston, will be on hand and give a concert in Paige street Wednesday morning prior to the start of the cars and on Tuesday evening, the night before the outing, the same band will give a concert at the army barracks in Jackson street.

Upon arriving at Mountain Rock the children will be started on their sports at once, and will continue until noon. Then all will be lined up and marched to the ball grounds. As each child enters the grounds he will be passed a box containing his lunch. After dinner, sports will be in order again. The first car will start back to the city at 5.30 o'clock, and will arrive here shortly after 6 o'clock.

BATTED LIKE FIENDS

Lowell Pounded Morgan, Haverhill Pitcher, for 15 Hits

Lowell played big league ball against Haverhill yesterday and defeated the tail-enders by a score of 9 to 1.

The hero of the occasion was Pitcher Yount, the elongated gentleman with the passionate hosiery and all kinds of speed and curves. This time Yount shone forth as a heavy clout artist for out of four times at bat he made a single, a double and a triple and the triple would have been a home run had he run faster. He pitched well and fielded satisfactorily.

Lowell got to Pitcher Morgan for 15 hits and played a first class fielding game while Haverhill gave Morgan rather indifferent support.

Fluharty and Magee contributed sensational catches while Sullivan worked finely behind the bat.

First Inning

Lowell broke the ice in the first inning by sending one man over the plate while the down-river players failed to make good. Hagan was the first man up and he reached first on a single to right garden, but when he tried to steal second Sullivan by a perfect throw nailed him. Bannon hit to Yount and failed to reach first. Moore singled to left field but was caught while trying to steal second.

In the latter half of the inning Blakely opened with a free pass. Fitz sent a fly in Moran's territory but the latter fumbled and the runner was safe at first while Blakely meandered to second. Cooney sacrificed and advanced the men on base. Magee sent a sacrifice fly to Moore and Blakely scored. Tenney hit Morgan and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 1, Haverhill 0.

Second Inning

Nothing doing in the second. Foulke singled and went to second on Merrill's sacrifice, but he died there, for Cain flied to Blakely and Anderson knocked a fly to left field which Magee gathered in.

In Lowell's half Fluharty hit to Cain and never saw first and Boultes followed with a single. Sullivan hit to Morgan and Boultes tried to "hog" it by attempting to reach third. He was caught between second and third. Yount singled but Blakely closed the inning by flying to Merrill.

Score—Lowell 1, Haverhill 0.

Third Inning

In the third inning Jackley hit to Cooney and was out at first and Morgan hit to Yount and was retired at the initial bag. Hagan reached first on an error by Boultes and stole second. A free pass gave Bannon first base. Moore made a hit and Hagan scored. Bannon and Moore then worked a double steal, but a few minutes afterwards Foulke was called out on strikes.

Fitz flied to Cain and Cooney followed with a single to left and Magee was second out on a fly to Cain. Tenney flied to Hagan but the latter dropped the ball. Fluharty singled to centre field, scoring Cooney while Tenney went to third. Boultes struck out.

Score—Lowell 2, Haverhill 1.

Fourth Inning

The fourth was short and sweet. Merrill and Cain were retired on strikes while Anderson hit to Cooney and retired at first.

Sullivan hit to Cain and died at first and Yount hit to left field for a two-bagger. Blakely flied to Bannon who made a pretty catch and the latter threw the ball to second for a double play on Yount.

Score—Lowell 2, Haverhill 1.

Fifth Inning

In the fifth inning Jackley flied to Fluharty and Morgan was out on strikes. Hagan singled to centre field but Bannon hit to Boultes and was out at first.

Two more for Lowell in the latter half of the inning. Fitz opened with a three bagger to the centre field fence and scored on Cooney's sacrifice fly to Moore. Magee singled to left field but was caught while trying to steal second. Tenney bunted along the third base line and beat the ball to first for a hit. Cain threw bad to first and Tenney went to second. Fluharty singled to centre field scoring Tenney. Fluharty started to go to second on the throw home but Morgan intercepted the ball and threw him out.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 1.

Sixth Inning

In the sixth inning Moore flied to Cooney and Foulke hit to Cooney and was out at first. Merrill singled and Cain hit to Boultes who threw Merrill out at second.

Boultes flied to Cain. Sullivan drew a base on balls but was thrown out while trying to steal second. Yount went out on strikes.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 1.

Seventh Inning

In the seventh inning Anderson was robbed of a hit by Fluharty who made a pretty running catch of a ball off the former's bat. Jackley singled to centre field and Morgan struck out, while Hagan, who followed, hit to Fitz and died at first.

In Lowell's half Blakely struck out and Fitz hit to Anderson and was out at first. Cooney hit over second base and Hagan made a one hand stop and threw him out at first.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 1.

Eighth Inning

Bannon flied to Cooney, Moore hit to Cooney and died at first while Foulke was retired on strikes.

Magee hit one too hot for Hagan to handle and he reached first. Tenney hunted down the first base line and beat the ball to first for a hit. Fluharty advanced both men with a sacrifice. Boultes singled to right field scoring Magee. The ball was thrown home but Jackley allowed it to go by him and Tenney also scored. Sullivan singled to left field scoring Boultes. Yount knocked the ball to the farthest end of the field for a three-bagger, scoring Sullivan. If Yount had traveled faster he could have made a home run. Blakely hit to Morgan and the latter knocked the ball down and Hagan threw to first in time to get to the runner, but Yount scored. Fitz singled to left field. Cooney flied to Jackley.

Score—Lowell 9, Haverhill 1.

Ninth Inning

In the ninth inning Merrill struck out. Cain struck out. Anderson flied to Boultes.

DIAMOND NOTES

Lynn at Lowell today.

And we're still on the threshhold of the first division.

Fifteen hits is batting some.

It was worth the price of admission to see Daddy Loding-Legs clout the ball; a single, a double and a triple. If Yount could step around the bases like Magee that triple would have been a homer without any doubt.

Put Worcester down for second place.

Sullivan throws to second with grace and accuracy.

Magee and Fluharty furnished a couple of circus catches that got the fans going.

A delegation of Lynn fans is expected here this afternoon.

Red Rorty sprang a hot shot here recently to a local fan that shows his Celtic wit. "One or two fans were kidding him in Central square and one of them sang out to the red ump, 'We'll get you some time.' 'If you do you'll have to hurry up, I may cash in before the end of the season,'" sang out Rorty as he painfully limped aboard a trolley car.—Lynn News.

President Johnson of the American league yesterday issued the following list of releases and contracts affecting 14 players:

CY SEYMOUR, FORMER GIANT, CHASED BACK TO THE MINORS

BALTIMORE, Aug. 26.—Baseball fans here are figuring that with Cy Seymour, who was secured from the New York Nationals recently, in the regular lineup the team will have a splendid chance to finish in third place. Manager Dunn believes that Cy still maintains his hitting eye and will help the Orioles win many victories with his big stick. For years Cy was among the leading hitters of the National league. He began to go back two years ago. His legs were in bad shape in 1908. Last year he got into trouble with Latham and was suspended. Then on the day of his reinstatement his ankle was broken. He finished the last few weeks of the season and hit better than at any previous time in his major league career. Snodgrass this season crowded Cy out of a regular position, and he became excess baggage. Seymour went to New York as a southpaw from the Albany team in the New York State league. He lacked control. He was so wild that rarely did he have an effective day. But he was a terrific hitter and for that reason was converted into an outfielder.

GAMES TODAY

National—Brooklyn at Pittsburg.

New England—Brockton at New Bedford, Lawrence at Fall River, Lynn at Lowell, Worcester at Haverhill.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Brownies of Belvidere would like to challenge any 15-year-old team in or out of the city. Please pay half fare for out of the city. Send all challenges to Manager Thomas McQuade, 10 Pleasant street, or to William Conroy, 124 Bartlett street.

Next Saturday afternoon the O. M. I. Cadets and the Brooksides of the Lowell and Suburban league will meet in a league game on the latter's grounds in Collinsville. The game will be called at 3 p. m.

The Y. M. C. A. second team of the Stony Brook league will play a team from the John Pilling shoe factory, of the Suburban league, on the North common, Saturday afternoon.

Jake Morse recently announced that Lynn would play in Lowell Saturday. Frank Leonard told him he was wrong and showed him. Now Jake says the game will be played in Lynn, and that goes.

The undefeated Lincolns and the strong Orioles will cross bats Saturday afternoon at the Lincoln's grounds on Chelmsford street.

FOOTBALL NEWS

The Lowell Athletics will play the Lawrence Juniors association football team on the Fordway park, North Billerica, Saturday afternoon in the first league game of the season. The Lowell boys are out to win from their rivals who have not lost a game for two years and a fast game is expected. These teams should have met last Saturday, but as the grounds were in a poor condition the game had to be postponed. The line-up for the Lowell Athletics is as follows:

Goal, Normandy; backs, Mahon (captain), Pendergast; halfbacks, Johnson, Trickett; forwards, Goodall, Taylor, Hoyle, Lamb, Clegg, Mitchell. Silva is president.

CHOLERA OUTBREAK

THE DISEASE HAS REACHED VIENNA

VIENNA, Aug. 26.—Cholera, it is officially announced, has broken out in this city. After throwing doubt for two days on the reports of cases in Vienna, the health department of the ministry of the interior today announced that bacteriological examination of several suspected cases had established that the patients were suffering from Asiatic cholera. The victims are from Hungary.

A BOLD ROBBERY

Aged Man Was Held Up in Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Joseph McCarthy, 22, and Albert M. Carroll, 25, both single, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Jeremiah Crowley of station 15 on a charge of robbing Valentine B. Willey, 74, a wealthy lumber dealer of Wolfboro, N. H., of a silver watch, valued at $12, on Roland street, Charlestown, about 11 o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Willey has been in this vicinity for the past few days, and yesterday morning went out to Lexington to transact some business. On his return he alighted from the car in the Sullivan square terminal and proceeded to walk to the depot of the Eastern division of the Boston & Maine railroad at East Somerville for the purpose of taking a train to Medford.

Things had so changed since Mr. Willey's last visit here that he became bewildered and got down among the tracks of the railroad at East Somerville and was wandering aimlessly about when, he claims, he met McCarthy and Carroll on Roland sirtet and asked them the way to the depot.

While going up Roland street, Mr. Willey was dealt a severe blow behind the right ear and as he fell a hand clutched his throat. His silver watch was then taken from his pocket.

A bookkeeper in one of the manufactories close by saw the entire transaction and telephoned to Station 15. Patrolman Crowley responded, and from the description given him of the two men, decided to arrest McCarthy and Carroll.

McCarthy was captured about 1 o'clock at the office of the Boston & Maine railroad, where he had applied earlier in the day for work. Carroll had been arrested previously.

Carroll at first stoutly denied that he had anything to do with the affair, but according to the police, finally weakened and told where the watch was. He told Crowley that when he saw him on the car a short time after the robbery he feared he was after him, and ran and threw the watch down a vault. Here the watch was found and was returned to Mr. Willey. The latter was not seriously hurt.

TENDERED A RECEPTION

Mr. William Herrick, son of Mrs. Louise Herrick of 48 Sladen street, Dracut, and Miss Elsie Crowingshield, of Ticonderoga, N. Y., who were united in marriage Monday at the latter's home, were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. Herrick's mother in Dracut, Tuesday night. During the evening the newly married couple received many presents.

The interior of the house was artistically decorated and the couple was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Louise Herrick.

WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Lawrence City Council to Meet to Elect a Mayor

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Attorney General Dana Malone yesterday affixed his signature to a petition to the Mass. supreme court, asking for a writ of mandamus to compell acting Mayor Thomas M. Jordan of Lawrence to call a meeting of the common council of that city in order that it may take action on going into joint convention with the board of aldermen for the purpose of electing a mayor to succeed former Mayor White, who is serving a three-year sentence in jail for bribery. It was expected that the petition would be filed in the supreme court this afternoon by City Solicitor Murphy of Lawrence.

The attorney general did not sign the petition for a writ of mandamus until acting Mayor Jordan had repeatedly declined to call a meeting of the common council at his own volition. The acting mayor explained that he is and always has been ready to call the common council into session whenever they ask him to do so, but as the members of the council are now taking their summer vacation he did not think he ought to disturb them except upon their own request.

After hearing the evidence in the matter Attorney General Malone said that in his opinion acting Mayor Jordan ought to call a meeting of the common council, and he suggested Sept. 6 as the date, this being the day on which the next meeting of the board of aldermen will be held. Acting Mayor Jordan, however, said that he wished to be consistent in his own position, and declined to issue the call. The attorney general then affixed his signature to the petition.

MAYOR OF SALEM

Is Said to Have Got Names Mixed

SALEM, Aug. 26.—Mayor Howard's charges that L. F. Bassett has been guilty of grafting in the work done on the manual training school will be heard Monday night before the committee of public property and it will then develop that it would have been quite impossible for L. F. Bassett to have been guilty of the acts alleged.

In his letter to Alderman S. Herbert Wilkins, chairman of the committee, Mayor Howard specified that Bassett had two men employed by him on the manual training school and that each of those men was down on the city payroll at $24 a week, whereas they actually received $15 and $18 respectively, the contractor pocketing the balance.

L. F. Bassett is not a contractor and had no contract and hired no men on the school work. His brother, F. S. Bassett, however, did have a contract to install an engine at the school, and, while that work was being done, he was asked to figure on some "extras" in carpenter work.

Members of the committee to hear the charges say they know all about the affair, that Bassett said the work was too small to figure on and that the easiest and cheapest way for all was to let him (Bassett) have his men who would do the work go on the city payroll at his regular charge for such work, $24 a week, and he would pay them and get his profit on the difference.

HELD A LAWN PARTY

A very successful and well attended lawn party was held at the Grange hall in Dracut Centre last night under the auspices of the Dracut Centre volunteer fire company. Dancing, which was held in the hall, proved to be one of the features of the evening.

The grounds adjoining the hall were decorated and illuminated in an attractive manner. Several booths which were placed on the lawn and presided over by members of the department were well patronized.

The Colonial orchestra furnished music for dancing.

"DAN" McCAFFREY

PRESENTED GOLD HEADED CANE BY LAWRENCE FRIENDS

During the second act of "The Pride of the Ranch," Joseph J. Flynn's sparkling musical comedy at Glen Forest theatre Monday night, Dan'l McCaffrey, the well known and popular comedian, was presented with a solid gold-headed, ebony cane by a number of his Lawrence friends and admirers.

The presentation was made by Lewis S. Powers, a member of the company.

Mr. McCaffrey responded in a choked voice, and thanked the donors.

The cane bears the following inscription: "Presented to Mr. Daniel McCaffrey, by his Lawrence, Mass., friends August 22, 1910."

"The Pride of the Ranch" is a musical comedy of the western style, and one can imagine himself in the Golden West during the two acts of the play which are interspersed with bright comedy, and tuneful, catchy music and songs. The company is an exceptionally clever one, and well merits the approval shown by the audience.

The singing of Miss Powers, Mr. Lasee and Mr. Randall won the greatest outbursts of applause seen or heard at the park this season. Lewis Powers was compelled to respond several times with his parodies, which with the work of Dan McCaffrey as Judge Lovetoddy kept the audience in a continuous uproar of laughter.

"BILLY" MALONEY

HAVING A MOST ENJOYABLE TIME IN WILDS OF MAINE?

Mr. William Maloney of Pleasant street is enjoying a hunting and fishing trip in Maine. Mr. Maloney has located his camp close to the boundary line and is enjoying himself immensely. The fishing, he reports, is grand, and he is making large catches. In the hunting line he writes that he found some trouble at first because of the lack of a hound, but he had shipped to him "Duke," the well known hunting dog that was trained by "Billy" Burns, and for the last few days has been exceptionally lucky.

LOSS IS $20,000

Race Horses Saved From Fire at Risk of Life

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—A dozen speedy light-harness horses valued at from $50 to $5000 each and 40 work horses valued at $200 each were rescued early last evening by stablemen, trainers, policemen and others from a fire that destroyed the big boarding, livery and racing and express stables of A. J. Furbush, which is in the rear of 200 Washington street, Brighton. Three alarms were sounded for the fire from box 832 and help came from Cambridge and Newton.

The loss on the building, 50 tons of hay, the grain, harness, new buggies and other contents is estimated between $20,000 and $25,000. The loss is covered by insurance.

Much of the credit for saving the horses, racing sulkies, harness and wagons is due to the presence of mind of the owner's wife and their daughter Louise. They remained on the veranda of their home in front of the stables and directed the rescue work.

Mr. Furbush was at the Marshfield fair. Word was sent to him and he came home in an automobile.

The stable was of wood with a frontage of two stories and a loft on Nantasket avenue and three stories and a loft on Snow street.

The Furbush home fronts at 200 Washington street, Brighton, surrounded by spacious grounds and having a garage between the ell of the house and the stable.

Walter Burdick, trainer, and his assistant, Lawrence Lyons, were on the first floor on the Nantasket avenue side at 7 o'clock watering the light harness horses when a burst of flames and smoke confronted him, coming down through the hay and grain chutes. The next instant flames broke through the roof of the big building, which extended 150 feet along Nantasket avenue and had an ell extending 150 feet.

Men, women and children saw the flames and ran through the streets crying "Fire." A citizen ran to box 832 on Washington street opposite Shannon street, and sent in an alarm.

Mrs. Furbush and her daughter, who were alone in the big house, were almost overcome by the shock of seeing the fire, but they quickly recovered and ran to the piazza and began giving orders to employes and directing the rescue.

The rescue work had been going on some time before the firemen arrived. Burdick and Lyons hooded the heads of the high-strung racers and with great difficulty and at some risk to their own lives ran the horses out through flames and smoke into Nantasket avenue and turned them loose in the Furbush pasture on Nevins hill.

Patrolman Michael Sullivan, who covers the route; William Welsh and George Reeves, neighbors; reserve officer Nicholas Bowe and Patrolman Jos. Quinan hurried into the burning stable and worked at the risk of life in getting the workhorses out of the basement into Snow street. Many of these horses were turned loose and rollicked in the streets until they were captured and stabled by neighbors.

Furbush House Set Afire

Philemon D. Warren, deputy superintendent of police, was on the steps of the Brighton police station and immediately directed that a big detail of policemen be sent and the streets were soon roped off.

Capt. John S. Cleverly of engine 29, acting chief of the Brighton district, ordered a third alarm as soon as he arrived.

Chief Mullen was soon on the scene and engine companies from Newton and Cambridge responded to the third alarm in accordance with the fire district agreement.

Sparks filled the air and set fire to the roof of the Furbush house. A fireman climbed to the roof of the house and wet it down with a chemical line continually until the firemen finally played a stream of water there.

When it looked as if the house would go a cry was sent up that Frank A. Edgerley, foreman for Mr. Furbush, who broke his leg some weeks ago, was helpless in a bed in the rear room on the second floor of the house. Patrolman Quinn and Reserve Officer Bowe ran up into the smoke filled room and made a cradle with the bed clothing and carried Edgerley to the street. Edgerley weighs about 200 pounds, and they found it difficult to carry him without injuring his leg. They broke down a fence and carried him across to the office of Dr. Brackett in Shannon street.

At this time Mrs. Furbush and her daughter Louise were taken across Washington street to the residence of John Pierce, but sparks soon set the roof of this house on fire. This fire was soon extinguished. Then Mrs. Furbush and her daughter went back to their own home.

John Mahoney worked with a hand fire extinguisher on the roof of the Furbush house all during the fire.

Chemical's Horses Run Away

Chemical 6 was standing in Nantasket avenue near the burning stables when the horses became frightened and making a short turn started to run into Washington street. They were caught, but in their short flight they ran head on into the side of a building and one was severely cut.

Stable employes, citizens, policemen and firemen removed four hacks, a hearse and 12 racing sulkies from the burning carriage house, along with a large number of carriages.

Although a bold effort was made to save them, 16 new buggies, valued at an average of $300, were destroyed. While a great many sets of harness were saved there was a valuable assortment of racing harness, light driving and road harness, boots, racing gear, blankets, robes and other costly horse clothing of considerable value, in the loft of the stable, which was destroyed.

Maurice Keefe, Michael J. Kenney, James Furguson and Michael Russell succeeded in saving some of the harness and some of the racing gear on the street floor on the Nantasket avenue side.

Two automobiles in the garage were saved without appreciable damage and the garage buildings also were saved, though badly scorched.

A fresh breeze was blowing from the south, carrying the flames and sparks out over a vacant lot and across to many tenement houses that were kept wet down by the firemen to prevent their taking fire.

Spectacle for Great Crowd

When the fire was at its height R. H. Russell and family and Michael Connors and family, who occupy a two-apartment house at 29 Nantasket avenue, south of the burning stable, moved all their household effects into a field, and the women sat in the midst of the goods. Though the roof took fire several times, no appreciable damage was done to the dwelling. Later the two families moved back.

A large wooden building in the rear of the stable, occupied by the Brighton Construction company, was in danger, but was saved by being kept constantly wet down.

It was thought the fire originated from a spontaneous combustion in the 50 tons of new hay which was recently put into the loft. This was valued at $1250. There were about 100 bushels of oats and nearly as much other grain in the bins. The stock of winter horse clothing, boots, snow racing equipment, blankets and fur robes stored there was also destroyed.

The burning building was on a hill and the flames reached a great height and were seen easily by persons in Newton, Brookline, Cambridge and many other surrounding places, and a great many persons came in automobiles, carriages, electric cars, on bicycles and on foot to see the fire. The streets were jammed with automobiles and vehicles of all descriptions.

The fire was out at 10 o'clock, although a company of firemen remained and the stable employes began assembling and housing the horses.

Happy, Happy, Use TIZ

A Marvel For Sore Feet. Acts Right Off

Sore Feet? Never After Using TIZ—

Good-bye sore feet, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelling feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sore-proof.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

If you don't find all this true after trying a box of TIZ, you can get your money right back.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co. Chicago, Ill.

FINGERS INJURED

WORKMAN HAD HAND CAUGHT IN PULLEY

Thomas Finnegan, employed on the night shift on the new Massachusetts storehouse which is under the course of construction in Bridge street, had two fingers of his right hand caught in the shears of a hoisting pulley. The fingers were badly jammed and he was taken in the ambulance to the Lowell hospital where the injured members were dressed. He resides at 8 Tyler street.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

A good auto race held here every year would cause many societies to hold their state and national conventions here.

The search of strikers for dangerous weapons is a new departure that has been tried but with little success by the police of New Bedford.

Edison, the electric wizard, announces that he can make moving pictures talk. Nobody can afford to be surprised at anything he may discover or invent.

It seems that the powder mills of Acton are blown up far too often. If the owners had to take any chances around the factory, they would adopt such precautionary measures as would lessen the number of accidents.

When children, boys and girls, begin to commit suicide, it is time to halt and ascertain the cause. Why should the juvenile temper be as explosive as a firecracker? It may come from ill-treatment or from heredity, where the highly nervous temperament of both parents is multiplied in the child.

UTILIZING THE ROOFS OF BUILDINGS

In view of the recent tendency to sleep out of doors and the very general necessity of open air breathing places, the owners of property will hereafter pay more attention to utilizing the roofs of buildings for purposes of recreation, health and comfort.

In Cleveland a new idea has been brought out for building a block upon pillars leaving a playground for children underneath with air shafts going up through the building sufficient to supply the necessary ventilation. While the playground underneath the building might be safer than on the roof, still it will hardly be popular with the children as it is likely to be objectionable on account of the collection of rubbish that in time might become offensive and unwholesome.

ROOSEVELT TO FIGHT IT OUT

It seems now that the republican leaders are becoming very deeply involved in a bitter fight over the political situation in New York City. Roosevelt as a result of being turned down by the recent convention is now determined to go into the fight against the leaders who administered that rebuke. He is backed in his attitude by President Taft, and the official who seems to come in for most of the blame is Vice President Sherman. For this reason Colonel Roosevelt espouses the cause of Senator Davenport, a New York insurgent who was rejected by Vice President Sherman. The fight promises to be very warm; and if it results in another defeat for Roosevelt, we surmise that that will overthrow his prestige as a political leader in the republican party.

GIVE US MORE STATE HIGHWAYS

When the state highway from Lowell to Lawrence will have been completed there will then be a direct route from Lowell to the sea at Newburyport. There should also be a state highway from Lowell to Lawrence on the south side of the river. At present the road is much better than that on the north side between the two cities.

The rough and neglected condition of both, however, go to show that the people hereabouts have been asleep to their own interests in their not having long ago forced the adoption of both roads as state highways. The drive between the two cities if these roads were like the road between Lowell and Tyngsboro, would be the most delightful in the state whereas now it is avoided as dangerous to autos and even to other vehicles.

Lowell should insist on having a state highway on the south side of the river as well as the north. She is entitled to this much consideration in lieu of the large tax paid to the state.

THE INSURGENT REPUBLICANS

The insurgent movement in the republican party is likely to spread. In Kansas and Iowa the insurgents are practically the whole thing and the movement is spreading all over the country. The protest is directly against the republican machine, against Cannon and the Aldrich tariff.

The insurgent sentiment was expressed by Senator Cummins, of Iowa when he said:

> "The demand for revision of the tariff originated in the necessities of the people and was founded upon the fundamental instinct for justice. If there had been an honest attempt to fix duties according to the cost of production I might have yielded my view on the question of fact, but there was no such attempt. There is no exigency in public affairs or party action that can induce me to say that a thing is good when I believe it to be bad, or to say that it is true when I believe it to be false. I for one refused to follow Aldrich, Hale, Lodge, Cannon and Dalzell into a sneering, contemptuous, open repudiation of my party platform."

That is but a part of the severe arraignment of the political machine and its workings for the perpetuation of its control. The great crisis that will test the strength of the party and that may bring a sweeping democratic victory is fast approaching and nothing but democratic mismanagement can prevent it resulting in the utter defeat of the latter. Should the democratic candidate for governor in Iowa be elected, the result would be a crushing blow to the republican machine throughout the country. It is a great opportunity for the democratic party to redeem itself for some past blunders.

SELLS THEM ALIVE

Europe Excels America in the Fish Business

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Valuable ideas concerning fishery methods were obtained in Europe by U. S. Fish Commissoner Bowers, who has just returned from abroad. Mr. Bowers is a Maine man, although he has been a resident of West Virginia for many years.

"I visited England, France, Belgium and other countries," said Mr. Bowers, "I inspected the fish markets of various cities and found their methods most interesting. One thing in which they excel America is the method of handling fresh water fish. They are kept in water and sold alive, so that it is possible for the purchaser to select a fish or eel that is swimming about and have it killed and dressed immediately. Eels are very popular among the people of Europe.

"I found no fish that excels our American fish as game or food. By the aid of French cooking, however, European fish sometimes taste better to the epicure.

"I believe the European fish known as sole would be a good thing to import and shall recommend that we try to propagate it in this country.

"I visited Hull and Grimbsy. The latter is to Great Britain what Gloucester is to American fisheries, the chief center of the industry.

Confers About Seal Pelts

"Crossing the channel I visited Rotterdam, Amsterdam, and Paris. Returning home via London, I conferred with British officials and furriers about the seal pelts which the U. S. government has taken from male seals killed on the Pribiloff islands and also about raising the fur seal in fresh water. London experts are interested in both of these maters.

"Twenty seal pups are now en route from the Pribiloffs on a revenue cutter. I have today ordered one of our special cars to Seattle to meet the cutter and bring the pups east. We will distribute them among aquaria in the large cities and elsewhere to demonstrate that the fur seal can thrive in fresh water.

"I have no doubt that aquaria in Boston, New York and other places will be glad to get a pair of the seals. We have had a pair of young seals in the fisheries bureau building for a year and they have grown and kept healthy in fresh water, despite the fact that zoologists insisted that the fur seal could not live out of salt water any length of time. If seals can live in Potomac river water, I believe they can thrive in Kentucky whisky.

"The success of our experiment here opens up the possibility in rivers or lakes throughout the country. I believe they will thrive in any body of fresh water that does not freeze completely over in winter.

"True, it will be difficult to confine the seals, but the expense involved in building a seal-proof enclosure would be amply repaid by the profits to be made in the business. A farmer receives perhaps $5 for a lamb, while the value of a fur seal pelt is about $40 in the raw state. I was led to try the experiment of keeping seals in fresh water by observations on the Pribiloffs four years ago. There I noticed that many seals went from the coast into a small lake, the water of which was brackish, and lived for long periods."

Takes Issue With Critics

Commissioner Bowers takes issue with W. T. Hornaday of New York and others who have criticised the department of commerce and labor's action in killing male seals this year.

"Only a certain number of males are necessary to preserve the herd," said Mr. Bowers. "No females should be killed at any time, but if the surplus males are not killed by the government they will kill each other or be captured by pelagic sealers. If conservation is the object of Hornaday and his friends they should seek to put the seal poachers out of business. If the surplus bulls are not killed when young their pelts become valueless except for crude purposes.

"I have received no report from the Pribiloffs, but suppose that probably 8000 or 10,000 males were killed by our agents. Their skins are expected to arrive at San Francisco aboard the cutter Homer about Sept. 9.

"The skins will be packed in barrels and sold and shipped to London for curing. They are the property of the United States government and I was anxious to see if the skins could not be located and cured in this country. I conferred with London furriers about the matter. They alone possess the secret of plucking the long hairs from seal skins, dying and otherwise preparing them for the trade. I urged one London firm to establish a branch in the United States to prepare Alaskan skins, but was told that they had been so long established at London that they did not wish to make a change."

CREW RESCUED

Ship Was Found in Sinking Condition

BREMEN, Aug. 26.—A despatch from Fayal, Azores islands, to the North German Lloyd Co. reports that the North German Lloyd steamer Koenig Luise encountered the ship Harvester Queen of Windsor, N. S., which sailed from Dalhousie, N. B., Aug. 19, for Buenos Ayres, Aug. 24, in a sinking condition, the ship being then in longitude 40.51 west and in latitude 44.24 north. All the crew of the Harvest Queen were taken aboard the Koenig Luisand the ship was left burning in midocean, having been set afire to prevent her becoming a menace to navigation.

BIG AUTO RACE

GARTER SLIPPED

And Boston Woman Lost Her Gems

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Because of a defective fastening on a garter, Mrs. Florence Bailey yesterday afternoon lost three diamond rings valued at $150 and $84 in bills.

Mrs. Bailey, who lives at 74 Dalton street, Back Bay, noticed her loss just after she had left a Waltham car at Malvern avenue, Brighton.

She has enlisted the police in a search for her property, and declares that she will never again depend on a garter to safeguard her valuables.

"I left my house about 2 o'clock in the afternoon and walked to the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Boylston street, where I took an outbound car for Brighton," said Mrs. Bailey last night.

"The car I got was an open Waltham car and I sat near the centre, between two men. When I reached Malvern avenue I alighted.

"As I walked down Malvern avenue I began to feel my stocking slipping down. When I looked for my valuables they were gone. I managed to fix the broken garter and walked back to the corner, where I met an officer who went with me to the police station and there they started an investigation which resulted in the car being searched, but with no result.

"The diamond rings which I lost are very valuable. I had them wrapped up in tissue paper and the three little packages were tied together.

"The money I had rolled up in four small bundles. One contained $30, another $17, the third $12 and the fourth $25. I had put these into one large bundle and put a rubber band around it. It made a large roll, as most of the bills were of small denomination, and it is a wonder that I did not miss it the minute it slipped out of my stocking.

"I have advertised for the rings and the money and after this you may be sure I won't carry any money in my stocking."

GROOM HANDCUFFED

Friends Carried B. A. Helsey Off in Auto

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—With his wrists handcuffed behind his back, his face smeared with lamp-black and a policeman's club sticking out of the front of his coat Bert A. Kelsey of 117 Berkeley street, proprietor of a restaurant at 11 Essex strett, walked into station 10 at Roxbury Crossing last night. Kelsey could hardly control his temper as he explained to the police that he was the victim of a practical joke perpetrated by his friends.

Kelsey told the police he became a bridegroom only 48 hours ago. He was married quietly and had tried to keep the affair a secret, but the news leaked out yesterday afternoon. Kelsey said: "Some of those friends of mine won't forget it for a long time when I have had my innings."

Somewhere, this morning, Kelsey's wife, if the plans of his friends have worked out successfully, is anxiously awaiting news of her husband, and also a railroad ticket to return to her home of but two days.

Kelsey and his wife are each about 26 years old. They were married Tuesday evening. They were seated in their dining room in their flat at 117 Berkeley street last night when two taxicabs drew up to the door. Several business men entered, and after chatting awhile invited the bride and bridegroom to take an automobile ride. They consented, and about 8.30 they started out Columbus avenue.

Evidently the drivers were let into the joke, for when they reached one of the darkest spots along the roadway near Jamaica pond something happened to both machines at the same time. The passengers alighted and about 10 young men and women were standing, laughing and talking, beside the machines, when Kelsey was suddenly seized from behind.

Kelsey fought desperately—or at least he said so—but was overpowered and handcuffs were slipped on his wrists. Mrs. Kelsey was escorted to another automobile and placed in the hands of the women.

At first Kelsey took the situation good-naturedly, but when one of the number of "arch conspirators," as Kelsey termed them, produced a liberal quantity of black grease paint and began to daub his face and hands the affair ceased to be a joke.

Gleefully the men went about their work, until they had completed it to their satisfaction. Kelsey struggled, but could not get away. Then he was bundled into the automobile and the start for the city was made. They reached Roxbury Crossing a little before 10.

At a signal both machines were stopped and Kelsey was forced to alight. As he stood on the curbing, one of the young men put a pair of pincers and several other articles that might be termed burglars' tools in his pockets while another forced the club into the upper pocket of his coat, leaving the business end hanging out.

Laughing and giving all sorts of advice they drove away. Kelsey thought of several friends in different garages that might assist him. He visited two establishments, but in both places his friends were away and as he bore all appearances of a suspicious person the the garage employes refused to assist him.

Finally he wandered down Columbus avenue to station 10. Lieut. Albert F. Lovell and Sergt. O'Neil were talking in the signal room when Kelsey walked in.

"Say, gentlemen, don't you think this is a fine way for a fellow's friends to treat him?" inquired Kelsey, as he showed the handcuffs.

Kelsey spent the next half hour in convincing the police who he was. All this time he had to bear the humiliation of wearing the handcuffs. Finally a key was applied and Kelsey was allowed to wash his face and hands, whereupon he started in to convince the police that he was guilty of no crime.

When they put him out of the taxicab his friends watched him go to the garages and later trailed him to the station house. While he was inside the two automobiles kept going up and down Columbus avenue passing the station at intervals of 10 minutes, awaiting to learn the result of their joke.

Here, however, Kelsey turned the tables, for with the assistance of the police and while the two taxicabs stood across the street in front of the station with the occupants waiting to greet him, Lieut. Lovell passed Kelsey out the back door of the station to Elmwood street. Before he left he was given the articles taken from him.

Not content with the treatment they had already given him, his "friends" proceeded to take his watch, money and valuables before they put him out of the automobile.

It is understood Mrs. Kelsey has relatives living in a small town a few miles outside the city and the jokers planned to send her out to them on one of the last trains.

TWO CAPTURED

Alleged to Have Held Up a Man

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Joseph McCarthy, aged 21, of 30 Parker street, Charlestown, and Albert M. Carroll, aged 25, of 44 Florence street, Somerville, were arrested late yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Jere Crowley of the Charlestown police on a charge of robbery of a silver watch yesterday noon from Valentine B. Willey, a Wolfboro, N. H., business man.

Mr. Willey is 74 years old and rather feeble. He told the police that he was choked by one of two young men on Roland street, in the vicinity of Charlestown Neck, thrown to the street and his silver watch, worth about $12, was snatched from his vest pocket. One of the men, he said, stood on guard while the other attacked him.

Men in the vicinity say they saw one of the young men standing at Crescent and Roland streets, Charlestown, and then saw a second man rush around the corner and both men ran away. They told the police of seeing Mr. Willey, who tried to follow the men.

The attack occurred at midday, shortly after which Patrolman Crowley appeared on the scene. He was given a description of the men and a hunt was begun. Crowley got a warrant for McCarthy and about 5 last night found him.

Mr. Willey arrived in Boston from Wolfboro yesterday morning. He took a train for the Sullivan square terminal, where he intended to board a car for Medford on a business trip. But he lost his way in the crowd and went down to the street. He made his way to Roland street, and there asked two young men to show him the way to the Eastern station. They volunteered to accompany him.

Patrolman Crowley, after asking Carroll and McCarthy what was done with the watch, visited Egan's saloon and searched the sink in the men's room.

The services of a plumber were necessary and about nine inches of lead pipe, including the trap under the sink, were cut off. In the trap was Mr. Willey's watch. Although it had been lying in water two hours, the watch was still running and keeping correct time.

ACCUSED DRIVER

Of Having Run Down a Boy

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick D. Doyle five years old, of 36 Essex street, Cambridge, had a narrow escape from death while at play near the corner of Austin and Essex streets yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Cambridge police are searching for an automobile that is said to have knocked him down.

According to the story told the police the boy had just gone out into the roadway, when a touring car containing four persons struck him. The machine was stopped and the chauffeur lifted the child from underneath and carried him to the sidewalk.

Then it is alleged, he jumped into the machine again and drove off.

Grace Boole, a child living at 4 Lawson place, saw the accident and helped the boy to his home. She gave the police the number of a Massachusetts machine. The owner of the machine in question told the police over the telephone that he knew nothing of any accident, that his auto was in a repair shop in Cambridge.

A physician found the Doyle boy had no broken bones, but there were several bruises and he is being observed to determine whether he sustained internal injuries. The lad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard S. Doyle.

Madam, Is Your Hair Falling Out or Turning Gray?

If it is, the hair roots need nourishment and need it badly. If you want the best results in the shortest time you must use Parisian Sage because it not only nourishes the hair root and causes it to grow in abundance but it kills the dandruff germ and eradicates dandruff.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by Carter & Sherburne to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It makes hair grow lustrous and luxuriant. It is a delightfully refreshing summer hair dressing, cooling the scalp, and will immediately banish all odors. Large bottle 50 cents at druggists everywhere, and at Carter & Sherburne's. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Mail orders filled, all charges prepaid by the American makers, the Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

On March 25, 1910, E. A. Widman, 8 Norfolk St., Newark, N. J., wrote: 'My hair was falling out and my head was full of dandruff. Since using Parisian Sage the dandruff has disappeared and now have quite a growth of new hair.'

On April 2, 1910, Mrs. R. M. Worden, 5 St. James Ave., Holyoke, Mass., wrote: "Parisian Sage is the best hair dressing I ever used. It gave my hair life and gloss which no other dressing ever did, besides stopping it from falling out. It is the only dressing for up-to-date women."

On March 24, 1910, Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, 4 Chester place, Bangor, Me., wrote: "My husband, J. G. Ketcham, was troubled with dandruff which caused his hair to fall out, and your Parisian Sage has freed the scalp from dandruff and given a natural gloss to the hair. No money could persuade him to be without it."

FENLON J. HURD

Says He Paid $40,000 for Spirit Messages

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—One version of the so-called "spirit communications" through which Fenlon J. Hurd, a retired merchant of Greenwich, Conn., is alleged to have paid more than $40,000 to Mrs. Laura R. Cramer, a clerk in the state department here, is given in a deposition made by Hurd at Whallenburg, N. Y., and filed in the district supreme court here yesterday.

Dr. Lee M. Hurd, also of Greenwich, who was appointed conservator of the estate of the elder Hurd after he had been declared incompetent by a court in Greenwich, brought an action against Mrs. Cramer several weeks ago to recover the $40,000.

Mrs. Cramer has already answered that the elder Hurd gave her $27,000 for her care when he lived in Washington.

The case has not yet come to trial, and the deposition of the elder Hurd was taken on representations that he is very feeble and may not live until the case is reached.

We have a few hundred pieces left of our mammoth purchase of 5600 Hair Barettes and Side Combs. Most of those now in stock have never been opened until this week. In the lot are plain, carved and jewelled barettes in shell and amber and back combs, plain, carved and gold leaf decorated. There is hardly a piece but what would sell regularly at 15c and many are regular 25c numbers. Some show slight imperfections, but most are sold at this low price to clean up a big lot at the factory. Choose from any on Friday and Saturday .....7c each, 4 for 25c

MORE FIREPROOF BUILDINGS

Fireproof construction methods are gaining ground in the United States. This is shown by the government report on building operations in 1909, just issued. Of the cost of new structures in 128 large cities, 73.21 per cent—or $661,640,000 in round figures—went into the kind classified as "fire-resisting."

The total cost of building operations in Greater New York last year was $250,314,778. Chicago was second, with $96,238,350. San Francisco's outlay for buildings $26,184,068, represented a decrease of $5,484,273 from 1908; it was the only one of the large cities to show a decrease.

The lesson taught by the conflagrations at Baltimore and San Francisco has been a potent factor in the movement toward better construction. At both the big fires the effectiveness of the few instances of modern fireproofing was demonstrated. On the other hand, buildings not properly fireproofed, even though made of steel, were powerless to resist the fierce heat.

Steel itself, though non-inflammable, is not "fireproof," as experts understand the term. It is the practice now, among the leading architects and builders, to provide for the protection of the metal by burnt clay blocks. These hollow blocks, which have passed through a temperature of 280 degrees in the process of manufacture, are used to incase the columns, girders and beams of the frame. They are also used for doors and partitions, to make impossible the spread of fire from one part of a building to another.

The United States government attempts to set an example to builders by the thoroughness of its methods. Practically all the important government buildings put up in recent years are of the steel and hollow tile type.

MADE NEW RECORD

Minor Heir Defeated Hedgewood Boy in Fast Race

GALESBURG, Ill., Aug. 26.—The world's pacing race record was broken on the Galesburg track by Minor Heir yesterday afternoon in a heat with Hedgewood Boy, the mile being covered in two minutes flat in the presence of 10,000 spectators. The weather was cold and a high wind blew, making the going slow.

Hedgewood Boy had the pole, but was passed at the quarter, which was reached in 31 seconds. On the backstretch Minor Heir gained the pole and held the lead to the wire, beating the world's record by a half second. The third quarter was done in 29 seconds.

The mile was evenly and smoothly paced by both horses, and Minor Heir was going easily and without distress when he went under the wire.

The 2.10 pace was very closely contested, and every heat was marked by close and driving finishes. From the sixth place in the first heat W A took the next three heats, with Auctioneer as a close contestant. The two other races went in straight heats. The summary:

Free-for-All at Akron Goes Over Until Today

AKRON, O., Aug. 26.—The third day's card of the Lake Erie circuit races here yesterday was concluded with the excepton of the free-for-all pace, which, after six laps, could not be finished on account of darkness. The race was ended today. Driver Allen who was racing Dan Culver, was thrown from his seat by a collision in the second heat and landed on his head. THE TALENT FOOLED

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Canadian trotter, General H., was the star performer at Empire City track yesterday afternoon. The Grand Circuit horses are drawing much larger crowds to the Yonkers course than the runners ever have, and it is a pity that the people cannot see more of them at one session. Seven heats were the best that was offered yesterday, with a mile in 2.07¼ by the stallion from far-away Calgary, the only bit of high rolling seen.

A high wind made fast time out of the question, as 2.05 was the low figure for the pacers that are up to miles around 2.03. This makes the performance of General H. stand for something and tells that before long the turf will have another 2.06 trotter. The General's win was a surprise, as the battle looked to be between Teasel and Soprano.

The latter was making her first start of the season, and her appearance attracted much attention. An accident to her harness caused her to be pulled up at the half-mile post in the opening heat, so the regulars will have to wait until Readville to find out much about her.

Teasel was not at her best and played in good luck to get a division of second and third money. Aquin went a smashing good mile in the second heat. He took the word several lengths back and finished a close third.

The 2.05 pace went to Ess H. Kay in rather an unusual manner. The black horse from Buffalo made a break in the second quarter of the first mile, leaving Walter W. and Baron Whips to fight for the heat, the latter getting the decision. Ess H. Kay won the next heat comfortably. This left only the two heat-winners to finish out the race, but all the horses came onto the track.

While the judges were discussing the conditions, White and Murphy scored down and, not hearing the recall bell, took it for granted that the word was given. Ess H. Kay went to the lead and came home with something to spare. A conference of drivers and officials followed, with the result that the announcement was made that the mile should stand as part of the contest, thereby ending the race, with no time taken.

The final in the Speedway stakes, the event for 2.16 trotters, to wagon, driven by amateurs, was a gift for the European stallion Willy. The handsome foreigner finished with a commanding lead in 2.11¼, 2.10½. The summary:

CLEANS UP FREE-FOR-ALL

TROY, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Walter Cox brought Aileen Wilson up from the Yonkers yesterday afternoon to clean up the free-for-all and did so admirably. It was the first time in several years that the black mare had been on a half-mile track, but her behavior was faultless.

Cox won the $200 offered to drivers when he sent Aileen over the mile in 2.07¾, lowering the track record of 2.08½ made last year by Gallagher. The summary:

RACING AT BANGOR

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 26.—The races at the Eastern Maine fair yesterday were each settled in three straight heats, but all were interesting. The feature of the day was the 2.22 trot-2.24 pace, which had twelve starters and which resulted in an upset, for the favorites did not place.

Direct Braden from Hartford, Conn., and driven by R. W. Burrill of Bangor, was the surprise of the day, taking the three heats of this race easily. Gold Bug and Col. Direct paced the winner home, and the fight for place was hot.

Lewiston horses won in the other two races, Prince Alfondly taking the 2.20 trot-2.22 pace easily, and Maude S having the speed of the 2.30 class trot. Both were picked as winners. The summary:

FEAR OF ARREST

Does Not Stop Girl Raffles

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The girl letter thief who has been keeping the Cambridge police on edge for the past two weeks has not stopped her operations through fear of arrest, but on the other hand the new reports that have come to the authorities show she has been making large sums of money by duping her victims on the bill and check game.

The thought of a gang of thieves working with the sixteen year-old girl as an agent has been dropped and now the police believe she is working alone, with remarkable cleverness for one of her age. Many prominent Cambridge men have sent word to police headquarters that they have been either duped on checks, or have lost mail with money in it, within the past three weeks, and as the complaints pour in it is easy to see the large scale upon which the girl has been working.

A. C. Evans and William C. Stearns, both of 18 Center street, Cambridge, have been the victims of the girl's mail stealing. Mr. Evans received a check for $50, and a bill for $5 was received from a Boston department store by Stearns. The girl went to the store and paid the small bill with the large check and cleared $45 for her day's work.

The girl "Raffles" has caused much trouble for Edward H. Cook, formerly of 2 Clinton street, but now living at the house numbered 332 Broadway, which he has recently bought. Important papers relating to the transaction were mailed to him but were stolen by the girl, at least so think the police.

One case where the girl went astray was learned of when it was discovered that she had stolen a letter containing a bill for $5 from Dr. Charles H. Thomas. She took the bill to a woman of the same name as the patient to which it was made out, but not the patient. Nothing more has been heard of it.

HOWARD A HERO

Lowell Player Saved a Child From Drowning

Paul Howard, centre fielder of the Lowell team, who is recuperating at East Weymouth, saved a child from drowning Wednesday afternoon, and is now the hero of East Weymouth.

A little child had fallen in the deep, grass-tangled waters of a mill pond near the village, while at play. Her playmates were too young to go to her assistance as she drifted down beneath a bridge which crossed one end of the pond, and it seemed certain that she must drown.

Howard, who was sitting on the piazza of his cottage a short distance from the pond, heard the mother of the child scream and dashed down to the beach which borders the pond at that point.

Without stopping to divest himself of his clothing, he plunged into the water and though hampered by his clothes and the long grass, managed to reach the child as it was about to sink for the last time.

The former Lowell ball player, without assistance, managed to reach shore with his burden, and in time to save the child, which, after receiving the care of a physician recovered consciousness.

ROOSEVELT "LOST"

THE NEWSPAPERS COULD NOT LOCATE HIM

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—For twenty minutes last night Col. Roosevelt was "lost" in this city and the eastern correspondents and the members of the newspaper club were much perturbed to know what had become of him. The secret came out, Col. Roosevelt wanted a breath of fresh air before going to the reception that had been arranged in his honor. The ride came nearer to being a secret expedition than anything he has done since he left the African jungle. From the moment he was whisked away in an automobile from the shouting crowd in the station until he reached the entrance to the club he was lost to the public eye.

LOWELL COUPLE

GOT LICENSE TO MARRY AT NASHUA, N. H.

Among the marriage licenses issued by the city clerk of Nashua, N. H., yesterday, was one to Arthur E. Redmen, aged 19 years, and Amelia Gauthier, aged 19 years, both of this city.

HERMIT IS DEAD

He Has Left $15,000 in Cash

NORTH SCITUATE, Aug. 26.—Silas Litchfield, 84, for many years a recluse, was found dead yesterday with bankbooks representing $15,000 about his person.

Three days ago "Hermit" Litchfield gave his brother, Bridge Litchfield, $3000 in $5 bills.

"Hermit" Litchfield was famous for the motto that he posted up some years ago that read, "Free from water with plenty of rum." Some years ago he sent his second wife to her parental home in New York, after having refused to speak to her for a period of five years.

Mr. Litchfield ran a general country store at this place, but it was not generally believed that he had any amount of property. The bank books found in his clothing were issued from banks in different cities, including Boston.

The old man was found dead in his store yesterday afternoon by William Harney. When the medical examiner was summoned by Selectman F. E. Bailey, he stated that Litchfield had met his death from heart reaction caused by falling and hitting his head on the bed.

LOWELL AUTOISTS

Trapped by New Hampshire Cities

The police of Nashua and Manchester, N. H., are enforcing the automobile laws in a rigid manner and the drivers who operate their machines at a rate of speed faster than that provided by the law will come to grief.

Yesterday three autoists were arraigned in the Manchester police court and fined $10 and costs of $4.62. One of the trio was Albert S. Taylor of this city.

Another Lowell autoist came to grief in Nashua. Preston Landers of this city was the victim. He was fined $10.

WHEEL CAME OFF

Octave Daignault Was Dragged on Street

Octave Daignault had a narrow escape from being badly hurt at the corner of Paige and John streets shortly before 10 o'clock this morning when the nut on one of the rear wheels of the wagon which he was driving dropped off, allowing the wheel to detach itself from the wagon and precipitating him to the pavement.

The horse became frightened and started to run but the man clung to the reins and after being dragged several yards brought the horse to a standstill. The wagon was filled with barrels of swill and when the wheel came off the swill was scattered about the street.

The driver after regaining his feet stated that he had suffered no injury other than a few slight bruises.

THIRD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALVENA SPERLING, 1468 Clybourne Ave.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, debility, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

For local playgoers the treat of the season is here this week at Lakeview theatre, in the shape of Eugene Walter's drama of New York life of today, "Paid in Full." Not to know of this most celebrated play of the time is to confess one's self uninformed as to the exceptional features of the American stage; not to have seen it is to be outside the three million persons who had witnessed its many performances up to the end of last season. No play ever produced in this country or abroad has the brilliant record of "Paid in Full." It will be here all this week with matinees every day at 2.30, evenings at 8.15, and one should avail himself of the opportunity to see this great play.

"Two Jolly Rovers" is the name of the "comedy perplexity" with musical interruptions that will awake to peals of almost endless laughter patrons of Lakeview theatre next week every evening as well as the matinees. When the concocters of this attempt to make all the world happy were burning the midnight oil during long weeks of preparation, they had one motto ever before them—"Make 'em laugh." Anyone who sees the performance will readily agree that they have succeeded.

THEATRE VOYONS

There are many minor details to the presentation of motion pictures that if not carefully looked after greatly hinder the fullest enjoyment of the pictures. At the Theatre Voyons, however, this is never the case, for with years of experience in the motion picture game, the most competent operators and the best equipped apparatus, the finest and most satisfactory results are sure to follow. The projecting equipment of this theatre has served as a model for many newer houses and it ranks as one of the very best equipped houses in the state not barring the big Boston houses. Then, too, the careful selection of programs means that a well balanced program is always shown and, no matter how critical one's tastes are some one number will just suit them. Today's feature Dora Thorne, a pleasing dramatic story pleture, finely acted and well staged.

CANOBIE LAKE THEATRE

There is a wealth of fun in "My Girl," the latest of J. W. Gorman's musical farces that is to be seen at Canobie Lake Park theatre for the week commencing Monday, August 29, and this will be clearly demonstrated when the large audiences that are expected at the Monday performances see this new care dispeller. As in all the Gorman musical plays there is a sprightly chorus of young ladies who interpret the many musical numbers with vim and abandon and who form the very pleasing frame in which a comedy of more than usual mirth is placed. The plot deals with the entanglements into which a number of the funny characters get themselves by making pretentions in spiritualism. No tinge of seriousness is allowed to enter into this real fun show and the only touch that is made upon the subject of spiritualism is in the dealing with these imposters.

The play is liberally interspersed with bright catchy music each and every number of which is a gem in itself. Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the entire week.

KILLED BY GAS

Man Found Dead in His Room

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick Joy of Skowhegan was found dead from gas poisoning in a room at a lodging house on lower Washington street in the South End today. When the room was entered Joy was found in bed. All the windows of the room had been closed tightly and the gas cock was wide open. It is believed to be a case of suicide. It is understood here that Joy, who was about 35 years of age, was a widower with two children. The children are said to be living at Augusta, Maine.

ARREST CASHIER

Said to Have Stolen Firm's Money

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—George Wenzel, who started in as a cash boy with B. Altman & Co. 26 years ago, and who has been a cashier for that firm since 1898, was arrested by Store Detective Larkin and locked up in the West Thirteenth street station, accused of stealing $15,000 of the firm's money. The specific charge against Wenzel was the theft of $111 on Aug. 16. According to Detective Larkin, Wenzel confessed not only to taking the $111, but to appropriating other sums belonging to the store which would raise the total amount of his peculations within the last year to $15,040.

Wenzel is 39 years old and is unmarried. He lives at 407 West Fifty-first street. At the age of 13 he got a job as a cash boy in the Altman store down-town. His rise was rapid. When he became a cashier his salary was raised to $30 a week. In the uptown store Detective Larkin and Wenzel grew to be good friends. The store detective as he passed Wenzel's desk would occasionally say: "Well, old man, I'll get you yet."

The cashier would invariably raise his head from his books and reply, with a smile: "Yes, I guess you will. But not today."

Wenzel said that years ago he was tempted and fell. He needed a little extra money to meet an unexpected emergency. He had not saved anything out of his salary, having long since drifted into ways of living for which $30 a week proved inadequate. So he took a little of the firm's money—just enough to tide him over. By and by he took a little more to cover up his first theft. And so it went on until he had diverted the whole $15,000. He merely abstracted money orders and checks from the mail, which he cashed in his own name, and then juggled the books to conceal the abstractions.

When the time for his vacation came around Wenzel was afraid to leave, fearing that in his absence his substitute would learn the truth. His announcement that he would stick to the job aroused some suspicion and led to an investigation which disclosed the thefts. Wenzel was called to the office, where he broke down and confessed. The only excuse he had to offer was that he had been a good fellow and had been played for a good thing.

Wenzel asked for a chance to raise the money from his friends and make restitution and got it. He scoured the town, but none of those he had regarded as his friends would help him. Finally he appeared to the proprietor of an uptown cafe where he had spent most of his pilferings. The proprietor not only refused to make him a loan, but disclaimed all knowledge of him, saying that he had never seen Wenzel before. All that remained after that was to submit to arrest.

MAYOR FITZGERALD

TO TAKE STUMP IN WESTERN PART OF STATE

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Chairman Macleod of the democratic state committee accompanied by a number of his active lieutenants, will leave Boston at 10 a. m. tomorrow for a political visit to Hampden and Hampshire counties, where they will hold a number of meetings and confer with members of the state and city committees of that section in the interest of a more thorough organization for the fall campaign.

At Springfield, immediately after their arrival Saturday, the party will hold a reception. In the evening they will go by automobile to Westfield, Chicopee and Northampton. Sunday will be spent in Holyoke, with a mass meeting at 2 p. m. Among the speakers at this and four other meetings arranged for will be Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston.

Besides Chairman Macleod, the party will include Chairman McDonald of the executive committee of the state committee, Chairman Maynard of the Boston city committee, and Representatives Riley of Malden, Parks of Fall River, Shaw, Callahan and O'Brien of Boston, Dean of Wakefield, Carmody of Worcester and Cummings of Pittsfield.

The mayor yesterday said he indorsed all that had been said about Gen. Charles H. Taylor as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, but he said nothing to indicate that he would pull out of the fight to allow Gen. Taylor's nomination.

MATRIMONIAL

M. Albert L. O'Malley and Miss Anna V. McMahon were married yesterday morning by Rev. A. P. Wedge, pastor of the Worthen street Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. O'Malley left on a honeymoon through Maine.

ROWAN—JARDINE

Mr. James A. Rowan of Barre, Vt., formerly a resident of this city and well known here, and Miss Jessie E. Jardine of Blackburn, England, were married last evening at 6.30 o'clock by Rev. James M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at his residence, 3 Belmont street. The wedding, though private, was a very pretty one. The little flower girl was Miss Margaret Holgate, while the best man was Dr. Robert Holgate and the bridemaid Miss Harriet Elizabeth Bowden. All are of this city. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Rowan will make their home in Barre, Vermont.

TOMPKINS—GOOKIN

The marriage of Mr. Frederick Tompkins and Miss Mary Gookin took place at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the Immaculate Conception parochial residence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lawrence J. Tighe, O. M. I. The bridemaid was Miss Alice Gookin, a sister of the bride, and the best man Mr. Frederick Sullivan, cousin of the groom. The bride was attired in a gown of ivory silk and duchess lace and wore a white picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridemaid wore a dress of pink silk with lace trimmings, a picture hat, and carried pink roses. After the marriage ceremony a reception to the immediate relatives of the bridal party was held at the home of the bride's mother at 824 Rogers street. The ushers were Mr. John J. Gookin, Mr. Charles Boutilier, Mr. Thomas Kelley and Mr. Thomas Ward of Ayer. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts. Amid showers of confetti Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins departed on the 9.45 train on a wedding trip.

BASEBALL AT NIGHT

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—C. A. Comiskey's recently installed lights received their first real tryout at the American league grounds last night when the Illinois Athletic club and Calumet Lacrosse teams battled for over two hours in a fast match in the glare of over one million candlepower of light which constitutes a portion of the light plant that will give Chicago night baseball in the near future. The plant proved itself equal to the occasion for the test held up to what was expected.

The Illinois A. C. won the game 11 to 10. At no time during the eighty minutes of play did the players find it hard to follow the ball but the game proved as fast and as interesting as if it had been played in broad daylight. No complaint was heard from the players and with the roof lights uncovered the contestants were in no way bothered by the force of the lamps.

NEW ECZEMA REMEDY

Stops Itching At Once

The new remedy Cadum has astonished the medical world. Many cures of eczema and other distressing skin diseases are reported, and the remarkable feature in most cases is the quickness of the cure. Eczema is not a blood disease, but a skin affection. It cannot be cured by internal medicines. External treatment is absolutely necessary. Since the introduction of Cadum eczema is now recognized as a curable disease, and that tormenting affliction has been robbed of its terrors. Cadum stops the itching at once and begins the healing process with the first application. It destroys disease germs, allays inflammation and is soothing and healing to the skin. From the moment it is applied to any skin trouble immediate relief is felt. It is for pimples, blotches, hives, tetter, itch, acne, herpes, scaly skin, psoriasis, rash, chafings, eruptions, sores, scurvy, scabs, blackheads, itching piles, etc. Trial box 10c; large box 25c; all druggists.

Extraordinary Sale of Real Estate

TWO TWO-TENEMENT HOUSES, COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT 8015 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT NO. 32 AND REAR OF NO. 32 HIGH STREET. A THREE-TENEMENT HOUSE WITH STORE AND ABOUT 1574 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT 137 FAYETTE STREET. A FIVE-TENEMENT BLOCK AND ABOUT 2712 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT 28-30 AND 32 CHESTNUT ST.

Tomorrow Afternoon, Commencing at 2.30 O'Clock

FIRST PARCEL AT 2.30 O'CLOCK

AT NO. 32 AND REAR OF 32 HIGH STREET, CONSISTING OF TWO TWO-TENEMENT HOUSES, COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT 8015 SQ. FT. OF LAND TO BE SOLD IN ONE LOT. The two-tenement house facing High street and numbering 32, has six rooms and bath, with hot and cold water, open plumbing and furnace heat with one tenement and nine rooms and bath with hot and cold water and open plumbing with the other. There is a piazza in front of house running full length. The two-tenement house in the rear has six rooms and bath, with open plumbing with each tenement, hot and cold water and gas. The cottage in the rear which has been built within five years, has six rooms, and bath with hot and cold water, open plumbing and gas. All the buildings are in first class repair inside and out, the two-tenement houses being remodeled a few years ago, and the cottage in the rear practically new. The property is all rented to a first-class lot of tenants, most of them living there since it was remodeled, and brings in a yearly rental of about $850. The lot has a good frontage on High street and an area of about 8015 sq. ft. The yard is all concreted and the lot is all fenced in. Now then, this property is located in a very central part of Belvidere, it being the second property on High street from East Merrimack street, bringing it less than five minutes' walk to Merrimack square and the many industries located in that vicinity. I consider it one of the best pieces of realty that has been offered at public auction this season; for it has all the essential qualities which go to make up a good piece of realty, offering you as it does, about 8015 square feet of land with three substantial buildings, in first class condition, in an excellent location and bringing in a steady income of about $850 a year. It is a proposition worthy of your careful consideration: look it up. A good, liberal mortgage can be had at 5 per cent. Terms, $650 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as the property is struck off.

SECOND PARCEL AT 3 O'CLOCK

AT 137 FAYETTE STREET, A THREE TENEMENT HOUSE WITH STORE AND ABOUT 1574 SQUARE FEET OF LAND

On the first floor is a store with two rooms in the rear, and a tenement of five rooms; on the second floor are two tenements, one five and one of six rooms. There are toilets on each floor, and the house is in good condition. The tenements are occupied by a lot of good tenants and bring in a yearly rental of about $455. The lot has a good frontage on Fayette street and has an area of about 1574 square feet. Now here is a proposition which should command the attention of the speculator, for it is bound to pay a large revenue on the amount invested.

TERMS—$250 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

THIRD PARCEL AT 3.30 O'CLOCK

AT NOS. 28, 30 AND 32 CHESTNUT STREET, CONSISTING OF A FIVE TENEMENT BLOCK AND ABOUT 2712 SQUARE FEET OF LAND.

The block consists of two tenements of nine rooms, bath and back shed with each tenement, and two tenements of four rooms and bath with each tenement, and one tenement of four rooms. This property is in excellent shape inside and out, has all open plumbing and is occupied by a very nice lot of tenants and brings in a yearly rental of about $690. The lot has a good frontage on Chestnut street and an area of about 2712 square feet and is all concreted. The property is located about half way between High and Fayette streets on Chestnut street and is within five minutes' walk of many large industries.

TERMS—$400 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

Now the above three parcels will be offered for sale on the day and hour advertised on their several premises, regardless of any conditions of the weather. They are located in a central part of Belvidere and have always been rented and have paid me a large percentage on the investment, but I recently purchased some land in Revere and am about to erect a hotel there. For this reason I have placed the above properties in the hands of the auctioneer.

Make all inquiries of the auctioneer, whom I have left in full charge.

By Order of NATHAN A. CARP.

Tomorrow Afternoon at 4 O'Clock

TWO-TENEMENT HOUSE WITH SLATED ROOF AND ABOUT 2475 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT NO. 39 AND 41 UNION STREET.

On the premises regardless of any conditions of the weather I shall offer for sale my two-tenement house and about 2475 sq. ft. of land, at Nos. 39 and 41 Union street. There are eight rooms with each tenement and the house is in very good condition inside and out. It is lighted by gas, and each tenement has separate front and back doors, cellars and toilet. It rents for about $312 a year and tenements in this locality always rent well. The lot has a large frontage on Union street and an area of about 2475 sq. ft. with right of way to the centre of a passageway that must be forever kept open. There is a large elevated piazza in the rear for the drying of clothes. The property is located on Union street about half way between Gorham and Central streets, which brings it within 10 minutes' walk from many large industries in this section of the city. Now then, I think a two-tenement house of this kind is one of the very best investments for a man of moderate means, as he can occupy one tenement and have the income of the other.

Terms: $300 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

By order of MARY E. BOYLE.

Tomorrow Afternoon at 4.30 O'Clock

HEIRS' SALE OF THE DOLAN PROPERTY AT 148 LAKEVIEW AVE., CONSISTING OF A COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT 2325 SQ. FT. OF LAND.

The heirs of the above estate have placed with me this five-room cottage and about 2325 sq. ft. of land to be disposed of on the premises on the day and hour advertised. The cottage which has five rooms is in fair condition inside and out. The lot has a good frontage on Lakeview avenue with an area of 2325 sq. ft. which gives quite a nice yard in the rear. Now this is a good proposition for a man with a small family or for the speculator who would like to improve, as there is ample room in the rear for improvements. This property is located on Lakeview avenue about opposite Coburn street, and this part of the avenue is a very busy thoroughfare.

Terms: $150 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

C. F. KEYES in charge for the heirs.

RIOT IN NEW BEDFORD

NIGHT EDITION

POLICE USED GUNS

More Rioting Broke Out in New Bedford Today

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—Rioting broke out afresh today in connection with the strike of building laborers in this city and the police were obliged to fire their revolvers and use their clubs in order to keep back the mob. Six arrests were made.

The trouble occurred near the corner of Rockland street and Bolton road, in the southerly part of the city. Several mills are under construction in that locality and a number of strikers had gathered nearby. The crowd steadily increased in numbers until it reached four or five hundred men. Disorderly acts began to be perpetrated and by the time Chief of Police Mason and a squad of sixty patrolmen arrived in autos the strikers were apparently in a belligerent mood. The crowd refused to disperse at the command of Chief Mason and the officers then tried to disperse it by force. Clubs were drawn and many sore heads resulted from the clash.

At length the officers drew their revolvers and fired into the air. No one was injured but this show of force had its effect on the crowd, which reluctantly scattered.

Within a few minutes after the clash began, a meadow nearby was strewn with many strikers, upon whose heads the clubs of the officers had descended while six of the men were taken to the police station. So far as a settlement of a strike was concerned there were no developments this forenoon.

The strikers took advantage of the eight officers being at dinner and an uprising occurred. At this first attack no arrests could be made but when the strikers took a new stand they had gathered up all the sticks and clubs, including baseball bats that were available and Chief Mason had summoned all the officers possible. Many arrests were made including the leader of the riot, who gave as his parting words of advice to the strikers: "Go home, or the officers will kill you."

The fight took place on the corner of Sagamore and Hemlock streets, lasting for ten minutes. Six wounded strikers were taken up to the station in the automobile. Lieut. Fay with about sixty officers opposed the crowd.

GIFFORD PINCHOT'S STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Gifford Pinchot of the National Conservation Association and former head of the government forestry service, in a statement issued today holds that the loss of property and life in the recent and present forest fires was unnecessary.

The disastrous results, he says, are traceable to the unpreparedness to deal with the wire situation. He scores members of congress who have opposed appropriations for the proper equipment for forest rangers and in that connection names Senator Heyburn of Idaho, whose home town, Wallace, Idaho, suffered serious loss; Senator Carter of Montana and Representative Mondell of Wyoming. The statement in part follows:

"If a forest is equipped with roads, trails, telephone lines and a reasonable number of men for patrol there is no more likelihood that great fires will be able to get started than there is that great conflagrations, like the Chicago fire, will get started in a city with a modern fire department. Under rare circumstances they may, but the chances are against it."

WAKEFIELD CITIZENS OBJECT

WAKEFIELD, Aug. 26.—Wakefield citizens oppose the proposed change in telephone rates and service recommended this week by the Massachusetts highway commission for the metropolitan district and today the selectmen presented Acting Governor Frothingham at the statehouse a petition that any change be held in abeyance until the towns and cities in the district have had an opportunity to present to the next legislature their views.

W. K. VANDERBILT

To Become Head of Railroad System

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—William Kissam Vanderbilt, Jr., is at thirty-two years of age the acting head of what has been called the greatest railway system in the world, the New York Central & Hudson River railroad.

This young man, fifth in the line of the Vanderbilt succession, is filling the shoes of President W. C. Brown, who is in Europe on a long vacation.

Wise men of Wall street recall that within the last few months William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., made an extensive examination of all the properties of the New York Central & Hudson River, and this fact strengthens their belief that the young multi-millionaire is destined to become president of the road, thus restoring to the Vanderbilt name all the prestige, power and influence of past generations.

It is the thing which may happen when Mr. Brown returns to this country that has set Wall street talking in whispers.

The New York Central and all its branches have always been regarded as the heritage of the Vanderbilt family.

Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt founded the road and was succeeded by his son, William H. Vanderbilt, as president. He in turn passed over the control of the system to his son, Cornelius Vanderbilt II. Upon the illness of Cornelius Vanderbilt, William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., second son of William H. Vanderbilt, became president and chairman of the board.

It seems only natural that the control of this great system, so closely allied with the Vanderbilt fortunes, should pass into the hands of the son of William K. Vanderbilt, who but recently was appointed to the position of assistant to the president, W. C. Brown, a position especially created for the young man.

A. O. H. NOTES

The soliciting committee has received a check for $25 from Thomas H. Boyle & Co. Acknowledgment of this contribution was not made when the regular list was published.

The state officers and the visiting delegates were loud in their praise of the service rendered by the local police. They also expressed their entire satisfaction with the street railway service.

BODIES OF MEN

At Least 20 Are in the Woods

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 26.—A message received here today from Ponderay, Idaho, says:

"The bodies of 20 men and five living men are at a ranch house on the opposite side of the river at Tuscar, Mont. The five men are burned severely and no doctor is obtainable. There are 20 or more bodies still in the woods."

WEDDED AT LAST

Two Young People Tried to Get Married Here

Alexander G. Hooper and Gladys B. Reynolds, who eloped from Lynn and whose attempt to get married in this city was frustrated by their parents, succeeded in getting married in Derry, N. H., by Justice of the Peace Fred M. Moore, Wednesday.

They registered, he as 18 years and she as 17. As they were of legal age the town clerk could do no less than to furnish them with the certificate.

After procuring the document they then went to the office of Mr. Moore and were legally united in the marriage relations.

After the ceremony had been performed they jokingly related their experience in trying to get married and told the people in the office that they had arranged to get married in Lowell, but that their parents had learned of their plot and had followed them to that city and stopped the proceedings.

They said they kept their own counsel and in due time started out together for New Hampshire. Thinking that Derry was a convenient place, they alighted there and after a brief inquiry soon carried out their plans. They said they were bound to get married, so it was no use for their parents to try to stop them.

He registered as a clerk, and as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hooper, of Swampscott, Mass. She as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Reynolds, of Lynn, Mass.

They went to the postoffice in Derry, bought some postals and with the souvenir postals they got in the book store, wrote a number to their friends, telling them that "it was all over." They then got their luncheon and soon after took the south bound train for their honeymoon.

A BIG RECEPTION

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Tendered Colonel Roosevelt in Iowa Today

AMES, Ia., Aug. 26.—Speeding westward in his special car Colonel Roosevelt was not permitted to sleep late this morning. Scarcely had he entered the state of Iowa when a stop was made at Marshalltown where hundreds of people clamored to see him. After some delay he emerged from the rear door of his car, clad in pajamas, raincoat and slippers, smiling, but protesting that he had not been scheduled to speak there. He then delivered his first speech in what he termed the heart of the nation. He told the audience he was glad to get back to his own country, although he had enjoyed the lions in Africa more than they enjoyed him.

Expressing interest in the children of the assemblage he suggested that it would not be well to depend on immigration for an increase of population of the country. After brief remarks, frequently interrupted by cheering, he protested against the action of photographers who brought their cameras into action.

"It is an outrage," he said, "to take my picture in this garb." He had time only to throw a raincoat over his pajamas and don slippers when called to the platform. The Roosevelt special will go through Iowa and Nebraska, stopping at a dozen or more places where Colonel Roosevelt will make an addresses.

TO RIDE ON ENGINE

BOONE, Ia., Aug. 26.—The Roosevelt train arrived here at 8.30 and departed at 8.45. Col. Roosevelt addressed 2000 persons during the stop. Col. Roosevelt will ride on the engine part of the time between Boone and Council Bluffs. The train stopped at Boone viaduct over the Des Moines river to allow a picture to be taken. Senator Cummins boarded the train at Ames and appeared on the rear platform but did not speak.

ROOSEVELT IN CARROLL

CARROLL, Ia., Aug. 26.—Theodore Roosevelt definitely aligned himself with the progressives of New York state in a statement which he issued on the train today as he was traveling across Iowa.

Colonel Roosevelt declared that the main issue in the fight in New York was not any specific reform measure but bossism. Bossism, he declared, frequently led to corruption and he said he would wage ruthless war on corrupt alliances between business and bosses. Colonel Roosevelt was asked about remarks by Timothy L. Woodruff, New York republican state chairman, in regard to the national fight in New York. In reply he issued this statement:

"The progressives are emphatically in favor of taking a real step forward about direct primaries, substantially on the lines of Governor Hughes' proposition but this is not the main issue. The main issue is that we stand against bossism, big or little, and in favor of genuine popular rule, not only at the elections but within the party organization and above all that our war is ruthlessly against every species of corruption, big and little, and against the alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics as to which it has found that too often in the past the boss system a peculiarly efficient and objectionable means of communication. We are against the domination of the party and the public by special interests, whether these special interests are political, business or a compound of the two."

NASHUA WOMAN

Did Not Want Daughter to Wed

A woman who said she came from Nashua was a little late in arriving at the office of the city clerk at city hall yesterday afternoon, to accomplish what she had in mind. She was all out of breath when she arrived at city hall and she quickly made known her mission. Her daughter and a young man had left the hall just a few minutes before her arrival and had taken with them a marriage license. That was where the shoe pinched. The woman from Nashua didn't want her daughter to marry the young man in question and she left the hall in a very disturbed state of mind. She did not show up at the hall again and it is not known if she succeeded in frustrating the plans of the daughter and her accident lover.

FOR A NEW PUMP

Bids Called for on Specifications by Water Board

Six of the Biggest Pump Concerns in the Country Will be Asked to Bid on the Pump Contracts

The water board met last night and, pursuant to the request of the mayor the board of aldermen, voted to call for bids for a pumping engine for the Centralville pumping station, before the money for the pump has been appropriated.

The request made by the mayor and board of aldermen was not in any way mandatory, but the water board decided that if compliance with the request would hasten definite action on the pump, for the matter had been hanging fire for months, it was up to the board to do it.

In the first place the water board asked for $75,000 for a pump. The matter was referred to the committee on appropriations and the committee voted to recommend the sum of $65,000. The matter went back to the board of aldermen and, on suggestion of Ald. Carmichael, was recommitted to the appropriations committee with the further suggestion that the committee ask the opinion of the city solicitor as to the legality of calling for bids for the pump before the money for the same was appropriated.

The city solicitor's reply to the communication from the appropriations

WAS NEARLY DROWNED

Ex-Alderman Daly Was Saved by His Brother

Was Struck by Boat and Sank Unconscious—His Brother Dove in and Rescued Him—His Arm Numb From Nervous Shock

Ex-Alderman John W. Daly, the noted athlete and swimmer had a narrow escape from drowning at Revere Monday afternoon, and but for the heroic efforts of his brother Chris Daly would have succumbed.

Since he announced his determination to swim from Boston to Boston Light, Mr. Daly has been enjoying his vacation at Revere beach, taking long swims daily including the celebrated stunt of swimming from Revere beach to Nahant.

On the afternoon in question Mr. Daly was out for his usual swim and his brother and William Dugan of this city followed him in a row boat. The water was exceedingly rough, a strong wind blowing. After he had been in the water for two hours and out a great distance, Mr. Daly became thirsty and called to his brother for water. The men in the boat drew near to give him a drink and as they got close to him the wind caused the bow of the boat to swing about suddenly striking the swimmer with terrific force behind the ear.

The force of the blow rendered him unconscious and he immediately sank. Mr. Chris Daly becoming alarmed at the suddenness with which his brother went down, without waiting to remove his clothes dove in after him and brought him to the surface. He was pulled into the boat in an unconscious condition and all haste was made to get him to the shore where a physician was hastily summoned.

He regained consciousness in a short time, but felt a numbness in his arm. The physician attributes the condition of the arm to a nervous shock as the result of the blow and doubts if Mr. Daly will be able to do any strenuous swimming stunts for some time to come. The party will return to Lowell before the end of the week.

JOHN W. DALY

COL. ROOSEVELT

TO HEAD THE DELEGATION FROM NASSAU COUNTY

MINEOLA, L. I., Aug. 26.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will be chosen as a delegate from Nassau county to the republican state convention, leaders say here today. It is further proposed that the colonel head the delegation from Nassau.

MILLS TO CURTAIL

FITCHBURG, Aug. 26.—The Parkhill gingham mills here will be closed from Sept. 3 until Sept. 10. The weave rooms of the Parkhill mills have been running five days weekly since July 1. Several other local textile plants are also curtailing the output.

INCREASED POPULATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The population of Saginaw, Mich., is 50,510, an increase of 8165, or 19.3 per cent, as compared with 42,345 in 1900.

BILL FOR $4200

Has Not Been Paid by the City As Yet

That $4200 bill owed the Massachusetts Home for the Feeble Minded by the city of Lowell has not been paid. The board of charities has asked City Solicitor Duncan if it would be legal to pay the bill out of the board's appropriation for 1910, in view of the fact that no money was appropriated for that specific purpose. It is not mentioned in the estimate of expenditures of the board for the current year.

The ordinance providing for estimates for appropriations and for other purposes reads, in part, as follows:

Section 1—At the beginning of each municipal year and not later than the third Tuesday in January the mayor shall make and transmit to the city council an estimate of the expenditures required for the year. Such estimate shall be framed and itemized as to show separately

Par. 2—The amounts required by each department, office, board, commission or other sub-division of the executive branch of the government, and so far as may be practicable for the subdivision of the work of each department.

Par. 4—Such estimates shall be in such form as to show in parallel columns, opposite each item, the amount paid for the previous year, and the amount unexpended at the close of such year.

Section 3—All regular annual appropriations shall be for and only applicable to the liabilities incurred during the year in which they are made, any form of phraseology in the order, resolution or vote providing for the same, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Turning to charter amendments, acts of 1896, chapter 415, the following is noted:

Section 8—No sum appropriated for a specific purpose shall be expended for any other purpose; and no expenditure shall be made and no liability shall be incurred by or on behalf of the city unless the city council has duly voted an appropriation sufficient to meet such expenditure or liability, together with all prior unpaid liabilities which are payable therefrom, except that after the expiration of the financial year and before the making of the annual appropriations, liabilities payable out of the regular appropriations may be incurred to an amount not exceeding one-sixth of the total appropriation made for similar purposes in the preceding year, etc.

In view of the fact that no provision was made for the payment of the $4200 bill in question in the estimate of expenditures required for the year, it would seem from what is quoted here that it was up to the board of charities to seek the advice of the city solicitor before paying the bill out of its present appropriation.

The city solicitor has not yet returned from his vacation and when he does he will undoubtedly give this matter his immediate attention.

FOR A NEW PUMP

committee asking for an opinion was to the effect that it would be legal for the city water board to call for bids before the money was appropriated providing there was no expense attached to the call.

The appropriations committee then sent a communication to the water board asking the board to call for the bids and the board replied to the committee stating that the board deemed it inexpedient to call for bids before the money had been appropriated.

That was all that was heard of the pump question until Alderman Gray came out with the statement to the effect that the water board had replied to the committee on appropriations when it should have replied to the board of aldermen. The water board, in reply to Alderman Gray's statement, gave copies of the committee's letter to the board and the board's letter to the committee and that, of course, proved plainly that Alderman Gray was in the wrong, for up to that time the board of aldermen had not taken the matter up with the water board.

When Alderman Gray found that it was his turn to move, a resolution was introduced in the board of aldermen, requesting the water board to call for bids. The mayor signed the resolution or request, and the board at its meeting last night voted to call for bids. The call, copies of which will be sent to the six largest pump concerns in the country, reads as follows:

Proposals for pumping engine.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Lowell water board, Lowell, Mass., until 2 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 27, 1910, for the construction, delivery and erection, complete, ready for use, for vertical triple expansion crank and fly wheel pumping engine of 8,000,000 gallons capacity, for the city of Lowell, Mass.

The proposed engine is to be located at the pumping station now in use by the city on West Sixth street and known as the Centralville pumping station. The supply of water is to be drawn from pump well now in use, through a pipe 30 inches in diameter. Capacity of pump well 85,000 gallons.

The water is pumped into a force main 24 inches in diameter, extending from the engine house to existing reservoir, where it will discharge over weir now in use, the total length of pipe being approximately 2675 feet. The steam pressure available at the boiler is 125 pounds. The various elevations concerned in the work, measured above the city datum plane, are as follows:

Engine room floor	37.5 feet
Boiler room floor	32.5 feet
Pump well, high water mark	31 feet
Pump well, low water mark	19.5 feet
Pump well floor	15.5 feet
High water reservoir	182 feet
Low water weir at reservoir	181 feet

Datum, 35 feet below top of Pawtucket dam.

The proposed pumping engine to be self contained, requiring no foundations excepting under pump chambers, and to include and have attached thereto a surface condenser, air pump and boiler feed pump of sufficient capacity, also steam throttle valve and all piping excepting the main steam, free and suction pipes.

The bidder is to furnish, in connection with his proposal, a full description of the engine, together with drawings illustrating the same, a photograph or perspective, showing its general appearance when erected and in operation, and drawings of the foundation. He is also to furnish a complete set of specifications in detail, giving the kind and quality of the material of which the various parts are to be composed, the sizes and strength of the principal working parts subjected to strain, and the manner in which they are constructed, so as to furnish a clear understanding of all points regarding the workmanship, strength, durability and general efficiency of the whole mechanism. He is also to state the working pressure of the engine, and speed of the pumps, when working at their rate capacity, and he is to specify in detail the various appurtenances which are to be supplied in order to fully equip the engine for its work, giving the name of the manufacturer of all parts not made by himself, and the time of completion of the contract. Furthermore, he is to guarantee the amount of continuous duty which the engine will perform, the said duty to be at least 160,000,000 foot pounds, on 1000 pounds of steam, and the amount of slips of the pumps. These various descriptions, specifications, drawings and guarantees are to form a part of the contract.

It is desired that the engine and its full equipment shall be complete in every respect, and that in the matter of material, workmanship and construction, it will conform to the best practice. The bid is to cover the cost of furnishing all the materials and doing all the work required in the construction and erection of the complete engine above the foundations.

The engine is to be capable of delivering from the pump well to the reservoir 8,000,000 United States gallons in 24 hours, through the 2675 feet of 24-inch pipe already named in regular service, and further, it must be capable of working to 20 per cent. higher capacity without undue strain or injury to the mechanism.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or cashier's check, upon a national bank of the city of Lowell or Boston, payable to the order of the treasurer of the city of Lowell, for the sum of $1000, said check to be returned to the bidder in case his proposal is not accepted. The party whose bid is accepted will be required to execute the contract of the form on file in the water works' office within 10 days from the time of notification of such acceptance, and in such case of failure or neglect so to do, the check accompanying the proposal will be forfeited to the city of Lowell. The party to whom the contract is awarded will be required to furnish a bond for the faithful performance of the work, in such sum as shall be fixed by the water board, this sum to be not less than 50 per cent. of the contract price. The bond must be signed by two or more sureties, who are residents of the state of Massachusetts, and satisfactory to the water board.

No bids will be considered for others than a vertical triple expansion crank and fly-wheel engine, nor from other than the regular pump manufacturers. Bids shall be addressed to the President of the Lowell water board, and marked, "Proposals for Pumping Engine."

The water board reserves the right to reject any and all bids, should they deem it for the interest of the city of Lowell so to do.

These proposals are invited pursuant to a resolution of the mayor and board of aldermen of the city of Lowell, as follows:

City of Lowell
In board of aldermen.

Resolution requesting water board to procure competitive bids for new pump. Resolved by the board of aldermen of the city of Lowell, assembled, as follows: That the water board be and it is hereby requested to procure competitive bids for a new pump for Centralville pumping station, so that an accurate estimate of its cost may be obtained.

In board of aldermen, Aug. 9, 1910.
Approved Aug. 10, 1910.
John F. Meehan, Mayor.

Copies of the call will be sent the following companies:

160 LIVES LOST

Men Perished in the Disastrous Forest Fires

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 26.—Following is a revised list of the number killed in the Idaho, Montana and Washington forest fires last Saturday and Sunday.

United States forest employees, Idaho and Montana, 100.

Settlers and fire-fighters, St. Joe Valley, Idaho, 50.

Settlers at Newport, Washington, 4.

At Wallace, Idaho, 3.

At Mullan and Spokane, 3.

Total 160.

The Missoula forest officials' list of 79 dead forest employees omits 21 killed at the Bullion mine, Montana, and on the big fork of the Coeur d'Alene.

Missing:

Negro soldiers near Avery, Idaho, 4.

Ranger Holms' party, headwaters of St. Joe, 16.

Forest employees in St. Joe valley, 25.

Reports received today by Supervisor Weigl at Wallace concerning the number of dead forest employees did not agree with that obtained at Missoula. The reports to Wallace, that of Ranger Hollingshead's sixty men on Big creek, 11 bodies have been found and the other men are missing.

Of sixty men on Setser creek 48 bodies have been found and five men are missing. These sixty two deaths of forest employees added to the 21 deaths at the Bullion mine and on the big fork of the Coeur d'Alene and the deaths in Montana and various creeks would bring the total number of deaths in the service up to 100.

SIBLEY WAIVES HEARING

WARREN, Pa., Aug. 26.—Waiving a hearing on informations charging them with conspiring to debauch the electors of Warren county, Joseph C. Sibley who recently resigned as candidate for congress on the republican ticket in the twenty-eighth congressional district of this state, Frank R. Taylor of Franklin; Charles Crandall, George B. Munn and D. M. Howard of this county were held for court trial here today by Justice of the Peace Peary. All the defendants were present except Mr. Sibley, who, according to physicians' certificate, was confined to his home in Franklin with acute heart trouble.

It had been previously stated that the defense would attempt to have quashed the informations containing the erroneous date of the primaries but this was not done.

Each of the defendants was released on his own recognizance to get bail in the sum of $1000.

FIVE MEN KILLED

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 26.—Five men were killed and one badly injured when two heavily-loaded freights on the Diver route division of the Missouri Pacific road collided near Blackwater, about sixty five miles west of here today.

KING ARRESTED

He Made a Dashing Figure in Paris

PARIS, Aug. 26.—Instead of going to Rome, by the king's favor, to be an instructor of the pretty Italian princess, young Oswin King, the dashing American, who rose from a skating rink job to be the friend of Paris nobility, departed for Switzerland yesterday as a prisoner, charged with fraud and forgery.

King claims to be a son of a former governor of Texas, but if he is, he has changed his name, for no man of that appellation has ever been governor of the Lone Star state.

He was arrested in the Place de l'Opera on requisition from the Swiss government. It is said the specific charge is the swindling of a Swiss hotel keeper by means of forged checks.

The handsome young fellow appeared in Paris last year and for a time spent money freely. After a few months he obtained a position as skating instructor at the Palais de Glace, where he taught a number of young American girls of noted families.

Gentleman of Means

He always refused tips, and posed as a gentleman of means, who had taken up skating work for fun. He was received in many of the best houses of the American colony, and a few weeks ago announced his engagement to one of the two Countesses Bylandt. The lady made no denial of the betrothal, but it is said that her friends made far-reaching inquiries as to King's standing in America.

Meanwhile the young man was off to Switzerland on the trip which has proved his downfall. One of his traveling companions was a member of the royal court set in Italy, and he procured for King an engagement to go to Rome and teach the princesses to skate.

King was to present himself at the Quirinal on Sept. 15, where, after giving instructions during the winter, he was to go with the princesses and their suite to Nice.

The airy self assurance of the young man in the matter of love affairs is thought to have been the immediate cause of his falling into the hands of the police.

Weeps When Arrested

Before his departure for Switzerland he said:

"I may go back to my father's ranch in Texas next April, and I expect to take with me as my bride one of the titled ladies of Europe. Just which one I am not at liberty to say. Indeed, I have not yet made a definite choice."

This speech is said to have aroused the anger of certain titled ladies who had befriended the young man, and one of them is supposed to have given the police information regarding his return to Paris.

There was a scene in the Place de l'Opera when he was taken into custody. King wept and fell on his knees, begging the detectives to let him go. By the time he had reached headquarters he had become calm. He asked for an interpreter and then said that everything would be squared, because his father occupied a high position in Texas. He was locked up. Later the Swiss detectives arrived with extradition papers and took him away.

DR. MADRIZ MUST LEAVE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Honduras officially has invited Dr. Madriz, the deposed president of the Nicaraguan government at Managua, to move on. This information was received at the state department today from its diplomatic representatives. It accounts for the announcement that Madriz who fled from Nicaragua to Amapala on the little Honduran island just beyond the Nicaraguan border is to leave Monday for Mexico. The request of Honduras is based on the Washington convention with Central American republics by which the leaders of a faction in one country is forbidden refuge in another.

STRIKER KILLED

And Another's Skull Was Fractured

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 26.—During a battle today between a detail of state police and strikers at the Old Forge colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal Co., near here, one striker was killed, another's skull was fractured and several were seriously hurt. Thirty-eight men were arrested.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Despatches to R. G. Dun & Co. indicate some slight improvement in general trade and fall business is opening up well as a rule. Merchandise markets in Boston are quiet in all branches as far as new business is concerned but there are indications of increased activities early next month. Drygoods jobbing houses report an improving trade in fall goods and retailers now show less conservation in their operations. Wool is very quiet but there is a firmer tone in cotton goods, although business shows little increase.

Bank exchanges this week at all leading cities in the United States aggregated $2,204,157,897, a loss of 20.2 per cent. compared with last year.

NO OPPOSITION

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The granting of a certificate of exigency to the Hampden railroad for a proposed line in western Massachusetts will not be opposed by Grand Trunk railroad system, according to a statement today by First Vice-President Fitzhugh of the latter company.

The Hampden line as outlined by its petitioners will occupy a strategic position between the Grand Trunk and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad.

CONGRESS OF SAILORS

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 26.—Delegates from all the seamen's unions from America and Europe represented from the international congress of sailors and American marine firemen in session here, with the exception of the French association, agreed today to declare an international strike unless the shipowners of every country concerned agree to the formation of a board of conciliation to deal with the grievances of the men. The proposal for the strike has been the subject of heated discussions, the delegates of several of the continental countries having opposed the suggestion of the British union for a strike.

The date of the threatened strike will be known only to the leaders of the international congress who are pledged to secrecy. It is expected that the full convention will approve the strike resolution when it is laid before them for formal action.

TO INTERVIEW KING

MADRID, Aug. 26.—Mgr. Vico, the papal nuncio at the Spanish court, today applied for an interview with King Alfonso. No statement of the purpose of the interview is made but it is suggested that the representative of the Vatican desires to take up personally with the king the subjects of the conflict between the Spanish government and the Vatican.

MISS ELKINS TO WED

PARIS, Aug. 26.—Special despatches from Italy insist that the marriage of Miss Katherine Elkins to the Duke of the Abruzzi in spite of all denials has been decided upon and that Senator Elkins and the affianced couple will soon arrive in Paris to arrange the details of the wedding.

Both the queen-mother of Italy and King Victor Emmanuel have, according to these reports, given their consent to the wedding.

WOMAN RESCUED

Man and His Fiancee Drowned

NEW PRESTON, Conn., Aug. 26.—S. D. Valentine of Brooklyn, N. Y., and his fiancee, Miss Moore, who is believed also to have come from that city, were drowned in Lake Waramaug this afternoon. Mrs. Umbach, an aunt of the young woman, was rescued. The boat in which the party were out for a row, was upset.

COMPLAINT AGAINST ROAD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Refusal of the Pennsylvania and New Haven railroads to establish through rates and joint rates on coal shipped from the Allegheny field in Pennsylvania to New York and New England points via Jersey City is made the burden of a complaint filed today with the interstate commerce commission by the Bader Coal company of Boston.

OFFICERS ELECTED

THE WEIRS, N. H., Aug. 26.—J. M. Clough of New London, Conn., was elected president of the New Hampshire Veterans association at the closing session of the annual reunion of the organization here today. The other officers chosen were as follows: Vice-president, D. E. Proctor, Wilton; secretary, Nat Shackford, The Weirs; treasurer, D. W. King, Nashua.

THE REED MONUMENT

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 26.—President Taft is not expected by the officers of the Reed Memorial association to be present next Wednesday at the unveiling of the monument erected to the memory of the late congressman, Thomas B. Reed, it was learned today. On this account there was much disappointment. When President Taft made his trip along the Maine coast last month the Mayflower was in Casco bay overnight but the president did not come ashore. Then it was understood he undoubtedly would be present at the monument dedication and in cancelling the most of his appointments for August he had reserved the Portland date. The reason for the change in plans is not known here.

A TELEPHONE ALARM

A telephone alarm at 1.10 o'clock this afternoon summoned a portion of the fire department to a blaze in a pile of rubbish in the cellar of a house which is under the course of construction at the corner of Aiken avenue and Cumberland road. The fire was extinguished before any damage was done.

PAPAL SECRETARY

TO RECEIVE THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS

ROME, Aug. 26. Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, came to Rome today from his summer residence at the Villa Monte Mario for a reception of the diplomatic corps. Among those who attended was the Marquis de Gonzales in charge of the Spanish embassy at the Vatican since the recall of the ambassador, Marquis de Odeja, whose audience was longer than usual.

It was reported that the conversation of the Spanish representative with the cardinal was cordial, although Cardinal Merry del Val confirmed the details of the last note communicated to Spain which maintains unchanged the attitude and policy of the Holy See without making a step either forward or backward. The note asserts that if Premier Canalejas maintains his position the conflict will be left in statu quo, the Spanish Catholics being left to decide between the rights of the church and the policy of the government.

Marquis de Cominges declares that he has received no further instructions from Madrid since communicating to his government the note of the Vatican.

MAN ARRESTED

Charged With Uttering Forged Check

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 26.—A man who gave his name as John Bagley of Boise City, Idaho, but believed by the police to be Charles V. Knightley of 15 East 11th street, New York, was arrested here late last night, charged with obtaining from a local firm $500 worth of jewelry by false pretenses and with uttering a forged check for $2000 on the Toronto bank of commerce. According to the authorities Knightley is wanted in Boston and Peekskill, N. Y., for alleged forgeries.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Charles Barton Hill, former assistant professor at the Lick observatory on Mount Hamilton and a member of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, is dead at his home here. He was 47 years old.

DECREASE IN EXPORTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—A marked decrease in exports of natural products, increased exportation of manufactures and increased importation of manufacturers' materials are shown by the bureau of statistics in a statement on foreign commerce in the United States during the seven months period ending July 31, 1910.

Exports of wheat, flour, meats, cotton, illuminating oil and copper show a decline. Exports of lumber, leather, agricultural implements, lubricating oil, steel rails, naval stores, scientific matter, shoes and boots and automobiles show an increase. Imports in principal manufacturers' materials, including hides and skins, tobacco, cotton, wool, etc., show an increase, while many of the manufactures, including cotton laces, linens, cotton cloth, books and silk laces show a slight decline.

FUNERALS

CARLSON—The funeral services of Mrs. Annie M. Carlson, wife of Gustaf A. Carlson, were held yesterday afternoon from the Edson cemetery chapel, and were largely attended by her relatives and friends. Rev. John Elmen, pastor of the Swedish Congregational church, officiated. Appropriate selections were sung by Emil Widen and R. H. Anderson.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, including a large pillow inscribed "Wife and Mother," from the family; pillow from the London street church; wreath on base, inscribed "At Rest," from Mr. and Mrs. Seth McKenzie and Miss Pamelia McKenzie; basket from Misses Margaret Curry, Esther Anderson, Edla Anderson and Mr. McNay; sprays from Miss Sophia Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Gumb, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Johnson of Manchester, John S. Haynes and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lundgren, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Pihl, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson and daughters, Cameron Brothers, Helping Hand society, Mr. and Mrs. Swanson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Miss Hilda Karlen, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones, Miss Cora R. Mowatt, Mrs. Anna Widen and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson; bouquets from Mrs. Otto Oberg of Boston, Mrs. A Barrett, Mrs. Charles Everett and Mrs. Uman.

The bearers were Seth McKenzie, John S. Haynes, Emil Widen and R. H. Anderson. Burial took place in the family lot in the Edson cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

COLLINS—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine E. Collins took place from the Talbot chapel in the Lowell cemetery yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Chambre, rector of St. Anne's church. The bearers were Dr. Simpson, Mr. William Farrar, Dr. Leonard Huntress and Mr. H. R Fletcher. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

FUNERAL NOTICE

BROCK—The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Brock will take place tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock from her home, 267 Worthen street, and at 9 o'clock a mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church. Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

DEATHS

SHAW—The many friends in Lowell of Miss Mary B. Shaw will be pained to hear of her death, which occurred at her home in Pittsfield, N. H., on August 7 last. Miss Shaw was of the advanced age of 86 years

MERRILL—Charles H. Merrill, proprietor of the Vaughan house at Caribou, Me., died in Portland yesterday and the burial will be at Danforth, Me. Mr. Merrill leaves a wife who was Miss Felicia Nix of this city, and whom he married in June of the present year, and two daughters by a former wife.

SMITH—The body of Mrs. Mary Tower Smith was brought to Westford yesterday from Portland, Maine, where deceased died after a short illness of a few days. Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Fannie Prescott, and niece, Mrs. Oscar Spalding, with Mr. Spalding were in Portland at the time of her death.

Mrs. Smith was a former resident of Westford, where she was favorably known and highly respected. Deceased is survived by her husband, Dr. J. A. Smith, and two sons and one daughter.

TRAFFIC CLOSED

Ice and Milk Supply Cut Off From Hudson

NASHUA, N. H., Aug. 26.—The bridge connecting Nashua and Hudson and spanning the Merrimack river was closed to traffic last night after the last passengers had transferred from trolley cars.

The closing of the bridge came suddenly as the result of the breaking away of a wall on the Nashua approach, where the excavations are being made for the Nashua abutment. This wall has been pushed out to one side by the pressure behind it and the contractors fear that it may push toward the river, hit the supports which are now holding the jacked up bridge and let the entire 600-foot structure into the river.

The Nashua end of the long bridge has dropped considerably and it was necessary last night to shut off the gas main running from this city to Hudson, thus putting many homes in darkness.

Supt. Anthony Morris remained at the bridge all night with two watchmen, and while teams were barred entirely Nashua people in Hudson and Hudson people in Nashua were permitted to return home with the understanding that they were crossing the bridge at their own risk. Today all traffic was suspended. This will cut off a large portion of Nashua's milk and ice supply.

The Nashua Coal and Ice company, one of the city's largest supply companies, has its entire stock in Hudson. Its only means of getting the ice to Nashua will be to hire wagons to draw to the railroad and ship that way. The same will have to be done with the milk that comes from Hudson to Nashua.

Supt. Morris stated last night that with careful work the roadway approaching the bridge will be dug out and the pressure from the rear removed. Then after building a new approach the bridge will be reopened.

BIG ICE WAGON

CRASHED INTO A POP CORN CART

One of the heavy wagons of the Daniel Gage Ice company crashed into a pop corn cart drawn by a horse on the Thorndike street bridge yesterday afternoon. There were a number of vehicles on the bridge and the driver of the horse attached to the pop corn wagon, a Mr. Gifford, in trying to avoid colliding with another vehicle steered his horse to one side only to get in the path of the ice wagon. The result was that the ice wagon overturned the lighter vehicle.

When the wagon was upset Mr. Gifford was thrown out and his stock of popped corn, unpopped corn, butter, bags and cooking utensils were scattered about the street.

When the man was thrown out of the car he had a narrow escape from being run over by the ambulance which passed over the bridge about that time on its way to the scene of another accident. The driver of the ambulance thinking that Mr. Gifford was hurt stopped but upon finding that the man had escaped injury he drove on.

THE LADIES' AUXILIARY

Elected Miss Conway on the State Board

The convention of the Ladies' auxiliaries of the A. O. H. came to a close yesterday afternoon with the election of Miss Mary McAndrews of Adams as mistrress-at-arms and Miss Delia A. Conway, of this city, as sentinel.

Mrs. Catherine E. Burke, the retiring president, was presented a purse of gold in acknowledgment of her services as president and bouquets were given and gifts made to other officers.

Before adjournment the newly elected officers were installed by Mrs. Mary E. McCarthy of Westfield, the national vice president.

In electing Miss Conway on the state board the Ladies' Auxiliary made no mistake. She is one of the best speakers and ablest presiding officers to be found among the women of Lowell, but she is so modest, only her intimate friends and fraternal associates are aware of it.

CONSTABLE BUSY

Brought Consternation to Summer Colony

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 26.—Again yesterday Constable John G. Cross, the young Harvard law student, brought consternation to members of the summer colony who frequented the alleged gambling parlors at the Narragansett club before they were closed Aug. 7, following a raid by him. Mounted on a bicycle he made an unexpected visit yesterday afternoon to the Point Judith Country club, where the polo matches were being contested, and moving through the crowd of society folk served summonses on three Philadelphia men to appear in court on Monday next. Then he was ordered by Philip S. P. Randolph of Philadelphia, president of the country club, to leave the grounds.

Mr. Randolph had called a policeman and the crowd of gally dressed women with the men looked for something exciting. But Constable Cross declared he had served all the summonses he had with him and was ready to go.

When asked last night for the names of the men he had summoned to attend on Monday the trial in the second district court at Wakefield of William E. Arnold, who is charged with maintaining a gambling place at the Narragansett club, Constable Cross refused to make any statement.

It looked for a moment as if there would be trouble when one of the men whom Mr. Cross buttonholed yesterday afternoon shook his fist in the constable's face. The latter continued reading the summons, however, and the remonstrating Philadelphia social leader carried his objections no further.

The Narragansett club was closed tight as a drum yesterday for the first time this year on.

NO CHANGE YET

In Strike Situation in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—Following the failure of the contractors to meet William McLean, president of the Bricklayers' union, on Thursday afternoon in a conference which had been arranged, both the contractors and the strikers are resting today as far as any important events in the laborers' strike are concerned. The strike leader, Dominick D'Alessandro said today that he did not know what his next move would be, possibly he would withdraw from the city and allow the laborers themselves to adjust their difficulties.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

A social and dancing party was held in Merrimack hall, Merrimack street, Wednesday night under the auspices of the Lady Wolfe Tones, I. N. F. There was a large attendance and the affair proved to be a success.

The following had charge of the party: Maria J. Markham, general manager; Lizzie Lynch, assistant general manager; Kittie O'Neill, floor director; Bridgie Nolan, assistant floor director; Mrs. Dwyer, chief aid; aids, Mary A. Dillon, Nellie Nolan, Mrs. Grady, Margaret Lynch, Susie Riley, Mamie Connors and Mary Riley.

DIRECTOR CHANGED

REV. BRO. JORDANS LEAVES ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

Rev. Brother Jordanus, director of St. Joseph's college, has been transferred at his own request to the Marist school at Robervial, Lake St. John, where he will fill the office of assistant director. He left this city last night for his new place.

The change came at the request of Rev. Brother Jordanus himself whose health had not been of the best lately, and who desired less arduous duties for a time.

Rev. Brother Leon Marcel, for the past three years director of the Marist school at La Malbaie, Que., is coming to Lowell to take the direction of St. Joseph's college. He is a native of France, 31 years old.

SALVATION ARMY

TAKES CONTROL OF THE CHILDREN'S PICNIC

The annual outing of the poor children of this city, which in years previous has been conducted by Constable John McManus, will be held next Wednesday at Mountain Rock grove under the auspices of the Salvation Army corps, and under the direct management of Adjutant and Mrs. Harry Hawkins of the local branch of the army.

The success of the affair depends in no small measure on the generosity of the public and for several weeks boxes have been placed at points of vantage along the principal streets and considerable money has been received, but the army is in need of more money and balls, bats, neckties, shoes, candy, peanuts and various notions, the latter to be offered as prizes. If the public desires to contribute either the money or different articles can be sent to the barracks or a post card sent to 32-34 Jackson street, and the articles will be called for.

Fifteen hundred lunch boxes have been given by A. F. French and in each box there will be placed a ham sandwich, a doughnut, a cheese sandwich, a cup cake and a banana. There will be plenty of lemonade for the youngsters.

Up to date 13 cars have been donated but five more are needed.

The Provincial band of New England, with headquarters in Boston, will be on hand and give a concert in Paige street Wednesday morning prior to the start of the cars and on Tuesday evening, the night before the outing, the same band will give a concert at the army barracks in Jackson street.

Upon arriving at Mountain Rock the children will be started on their sports at once, and will continue until noon. Then all will be lined up and marched to the ball grounds. As each child enters the grounds he will be passed a box containing his lunch. After dinner, sports will be in order again. The first car will start back to the city at 5.30 o'clock, and will arrive here shortly after 6 o'clock.

BATTED LIKE FIENDS

Lowell Pounded Morgan, Haverhill Pitcher, for 15 Hits

Lowell played big league ball against Haverhill yesterday and defeated the tail-enders by a score of 9 to 1.

The hero of the occasion was Pitcher Yount, the elongated gentleman with the passionate hosiery and all kinds of speed and curves. This time Yount shone forth as a heavy clout artist for out of four times at bat he made a single, a double and a triple and the triple would have been a home run had he run faster. He pitched well and fielded satisfactorily.

Lowell got to Pitcher Morgan for 15 hits and played a first class fielding game while Haverhill gave Morgan rather indifferent support.

Fluharty and Magee contributed sensational catches while Sullivan worked finely behind the bat.

First Inning

Lowell broke the ice in the first inning by sending one man over the plate while the down-river players failed to make good. Hagan was the first man up and he reached first on a single to right garden, but when he tried to steal second Sullivan by a perfect throw nailed him. Bannon hit to Yount and failed to reach first. Moore singled to left field but was caught while trying to steal second.

In the latter half of the inning Blakely opened with a free pass. Fitz sent a fly in Moran's territory but the latter fumbled and the runner was safe at first while Blakely meandered to second. Cooney sacrificed and advanced the men on base. Magee sent a sacrifice fly to Moore and Blakely scored. Tenney hit Morgan and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 1, Haverhill 0.

Second Inning

Nothing doing in the second. Foulke singled and went to second on Merrill's sacrifice, but he died there, for Cain flied to Blakely and Anderson knocked a fly to left field which Magee gathered in.

In Lowell's half Fluharty hit to Cain and never saw first and Boultes followed with a single. Sullivan hit to Morgan and Boultes tried to "hog" it by attempting to reach third. He was caught between second and third. Yount singled but Blakely closed the inning by flying to Merrill.

Score—Lowell 1, Haverhill 0.

Third Inning

In the third inning Jackley hit to Cooney and was out at first and Morgan hit to Yount and was retired at the initial bag. Hagan reached first on an error by Boultes and stole second. A free pass gave Bannon first base. Moore made a hit and Hagan scored, Bannon and Moore then worked a double steal, but a few minutes afterwards Foulke was called out on strikes.

Fitz flied to Cain and Cooney followed with a single to left and Magee was second out on a fly to Cain. Tenney flied to Hagan but the latter dropped the ball. Fluharty singled to centre field, scoring Cooney while Tenney went to third. Boultes struck out.

Score—Lowell 2, Haverhill 1.

Fourth Inning

The fourth was short and sweet. Merrill and Cain were retired on strikes while Anderson hit to Cooney and retired at first.

Sullivan hit to Cain and died at first and Yount hit to left field for a two-bagger. Blakely flied to Bannon who made a pretty catch and the latter threw the ball to second for a double play on Yount.

Score—Lowell 2, Haverhill 1.

Fifth Inning

In the fifth inning Jackley flied to Fluharty and Morgan was out on strikes. Hagan singled to centre field but Bannon hit to Boultes and was out at first.

Two more for Lowell in the latter half of the inning. Fitz opened with a three bagger to the centre field fence and scored on Cooney's sacrifice fly to Moore. Magee singled to left field but was caught while trying to steal second. Tenney bunted along the third base line and beat the ball to first for a hit. Cain threw bad to first and Tenney went to second. Fluharty singled to centre field scoring Tenney. Fluharty started to go to second on the throw home but Morgan intercepted the ball and threw him out.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 1.

Sixth Inning

In the sixth inning Moore flied to Cooney and Foulke hit to Cooney and was out at first. Merrill singled and Cain hit to Boultes who threw Merrill out at second.

Boultes flied to Cain. Sullivan drew a base on balls but was thrown out while trying to steal second. Yount went out on strikes.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 1.

Seventh Inning

In the seventh inning Anderson was robbed of a hit by Fluharty who made a pretty running catch of a ball off the former's bat. Jackley singled to centre field and Morgan struck out, while Hagan, who followed, hit to Fitz and died at first.

In Lowell's half Blakely struck out and Fitz hit to Anderson and was out at first. Cooney hit over second base and Hagan made a one hand stop and threw him out at first.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 1.

Eighth Inning

Bannon flied to Cooney, Moore hit to Cooney and died at first while Foulke was retired on strikes.

Magee hit one too hot for Hagan to handle and he reached first. Tenney bunted down the first base line and beat the ball to first for a hit. Fluharty advanced both men with a sacrifice. Boultes singled to right field scoring Magee. The ball was thrown home but Jackley allowed it to go by him and Tenney also scored. Sullivan singled to left field scoring Boultes. Yount knocked the ball to the farthest end of the field for a three-bagger, scoring Sullivan. If Yount had traveled faster he could have made a home run. Blakely hit to Morgan and the latter knocked the ball down and Hagan threw to first in time to get to the runner, but Yount scored. Fitz singled to left field. Cooney flied to Jackley.

Score—Lowell 9, Haverhill 1.

Ninth Inning

In the ninth inning Merrill struck out. Cain struck out. Anderson flied to Boultes.

DIAMOND NOTES

Lynn at Lowell today.

And we're still on the threshold of the first division.

Fifteen hits is batting some.

It was worth the price of admission to see Dady Lodng-Legs clout the ball; a single, a double and a triple. If Yount could step around the bases like Magee that triple would have been a homer without any doubt.

Put Worcester down for second place.

Sullivan throws to second with grace and accuracy.

Magee and Fluharty furnished a couple of circus catches that got the fans going.

A delegation of Lynn fans is expected here this afternoon.

Red Rorty sprang a hot shot here recently to a local fan that shows his Celtic wit. "One or two fans were kidding him in Central square and one of them sang out to the red ump, 'We'll get you some time.' "If you do you'll have to hurry up, I may cash in before the end of the season,' " sang out Rorty as he painfully limped aboard a trolley car.—Lynn News.

President Johnson of the American league yesterday issued the following list of releases and contracts affecting 14 players:

CY SEYMOUR, FORMER GIANT, CHASED BACK TO THE MINORS

BALTIMORE, Aug. 26.—Baseball fans here are figuring that with Cy Seymour, who was secured from the New York Nationals recently, in the regular lineup the team will have a splendid chance to finish in third place. Manager Dunn believes that Cy still maintains his hitting eye and will help the Orioles win many victories with his big stick. For years Cy was among the leading hitters of the National league. He began to go back two years ago. His legs were in bad shape in 1908. Last year he got into trouble with Latham and was suspended. Then on the day of his reinstatement his ankle was broken. He finished the last few weeks of the season and hit better than at any previous time in his major league career. Snodgrass this season crowded Cy out of a regular position, and he became excess baggage. Seymour went to New York as a southpaw from the Albany team in the New York State league. He lacked control. He was so wild that rarely did he have an effective day. But he was a terrific hitter and for that reason was converted into an outfielder.

GAMES TODAY

American—Cleveland at Boston, St. Louis at Philadelphia, Chicago at New York, Detroit at Washington.

National—Brooklyn at Pittsburg.

New England—Brockton at New Bedford, Lawrence at Fall River, Lynn at Lowell, Worcester at Haverhill.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Brownies of Belvidere would like to challenge any 15-year-old team in or out of the city. Please pay half fare for out of the city. Send all challenges to Manager Thomas McQuade, 10 Pleasant street, or to William Conroy, 124 Bartlett street.

Next Saturday afternoon the O. M. I. Cadets and the Brooksides of the Lowell and Suburban league will meet in a league game on the latter's grounds in Collinsville. The game will be called at 3 p. m.

The Y. M. C. A. second team of the Stony Brook league will play a team from the John Pilling shoe factory, of the Suburban league, on the North common, Saturday afternoon.

Jake Morse recently announced that Lynn would play in Lowell Saturday. Frank Leonard told him he was wrong and showed him. Now Jake says the game will be played in Lynn, and that goes.

The undefeated Lincolns and the strong Orioles will cross bats Saturday afternoon at the Lincoln's grounds on Chelmsford street.

FOOTBALL NEWS

The Lowell Athletics will play the Lawrence Juniors association football team on the Fordway park, North Billerica, Saturday afternoon in the first league game of the season. The Lowell boys are out to win from their rivals who have not lost a game for two years and a fast game is expected. These teams should have met last Saturday, but as the grounds were in a poor condition the game had to be postponed. The line-up for the Lowell Athletics is as follows:

Goal, Normandy; backs, Mahon (captain), Pendergast; halfbacks, Johnson, Trickett; forwards, Goodall, Taylor, Hoyle, Lamb, Clegg, Mitchell. Silva is president.

CHOLERA OUTBREAK

THE DISEASE HAS REACHED VIENNA

VIENNA, Aug. 26.—Cholera, it is officially announced, has broken out in this city. After throwing doubt for two days on the reports of cases in Vienna, the health department of the ministry of the interior today announced that bacteriological examination of several suspected cases had established that the patients were suffering from Asiatic cholera. The victims are from Hungary.

A BOLD ROBBERY

Aged Man Was Held Up in Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Joseph McCarthy, 22, and Albert M. Carroll, 25, both single, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Jeremiah Crowley of station 15 on a charge of robbing Valentine B. Willey, 74, a wealthy lumber dealer of Wolfboro, N. H., of a silver watch, valued at $12, on Roland street, Charlestown, about 11 o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Willey has been in this vicinity for the past few days, and yesterday morning went out to Lexington to transact some business. On his return he alighted from the car in the Sullivan square terminal and proceeded to walk to the depot of the Eastern division of the Boston & Maine railroad at East Somerville for the purpose of taking a train to Medford.

Things had so changed since Mr. Willey's last visit here that he became bewildered and got down among the tracks of the railroad at East Somerville and was wandering aimlessly about when, he claims, he met McCarthy and Carroll on Roland street and asked them the way to the depot.

While going up Roland street, Mr. Willey was dealt a severe blow behind the right ear and as he fell a hand clutched his throat. His silver watch was then taken from his pocket.

A bookkeeper in one of the manufactories close by saw the entire transaction and telephoned to Station 15. Patrolman Crowley responded, and from the description given him of the two men, decided to arrest McCarthy and Carroll.

McCarthy was captured about 1 o'clock at the office of the Boston & Maine railroad, where he had applied earlier in the day for work. Carroll had been arrested previously.

Carroll at first stoutly denied that he had anything to do with the affair, but according to the police, finally weakened and told where the watch was. He told Crowley that when he saw him on the car a short time after the robbery he feared he was after him, and ran and threw the watch down a vault. Here the watch was found and was returned to Mr. Willey. The latter was not seriously hurt.

TENDERED A RECEPTION

Mr. William Herrick, son of Mrs. Louise Herrick of 48 Sladen street, Dracut, and Miss Elsie Crowingshield, of Ticonderoga, N. Y., who were united in marriage Monday at the latter's home, were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. Herrick's mother in Dracut, Tuesday night. During the evening the newly married couple received many presents.

The interior of the house was artistically decorated and the couple was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Louise Herrick.

WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Lawrence City Council to Meet to Elect a Mayor

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Attorney General Dana Malone yesterday affixed his signature to a petition to the Mass. supreme court, asking for a writ of mandamus to compell acting Mayor Thomas M. Jordan of Lawrence to call a meeting of the common council of that city in order that it may take action on going into joint convention with the board of aldermen for the purpose of electing a mayor to succeed former Mayor White, who is serving a three-year sentence in jail for bribery. It was expected that the petition would be filed in the supreme court this afternoon by City Solicitor Murphy of Lawrence.

The attorney general did not sign the petition for a writ of mandamus until acting Mayor Jordan had repeatedly declined to call a meeting of the common council at his own volition. The acting mayor explained that he is and always has been ready to call the common council into session whenever they ask him to do so, but as the members of the council are now taking their summer vacation he did not think he ought to disturb them except upon their own request.

After hearing the evidence in the matter Attorney General Malone said that in his opinion acting Mayor Jordan ought to call a meeting of the common council, and he suggested Sept. 6 as the date, this being the day on which the next meeting of the board of aldermen will be held. Acting Mayor Jordan, however, said that he wished to be consistent in his own position, and declined to issue the call. The attorney general then affixed his signature to the petition.

MAYOR OF SALEM

Is Said to Have Got Names Mixed

SALEM, Aug. 26.—Mayor Howard's charges that L. F. Bassett has been guilty of grafting in the work done on the manual training school will be heard Monday night before the committee of public property and it will then develop that it would have been quite impossible for L. F. Bassett to have been guilty of the acts alleged.

In his letter to Alderman S. Herbert Wilkins, chairman of the committee, Mayor Howard specified that Bassett had two men employed by him on the manual training school and that each of those men was down on the city payroll at $24 a week, whereas they actually received $15 and $18 respectively, the contractor pocketing the balance.

L. F. Bassett is not a contractor and had no contract and hired no men on the school work. His brother, F. S. Bassett, however, did have a contract to install an engine at the school, and, while that work was being done, he was asked to figure on some "extras" in carpenter work.

Members of the committee to hear the charges say they know all about the affair, that Bassett said the work was too small to figure on and that the easiest and cheapest way for all was to let him (Bassett) have his men who would do the work go on the city payroll at his regular charge for such work, $24 a week, and he would pay them and get his profit on the difference.

HELD A LAWN PARTY

A very successful and well attended lawn party was held at the Grange hall in Dracut Centre last night under the auspices of the Dracut Centre volunteer fire company. Dancing, which was held in the hall, proved to be one of the features of the evening.

The grounds adjoining the hall were decorated and illuminated in an attractive manner. Several booths which were placed on the lawn and presided over by members of the department were well patronized.

Those serving at the tables were: Ice cream, Harry Fox, A. P. Bryant, Henry Parker, George Currier; candy, Walter Fox, Eugene Andersen; fonic, Frank Huntley, William Hazen; clams, Mark Lurvey, Peter Ford, Ernest Moore; popcorn, Albert Fox; dancing, Harold Lurvey, George Hague, Gus Roth, Conant Udell.

The Colonial orchestra furnished music for dancing.

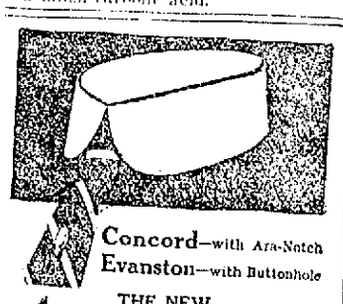

The general committee in charge was Edward Bennett, chairman; Frank Huntley, Mark Lurvey, John Ford, Walter Fox, Eugene Anderson, Harold Lurvey, George Hague, Conant Udell, Albert Fox, A. P. Bryant, Henry Fox, Henry Parker, Jesse Currier, Raymond Moore, William Hague, Gus Roth and Daniel D. Fox.

LOWELL MAN

TO MAKE AN AUTO TRIP TO THE PACIFIC COAST

Mr. J. Henry Dunham, the well known Fayette Street provision dealer, will start on an extensive automobile trip next Monday morning. Accompanied by a friend Mr. Dunham will leave this city next Monday morning at 4 o'clock, his destination being San Francisco. He will spend a few weeks in Frisco and then will start for home, returning by way of Texas and the other southern states. He will be absent from Lowell about two months.

"DAN" McCAFFREY

PRESENTED GOLD HEADED CANE BY LAWRENCE FRIENDS

During the second act of "The Pride of the Ranch," Joseph J. Flynn's sparkling musical comedy at Glen Forest theatre Monday night, Dan'l McCaffrey, the well known and popular comedian, was presented with a solid gold-headed, ebony cane by a number of his Lawrence friends and admirers.

The presentation was made by Lewis S. Powers, a member of the company.

Mr. McCaffrey responded in a choked voice, and thanked the donors.

The cane bears the following inscription: "Presented to Mr. Daniel McCaffrey, by his Lawrence, Mass., friends August 22, 1910."

"The Pride of the Ranch" is a musical comedy of the western style, and one can imagine himself in the Golden West during the two acts of the play which are interspersed with bright comedy, and tuneful, catchy music and songs. The company is an exceptionally clever one, and well merits the approval shown by the audience.

The singing of Miss Powers, Mr. Lasee and Mr. Randall won the greatest outbursts of applause seen or heard at the park this season. Lewis Powers was compelled to respond several times with his parodies, which with the work of Dan McCaffrey as Judge Lovetoddy kept the audience in a continuous uproar of laughter.

"BILLY" MALONEY

HAVING A MOST ENJOYABLE TIME IN WILDS OF MAINE?

Mr. William Maloney of Pleasant street is enjoying a hunting and fishing trip in Maine. Mr. Maloney has located his camp close to the boundary line and is enjoying himself immensely. The fishing, he reports, is grand, and he is making large catches. In the hunting line he writes that he found some trouble at first because of the lack of a hound, but he had shipped to him "Duke," the well known hunting dog that was trained by "Billy" Burns, and for the last few days has been exceptionally lucky.

CARD OF THANKS

I hereby wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the beautiful Morris chair presented me by my friends and associates in the Tremont & Suffolk clothroom.

LOSS IS $20,000

Race Horses Saved From Fire at Risk of Life

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—A dozen speedy light-harness horses valued at from $50 to $5000 each and 46 work horses valued at $200 each were rescued early last evening by stablemen, trainers, policemen and others from a fire that destroyed the big boarding, livery and racing and express stables of A. J. Furbush, which is in the rear of 200 Washington street, Brighton. Three alarms were sounded for the fire from box 832 and help came from Cambridge and Newton.

The loss on the building, 50 tons of hay, the grain, harness, new buggies and other contents is estimated between $20,000 and $25,000. The loss is covered by insurance.

Much of the credit for saving the horses, racing sulkies, harness and wagons is due to the presence of mind of the owner's wife and their daughter Louise. They remained on the veranda of their home in front of the stables and directed the rescue work.

Mr. Furbush was at the Marshfield fair. Word was sent to him and he came home in an automobile.

The stable was of wood with a frontage of two stories and a loft on Nantasket avenue and three stories and a loft on Snow street.

The Furbush home fronts at 200 Washington street, Brighton, surrounded by spacious grounds and having a garage between the ell of the house and the stable.

Walter Burdick, trainer, and his assistant, Lawrence Lyons, were on the first floor on the Nantasket avenue side at 7 o'clock watering the light harness horses when a burst of flames and smoke confronted him, coming down through the hay and grain chutes. The next instant flames broke through the roof of the big building, which extended 150 feet along Nantasket avenue and had an ell extending 150 feet.

Men, women and children saw the flames and ran through the streets crying "Fire." A citizen ran to box 832 on Washington street opposite Shannon street, and sent in an alarm.

Mrs. Furbush and her daughter, who were alone in the big house, were almost overcome by the shock of seeing the fire, but they quickly recovered and ran to the piazza and began giving orders to employes and directing the rescue.

The rescue work had been going on some time before the firemen arrived. Burdick and Lyons hooded the heads of the high-strung racers and with great difficulty and at some risk to their own lives ran the horses out through flames and smoke into Nantasket avenue and turned them loose in the Furbush pasture on Nevins hill.

Patrolman Michael Sullivan, who covers the route; William Welsh and George Reeves, neighbors; reserve officer Nicholas Bowe and Patrolman Jos. Quinan hurried into the flaming stable and worked at the risk of life in getting the workhorses out of the basement into Snow street. Many of these horses were turned loose and rollicked in the streets until they were captured and stabled by neighbors.

Furbush House Set Afire

Philemon D. Warren, deputy superintendent of police, was on the steps of the Brighton police station and immediately directed that a big detail of policemen be sent and the streets were soon roped off.

Capt. John S. Cleverly of engine 29, acting chief of the Brighton district, ordered a third alarm as soon as he arrived.

Chief Mullen was soon on the scene and engine companies from Newton and Cambridge responded to the third alarm in accordance with the fire district agreement.

Sparks filled the air and set fire to the roof of the Furbush house. A fireman climbed to the roof of the house and wet it down with a chemical line continually until the firemen finally played a stream of water there.

When it looked as if the house would go a cry was sent up that Frank A. Edgerley, foreman for Mr. Furbush, who broke his leg some weeks ago, was helpless in a bed in the rear room on the second floor of the house. Patrolman Quinn and Reserve Officer Bowe ran up into the smoke filled room and made a cradle with the bed clothing and carried Edgerley to the street. Edgerley weighs about 200 pounds, and they found it difficult to carry him without injuring his leg. They broke down a fence and carried him across to the office of Dr. Brackett in Shannon street.

At this time Mrs. Furbush and her daughter Louise were taken across Washington street to the residence of John Pierce, but sparks soon set the roof of this house on fire. This fire was soon extinguished. Then Mrs. Furbush and her daughter went back to their own home.

John Mahoney worked with a hand fire extinguisher on the roof of the Furbush house all during the fire.

Chemical's Horses Run Away

Chemical 6 was standing in Nantasket avenue near the burning stables when the horses became frightened and making a short turn started to run into Washington street. They were caught, but in their short flight they ran head on into the side of a building and one was severely cut.

Stable employes, citizens, policemen and firemen removed four hacks, a hearse and 12 racing sulkies from the burning carriage house, along with a large number of carriages.

Although a bold effort was made to save them, 16 new buggies, valued at an average of $300, were destroyed. While a great many sets of harness were saved there was a valuable assortment of racing harness, light driving and road harness, boots, racing gear, blankets, robes and other costly horse clothing of considerable value, in the loft of the stable, which was destroyed.

Maurice Keefe, Michael J. Kenney, James Furguson and Michael Russell succeeded in saving some of the harness and some of the racing gear on the street floor on the Nantasket avenue side.

Two automobiles in the garage were saved without appreciable damage and the garage buildings also were saved, though badly scorched.

A fresh breeze was blowing from the south, carrying the flames and sparks out over a vacant lot and across to many tenement houses that were kept wet down by the firemen to prevent their taking fire.

Spectacle for Great Crowd

When the fire was at its height R. H. Russell and family and Michael Connors and family, who occupy a two-apartment house at 29 Nantasket avenue, south of the burning stable, moved all their household effects into a field, and the women sat in the midst of the goods. Though the roof took fire several times, no appreciable damage was done to the dwelling. Later the two families moved back.

A large wooden building in the rear of the stable, occupied by the Brighton Construction company, was in danger, but was saved by being kept constantly wet down.

It was thought the fire originated from a spontaneous combustion in the 50 tons of new hay which was recently put into the loft. This was valued at $1250. There were about 100 bushels of oats and nearly as much other grain in the bins. The stock of winter horse clothing, boots, snow racing equipment, blankets and fur robes stored there was also destroyed.

The burning building was on a hill and the flames reached a great height and were seen easily by persons in Newton, Brookline, Cambridge and many other surrounding places, and a great many persons came in automobiles, carriages, electric cars, on bicycles and on foot to see the fire. The streets were jammed with automobiles and vehicles of all descriptions.

The fire was out at 10 o'clock, although a company of firemen remained and the stable employes began assembling and housing the horses.

A Marvel For Sore Feet. Acts Right Off

Sore Feet? Never After Using TIZ—

Good-bye sore feet, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelling feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sore-proof.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

If you don't find all this true after trying a box of TIZ, you can get your money right back.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

A good auto race held here every year would cause many societies to hold their state and national conventions here.

The search of strikers for dangerous weapons is a new departure that has been tried but with little success by the police of New Bedford.

Edison, the electric wizard, announces that he can make moving pictures talk. Nobody can afford to be surprised at anything he may discover or invent.

It seems that the powder mills of Acton are blown up far too often. If the owners had to take any chances around the factory, they would adopt such precautionary measures as would lessen the number of accidents.

When children, boys and girls, begin to commit suicide, it is time to halt and ascertain the cause. Why should the juvenile temper be as explosive as a firecracker? It may come from ill-treatment or from heredity, where the highly nervous temperament of both parents is multiplied in the child.

UTILIZING THE ROOFS OF BUILDINGS

In view of the recent tendency to sleep out of doors and the very general necessity of open air breathing places, the owners of property will hereafter pay more attention to utilizing the roofs of buildings for purposes of recreation, health and comfort.

In Cleveland a new idea has been brought out for building a block upon pillars leaving a playground for children underneath with air shafts going up through the building sufficient to supply the necessary ventilation. While the playground underneath the building might be safer than on the roof, still it will hardly be popular with the children as it is likely to be objectionable on account of the collection of rubbish that in time might become offensive and unwholesome.

ROOSEVELT TO FIGHT IT OUT

It seems now that the republican leaders are becoming very deeply involved in a bitter fight over the political situation in New York City. Roosevelt as a result of being turned down by the recent convention is now determined to go into the fight against the leaders who administered that rebuke. He is backed in his attitude by President Taft, and the official who seems to come in for most of the blame is Vice President Sherman. For this reason Colonel Roosevelt espouses the cause of Senator Davenport, a New York insurgent who was rejected by Vice President Sherman. The fight promises to be very warm; and if it results in another defeat for Roosevelt, we surmise that that will overthrow his prestige as a political leader in the republican party.

GIVE US MORE STATE HIGHWAYS

When the state highway from Lowell to Lawrence will have been completed there will then be a direct route from Lowell to the sea at Newburyport. There should also be a state highway from Lowell to Lawrence on the south side of the river. At present the road is much better than that on the north side between the two cities.

The rough and neglected condition of both, however, go to show that the people hereabouts have been asleep to their own interests in their not having long ago forced the adoption of both roads as state highways. The drive between the two cities if these roads were like the road between Lowell and Tyngsboro, would be the most delightful in the state whereas now it is avoided as dangerous to autos and even to other vehicles.

Lowell should insist on having a state highway on the south side of the river as well as the north. She is entitled to this much consideration in lieu of the large tax paid to the state.

THE INSURGENT REPUBLICANS

The insurgent movement in the republican party is likely to spread. In Kansas and Iowa the insurgents are practically the whole thing and the movement is spreading all over the country. The protest is directly against the republican machine, against Cannon and the Aldrich tariff.

The insurgent sentiment was expressed by Senator Cummins, of Iowa, when he said:

> "The demand for revision of the tariff originated in the necessities of the people and was founded upon the fundamental instinct for justice. If there had been an honest attempt to fix duties according to the cost of production I might have yielded my view on the question of fact, but there was no such attempt. There is no exigency in public affairs or party action that can induce me to say that a thing is good when I believe it to be bad, or to say that it is true when I believe it to be false. I for one refused to follow Aldrich, Hale, Lodge, Cannon and Dalzell into a sneering, contemptuous, open repudiation of my party platform."

That is but a part of the severe arraignment of the political machine and its workings for the perpetuation of its control. The great crisis that will test the strength of the party and that may bring a sweeping democratic victory is fast approaching and nothing but democratic mismanagement can prevent it resulting in the utter defeat of the latter. Should the democratic candidate for governor in Iowa be elected, the result would be a crushing blow to the republican machine throughout the country. It is a great opportunity for the democratic party to redeem itself for some past blunders.

SELLS THEM ALIVE

Europe Excels America in the Fish Business

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Valuable ideas concerning fishery methods were obtained in Europe by U. S. Fish Commissoner Bowers, who has just returned from abroad. Mr. Bowers is a Maine man, although he has been a resident of West Virginia for many years.

"I visited England, France, Belgium and other countries," said Mr. Bowers. "I inspected the fish markets of various cities and found their methods most interesting. One thing in which they excel America is the method of handling fresh water fish. They are kept in water and sold alive, so that it is possible for the purchaser to select a fish or eel that is swimming about and have it killed and dressed immediately. Eels are very popular among the people of Europe.

"I found no fish that excels our American fish as game or food. By the aid of French cooking, however, European fish sometimes taste better to the epicure.

"I believe the European fish known as sole would be a good thing to import and shall recommend that we try to propagate it in this country.

"I visited Hull and Grimbsy. The latter is to Great Britain what Gloucester is to American fisheries, the chief center of the industry.

Confers About Seal Pelts

"Crossing the channel I visited Rotterdam, Amsterdam, and Paris. Returning home via London, I conferred with British officials and furriers about the seal pelts which the U. S. government has taken from male seals killed on the Pribiloff islands and also about raising the fur seal in fresh water. London experts are interested in both of these maters.

"Twenty seal pups are now en route from the Pribiloffs on a revenue cutter. I have today ordered one of our special cars to Seattle to meet the cutter and bring the pups east. We will distribute them among aquaria in the large cities and elsewhere to demonstrate that the fur seal can thrive in fresh water.

"I have no doubt that aquaria in Boston, New York and other places will be glad to get a pair of the seals. We have had a pair of young seals in the fisheries bureau building for a year and they have grown and kept healthy in fresh water, despite the fact that zoologists insisted that the fur seal could not live out of salt water any length of time. If seals can live in Potomac river water, I believe they can thrive in Kentucky whisky.

"The success of our experiment here opens up the possibility in rivers or lakes throughout the country. I believe they will thrive in any body of fresh water that does not freeze completely over in winter.

"True, it will be difficult to confine the seals, but the expense involved in building a seal-proof enclosure would be amply repaid by the profits to be made in the business. A farmer receives perhaps $5 for a lamb, while the value of a fur seal pelt is about $40 in the raw state. I was led to try the experiment of keeping seals in fresh water by observations on the Pribiloffs four years ago. There I noticed that many seals went from the coast into a small lake, the water of which was brackish, and lived for long periods."

Takes Issue With Critics

Commissioner Bowers takes issue with W. T. Hornaday of New York and others who have criticised the department of commerce and labor's action in killing male seals this year.

"Only a certain number of males are necessary to preserve the herd," said Mr. Bowers. "No females should be killed at any time, but if the surplus males are not killed by the government they will kill each other or be captured by pelagic sealers. If conservation is the object of Hornaday and his friends they should seek to put the seal poachers out of business. If the surplus bulls are not killed when young their pelts become valueless except for crude purposes.

"I have received no report from the Pribiloffs, but suppose that probably 8000 or 10,000 males were killed by our agents. Their skins are expected to arrive at San Francisco aboard the cutter Homer about Sept. 9.

"The skins will be packed in barrels and sold and shipped to London for curing. They are the property of the United States government and I was anxious to see if the skins could not be located and cured in this country. I conferred with London furriers about the matter. They alone possess the secret of plucking the long hairs from seal skins, dying and otherwise preparing them for the trade. I urged one London firm to establish a branch in the United States to prepare Alaskan skins, but was told that they had been so long established at London that they did not wish to make a change."

GARTER SLIPPED

And Boston Woman Lost Her Gems

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Because of a defective fastening on a garter, Mrs. Florence Bailey yesterday afternoon lost three diamond rings valued at $150 and $81 in bills.

Mrs. Bailey, who lives at 71 Dalton street, Back Bay, noticed her loss just after she had left a Waltham car at Malvern avenue, Brighton.

She has enlisted the police in a search for her property, and declares that she will never again depend on a garter to safeguard her valuables.

"I left my house about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and walked to the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Boylston street, where I took an outbound car for Brighton," said Mrs. Bailey last night.

"The car I got was an open Waltham car and I sat near the centre, between two men. When I reached Malvern avenue I alighted.

"As I walked down Malvern avenue I began to feel my stocking slipping down. When I looked for my valuables they were gone. I managed to fix the broken garter and walked back to the corner, where I met an officer who went with me to the police station and there they started an investigation which resulted in the car being searched, but with no result.

"The diamond rings which I lost are very valuable. I had them wrapped up in tissue paper and the three little packages were tied together.

"The money I had rolled up in four small bundles. One contained $30, another $17, the third $12 and the fourth $25. I had put these into one large bundle and put a rubber band around it. It made a large roll, as most of the bills were of small denomination, and it is a wonder that I did not miss it the minute it slipped out of my stocking.

"I have advertised for the rings and the money and after this you may be sure I won't carry any money in my stocking."

GROOM HANDCUFFED

Friends Carried B. A. Helsey Off in Auto

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—With his wrists handcuffed behind his back, his face smeared with lamp-black and a policeman's club sticking out of the front of his coat Bert A. Kelsey of 117 Berkeley street, proprietor of a restaurant at 11 Essex strett, walked into station 10 at Roxbury Crossing last night. Kelsey could hardly control his temper as he explained to the police that he was the victim of a practical joke perpetrated by his friends.

Kelsey told the police he became a bridegroom only 48 hours ago. He was married quietly and had tried to keep the affair a secret, but the news leaked out yesterday afternoon. Kelsey said: "Some of those friends of mine won't forget it for a long time when I have had my innings."

Somewhere, this morning, Kelsey's wife, if the plans of his friends have worked out successfully, is anxiously awaiting news of her husband, and also a railroad ticket to return to her home of but two days.

Kelsey and his wife are each about 26 years old. They were married Tuesday evening. They were seated in their dining room in their flat at 117 Berkeley street last night when two taxicabs drew up to the door. Several business men entered, and after chatting awhile invited the bride and bridegroom to take an automobile ride. They consented, and about 8.30 they started out Columbus avenue.

Evidently the drivers were let into the joke, for when they reached one of the darkest spots along the roadway near Jamaica pond something happened to both machines at the same time. The passengers alighted and about 10 young men and women were standing, laughing and talking, beside the machines, when Kelsey was suddenly seized from behind.

Kelsey fought desperately—or at least he said so—but was overpowered and handcuffs were slipped on his wrists. Mrs. Kelsey was escorted to another automobile and placed in the hands of the women.

At first Kelsey took the situation good-naturedly, but when one of the number of "arch conspirators," as Kelsey termed them, produced a liberal quantity of black grease paint and began to daub his face and hands the affair ceased to be a joke.

Gleefully the men went about their work, until they had completed it to their satisfaction. Kelsey struggled, but could not get away. Then he was bundled into the automobile and the start for the city was made. They reached Roxbury Crossing a little before 10.

At a signal both machines were stopped and Kelsey was forced to alight. As he stood on the curbing, one of the young men put a pair of pincers and several other articles that might be termed burglars' tools in his pockets while another forced the club into the upper pocket of his coat, leaving the business end hanging out.

Laughing and giving all sorts of advice they drove away. Kelsey thought of several friends in different garages that might assist him. He visited two establishments, but in both places his friends were away and as he bore all appearances of a suspicious person the the garage employes refused to assist him.

Finally he wandered down Columbus avenue to station 10. Lieut. Albert F. Lovell and Sergt. O'Neil were talking in the signal room when Kelsey walked in.

"Say, gentlemen, don't you think this is a fine way for a fellow's friends to treat him?" inquired Kelsey, as he showed the handcuffs.

Kelsey spent the next half hour in convincing the police who he was. All this time he had to bear the humiliation of wearing the handcuffs. Finally a key was applied and Kelsey was allowed to wash his face and hands, whereupon he started in to convince the police that he was guilty of no crime.

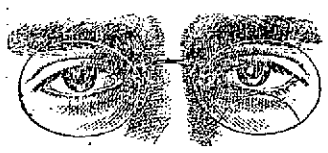

When they put him out of the taxicab his friends watched him go to the garages and later trailed him to the station house. While he was inside the two automobiles kept going up and down Columbus avenue passing the station at intervals of 10 minutes, awaiting to learn the result of their joke.

Here, however, Kelsey turned the tables, for with the assistance of the police and while the two taxicabs stood across the street in front of the station with the occupants waiting to greet him, Lieut. Lovell passed Kelsey out the back door of the station to Elmwood street. Before he left he was given the articles taken from him.

Not content with the treatment they had already given him, his "friends" proceeded to take his watch, money and valuables before they put him out of the automobile.

It is understood Mrs. Kelsey has relatives living in a small town a few miles outside the city and the jokers planned to send her out to them on one of the last trains.

GOODALE'S DRUG STORE, 217 CENTRAL STREET

Alleged to Have Held Up a Man

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Joseph McCarthy, aged 21, of 30 Parker street, Charlestown, and Albert M. Carroll, aged 25, of 44 Florence street, Somerville, were arrested late yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Jere Crowley of the Charlestown police on a charge of robbery of a silver watch yesterday noon from Valentine B. Willey, a Wolfboro, N. H., business man.

Mr. Willey is 74 years old and rather feeble. He told the police that he was choked by one of two young men on Roland street, in the vicinity of Charlestown Neck, thrown to the street and his silver watch, worth about $12, was snatched from his vest pocket. One of the men, he said, stood on guard while the other attacked him.

Men in the vicinity say they saw one of the young men standing at Crescent and Roland streets, Charlestown, and then saw a second man rush around the corner and both men ran away. They told the police of seeing Mr. Willey, who tried to follow the men.

The attack occurred at midday, shortly after which Patrolman Crowley appeared on the scene. He was given a description of the men and a hunt was begun. Crowley got a warrant for McCarthy and about 5 last night found him.

Mr. Willey arrived in Boston from Wolfboro yesterday morning. He took a train for the Sullivan square terminal, where he intended to board a car for Medford on a business trip. But he lost his way in the crowd and went down to the street. He made his way to Roland street, and there asked two young men to show him the way to the Eastern station. They volunteered to accompany him.

Patrolman Crowley, after asking Carroll and McCarthy what was done with the watch, visited Egan's saloon and searched the sink in the men's room.

The services of a plumber were necessary and about nine inches of lead pipe, including the trap under the sink, were cut off. In the trap was Mr. Willey's watch. Although it had been lying in water two hours, the watch was still running and keeping correct time.

ACCUSED DRIVER

Of Having Run Down a Boy

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick D. Doyle, five years old, of 36 Essex street, Cambridge, had a narrow escape from death while at play near the corner of Austin and Essex streets yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Cambridge police are searching for an automobile that is said to have knocked him down.

According to the story told the police, the boy had just gone out into the roadway, when a touring car containing four persons struck him. The machine was stopped and the chauffeur lifted the child from underneath and carried him to the sidewalk.

Then it is alleged, he jumped into the machine again and drove off.

Grace Boole, a child living at 4 Lamson place, saw the accident and helped the boy to his home. She gave the police the number of a Massachusetts machine. The owner of the machine in question told the police over the telephone that he knew nothing of any accident, that his auto was in a repair shop in Cambridge.

A physician found the Doyle boy had no broken bones, but there were several bruises and he is being observed to determine whether he sustained internal injuries. The lad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard S. Doyle.

FENLON J. HURD

Says He Paid $40,000 for Spirit Messages

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—One version of the so-called "spirit communications" through which Fenlon J. Hurd, a retired merchant of Greenwich, Conn., is alleged to have paid more than $40,000 to Mrs. Laura R. Cramer, a clerk in the state department here, is given in a deposition made by Hurd at Whallenburg, N. Y., and filed in the district supreme court here yesterday.

Dr. Lee M. Hurd, also of Greenwich, who was appointed conservator of the estate of the elder Hurd after he had been declared incompetent by a court in Greenwich, brought an action against Mrs. Cramer several weeks ago to recover the $40,000.

Mrs. Cramer has already answered that the elder Hurd gave her $27,000 for her care when he lived in Washington.

The case has not yet come to trial, and the deposition of the elder Hurd was taken on representations that he is very feeble and may not live until the case is reached.

Madam, Is Your Hair Falling Out or Turning Gray?

If it is, the hair roots need nourishment and need it badly. If you want the best results in the shortest time you must use Parisian Sage because it not only nourishes the hair root and causes it to grow in abundance but it kills the dandruff germ and eradicates dandruff.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by Carter & Sherburne to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It makes hair grow lustrous and luxuriant. It is a delightfully refreshing summer hair dressing, cooling the scalp, and will immediately banish all odors. Large bottle 50 cents at druggists everywhere, and at Carter & Sherburne's. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Mail orders filled, all charges prepaid by the American makers, the Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

On March 25, 1910, E. A. Widman, 8 Norfolk St., Newark, N. J., wrote: 'My hair was falling out and my head was full of dandruff. Since using Parisian Sage the dandruff has disappeared and now have quite a growth of new hair.'

On April 2, 1910, Mrs. R. M. Worden, 5 St. James Ave., Holyoke, Mass., wrote: "Parisian Sage is the best hair dressing I ever used. It gave my hair life and gloss which no other dressing ever did, besides stopping it from falling out. It is the only dressing for up-to-date women."

March 24, 1910, Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, 4 Chester place, Bangor, Me., wrote: "My husband, J. G. Ketcham, was troubled with dandruff which caused his hair to fall out, and your Parisian Sage has freed the scalp from dandruff and given a natural gloss to the hair. No money could persuade him to be without it."

MORE FIREPROOF BUILDINGS

Fireproof construction methods are gaining ground in the United States. This is shown by the government report on building operations in 1909, just issued. Of the cost of new structures in 128 large cities, 73.24 per cent—or $661,640,000 in round figures—went into the kind classified as "fire-resisting."

The total cost of building operations in Greater New York last year was $250,314,778. Chicago was second, with $95,265,560. San Francisco's outlay for buildings $26,184,068, represented a decrease of $5,184,273 from 1908; it was the only one of the large cities to show a decrease.

The lesson taught by the conflagrations at Baltimore and San Francisco has been a potent factor in the movement toward better construction. At both the big fires the effectiveness of the few instances of modern fireproofing was demonstrated. On the other hand, buildings not properly fireproofed, even though made of steel, were powerless to resist the fierce heat.

Steel itself, though non-inflammable, is not "fireproof," as experts understand the term. It is the practice now, among the leading architects and builders, to provide for the protection of the metal by burnt clay blocks. These hollow blocks, which have passed through a temperature of 200 degrees in the process of manufacture, are used to incase the columns, girders and beams of the frame. They are also used for floors and partitions, to make impossible the spread of fire from one part of a building to another.

The United States government attempts to set an example to builders in the thoroughness of its methods. Practically all the important government buildings put up in recent years are of the steel and hollow tile type.

CHOLERA EPIDEMIC

Reported to be On the Wane in South Russia

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 26.—A slight improvement in cholera conditions in south Russia is shown by the latest reports to the government sanitary bureau and to the Red Cross, which is taken as a sign that the epidemic is now on the wane. Reports to the sanitary bureau for the week from August 14 to August 20 inclusive give 16,106 new cases and 7748 deaths as compared with 23,944 cases and 10,723 deaths for the previous week, making a grand total of 121,091 cases and 53,030 deaths for this year's epidemic. Prof. Rein, at the head of the special sanitary commission dispatched to south Russia to combat the outbreak, reports that the epidemic in the Donetz mining region in south Russia is on the decrease. At Yuzovka, the principal center of the district, there are only sporadic cases and the same is true throughout the districts of Bakhmut and Slavyanoserbsk. The great improvement is due to the introduction of proper methods of medical aid.

The mine owners of south Russia who recently declared that they would have to suspend operations on account of the flight of the workmen and whose refusal to undertake contracts for the delivery of pig iron has embarrassed the iron industry in Russia, report that their workmen are beginning to return to the mines in considerable numbers. The proposal to reduce the duty on pig iron has had a particularly good effect in spurring on the mine owners to take measures to combat the exodus of the workmen.

ALLEGED CROOKS

Arrested by Martin Maher on Charge of Picking Pockets

Inspector Burr of Boston Knows Some of Them and Says They Are Professionals—Man Fined $15 for Assault; Another $20 for Breaking Window

In the arrest of the four alleged pickpockets at the Middlesex street station yesterday by Inspector Martin A. Maher, of the local police department, assisted by two employes of the Boston & Maine railroad, the police feel sure they now have in custody four of the cleverest pickpockets in this section of the country. Despite the fact that they stood the ordeal of the "third degree" at the police station in a manner which stamped them as either telling the truth or else being experts at lying, they lost their air of bravado this morning when they were confronted by Inspector L. W. Burr of Boston police headquarters.

The recognition between the inspector, who knows practically every crook of note in the east and a good many in the west, and the four men arrested on suspicion was mutual, and the latter knew that the presence of Inspector Burr would tend more to bring out the facts than did the several hours they were being questioned yesterday afternoon.

While it was John Corcoran, ticket agent at the Middlesex street station, who first suspected the men now under arrest, it remained for Inspector Maher to work up the case and subsequently arrest the quartet.

When arrested they gave the names of Thomas Kelly, John W. Ellis, Ernest Capasso and Frank Gilbert, but when Inspector Burr put in an appearance this morning he identified Kelly as Fred Berry, alias Andrew McLaughlin, a well known pickpocket. He recognized John W. Ellis as "Big John" W. Crane of Philadelphia, and Capasso as Frank Kelly of New York. He was not positive of Gilbert's name, but has known him as Owie Liss of Philadelphia, who it is alleged was at one time a pugilist. All four have served time for picking pockets.

Thomas Kelly or Berry is well known to the police, and it is said that in previous scrapes in which he has figured he has done the delicate work of picking the pocket of a victim, while the other three members of the gang did the jostling, and held the victim in such a position that the latter could not use his arms.

The quartet was arraigned in police court this morning on a complaint charging larceny from the person, the specific charge being that they stole a pocketbook valued at $2 and $19 in money from Bartholomew J. Cullinan.

Lawyer Joseph Sullivan of Boston appeared for the defendants, waived the reading of the complaint and entered a plea of not guilty and asked for a continuance for one week. The continuance was granted, each of the defendants being held under $600 bonds.

Case Continued

The case of Peter Demoukeos, charged with assault with a knife on Peter Heenakos, was continued till Wednesday at the request of Lawyer J. Joseph Hennessy.

Fined for Evading Carfare

William F. Flannagan, a young man residing in Roxbury, who evaded paying carfare on the Lakeview line the night before last, entered a plea of guilty and a fine of $5 was imposed.

Threatened His Wife

Maria Comiels informed the court that her husband, William, had threatened to kill her and also assaulted her. The defendant said that he might have threatened his wife; but he did not mean to do her bodily harm. He said he only tried to frighten her. He was found guilty and ordered to furnish $100 bonds to keep the peace for six months.

Arrested in Billerica

John E. Brown accummulated quite a supply of intoxicating liquors yesterday and when he reached the square in Billerica Centre he saw a wagon and thought he would take a ride. He was about to climb to the seat when the owner, Arnold Pickering, objected. Brown decided that he was going to have the ride and when Pickering pulled him to the ground he turned around and struck the owner of the outfit. Constable E. Livingston was notified and he placed Brown under arrest.

This morning in court Brown admitted that he was drunk and when asked to plead to the complaint of assault he said: "I might have struck him," but that plea would not go with the court and so the defendant pleaded guilty.

He was found guilty on both charges and fined $15 for assault and $5 for drunkenness.

Smashed a Window

Hugh McCrossen was charged with drunkenness and breaking a pane of glass in the second hand clothing store conducted by David Bernstein at 159 Middlesex street. Bernstein testified that McCrossen entered his store yesterday afternoon and wanted to sell a coat. The man was under the influence of liquor and when Bernstein said he would give him 25 cents for the coat, McCrossen called Bernstein vile names and then seizing a shoe last threw it through a large pane of glass.

McCrossen admitted that he was drunk but said that he did not think of raising any rumpus until Bernstein called him a vile name and he said he was not used to being called such a name and he forgot himself for the time being.

He said that he had money and if given a chance he would settle for the window and the court continued the case until tomorrow morning, but a few minutes later McCrossen said that he desired to be sentenced right away so the court withdrew the order of continuance and imposed a fine of $20 for breaking the window and $5 for drunkenness.

Charles Hasse, charged with being drunk, was fined $6, James F. Sproule was fined $6, four first offenders were fined $2 each and five simple drunks were released.

IVY BALDWIN

TO TRY TO FLY ACROSS THE GOLDEN GATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Ivy Baldwin, an aeronaut who was formerly in the balloon service of the United States army, announces that he will attempt tomorrow morning to fly in an aeroplane across the Golden Gate, the entrance to San Francisco harbor. The machine is one of his own construction in which he has made trial flights.

SEVEN JERSEYITES ARE SEEKING UNITED STATES SENATORIAL TOGA

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 26.—At least four republicans besides himself are seeking the place of Senator John Kean in the United States senate at the hands of the next New Jersey legislature, and two democrats have filed petitions to have their names placed on the primary ballots. Three of the republican aspirants have filed petitions. They are former Governor Franklin Murphy, former Governor Edward C. Stokes and Congressman Chas. N. Fowler. Senator Kean, who wants to be re-elected, did not file a petition, as he decided to leave his fate in the hands of the legislature direct. The same stand was taken by David Baird of Camden, who also wants the seat. The democratic candidates for the toga are Frank M. McDermit of Newark and James E. Martine.

THE KAISER SPOKE

KOENIGSBURG, Prussia, Aug. 26.—Emperor William, who is making a tour of eastern Germany in connection with his visit to Posen for the dedication of his new castle there, delivered a martial speech at the provincial banquet here last night in which he urged the necessity of cooperation with him in his work for the welfare and defense of the country. Taking as his text the role of Queen Louise of Prussia during the Napoleonic wars, he extolled her virtues and pointed out how the memory of her lived the courage of Prussian soldiers and saved the country.

ENGINEER'S CONDITION SERIOUS

BURAND, Aug. 26.—Clinton A. Davis of Montreal and Fireman Nelson, who were seriously injured in the Grand Trunk wreck east of here Wednesday night, were reported today as resting easily.

The five injured who were taken to Hurley hospital at Flint also passed a comfortable night, except in the case of Engineer Bert Mitchell, whose condition is very serious, but it is now believed that he will recover.

Grand Trunk officials will begin an investigation of the cause of the wreck today at Battle Creek.

TWO EXPERT CUE WIELDERS TO PLAY FOR WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. The first big cue match of the season will be held here Sept. 6, 7 and 8. Jerome Keogh, the world's pool champion, will defend his title against Tommy Hueston, the former holder of the emblem. The men will play 600 points in 200 blocks. At present Hueston is ruling favorite, the pool experts figuring that the former champion has regained his old form. On the other hand, the followers of Keogh claim that their choice will carry on the honors. Last January Hueston lost the title to Keogh in New York. Alfred De Oro, the Cuban, has announced that he will challenge the winner, and so has Johnny Kling, the star catcher of the Chicago National league team. Kling held the championship for a time, but lost it to Hueston.

TOWN IN RUINS

Four Hundred Inhabitants Are Homeless

PORTLAND, Ore., August 26.—The town of Flora, Ore., has been destroyed, according to reports which reached Asoten, Wash., last night. The flames came from the forests on the south side of the Blue mountains. The town is in ruins and its 400 inhabitants are homeless. Communication is cut off.

DR. CRIPPEN NEARING LIVERPOOL

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The steamer Megantic, on which Dr. Hawley Crippen and Miss Ethel Leneve are being taken back to England by Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard in connection with the supposed murder of Dr. Crippen's wife, Belle Elmore, was reported 200 miles west of Malin Head at 11.35 this morning. The steamer still has four hundred miles to run which would bring her to Liverpool early in the afternoon tomorrow.

ELLIOTT COLE DEAD

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—News of the death of Elliott Cole, president of the National Lead company, at Carlshad, Germany, was received in a cablegram here yesterday. Mr. Cole sailed for Germany early in July in hopes of improving his health. His death was unexpected.

STEAMER WENT AGROUND

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 26.—The steamer Brazoria which left Philadelphia last night for this city went aground on Absecon bar off here today and remains hard and fast. The cargo is washing out of the holds. Captain Lynch and the crew of ten men have been landed here. The Brazoria is a small freighter and carries no passengers. It is owned in Philadelphia and plies between that city and Atlantic City.

2000 OPERATIVES IDLE

CHICOPEE, Aug. 26.—The Chicopee Mfg. Co.'s cotton mills here were shut down today until Sept. 12. The mills, which have been running five days a week for some time, employ about 2000 operatives.

M. A. Rawlinson, the agent of the company, states that the shutdown is in accordance with the general plan of the different companies operating mills in New England. The cause for this concerted action on the part of the mills, he said, was the result of the high cost of raw material and the scarcity of demand for the finished product. The plan is to shut down all the mills until the demand will have caught up with the output.

Bartenders' Union

EAGLES' CONVENTION

The Grand Aerie Starts Reform in the Order

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 26.—The trial committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, after a 48-hours' session of deliberation, reported to the grand aerie convention, at the Olympic theatre yesterday afternoon a finding of guilty in the case of four men who are charged with a discrepancy in the handling of the order's money in the purchasing of supplies.

On a viva voce vote, the men were expelled from the order. The expulsion of the men was a culmination of the reform movement brought about by Pres. Hering and Theodore A. Bell of California.

When the trial committee first brought its findings before the convention yesterday afternoon it asked that only three of the men be expelled. These were Edward Krause of Wilmington, Del.; Martin Gray of New Haven and Thomas Hayes of Newark, N. J. Krause was former grand worthy president before Hering and the other two are also members of the past grand worthy officers' bench.

The committee found that Bernard J. Monoghan, although possibly cognizant of the discrepancy going on during his term of office, did not merit expulsion. After the viva voce vote had expelled the other three, members from all parts of the hall arose to move that Monoghan be ousted. Sergt. Thomas F. Grady of New York, grand vice pres., who was in the chair, gave the floor to one of these men and on a vote Monoghan was also expelled.

Monoghan and Krause were present at the trial and after their expulsion had nothing to say. Earlier in the day Monoghan and Krause had testified in their own behalf and had filed objections to the jurisdiction of the grand aerie to try them, claiming it was the duty of their local aeries and not the organization as a whole.

The convention also moved that the matter of the expulsions be kept absolutely secret and the facts of the convention were only gained after close examination of members.

Sergt. Grady was asked if he could say anything after the meeting.

"Not a word," he replied.

Pres. Hering said: "I will see that my policies are carried out to the letter. There is no more surmising. The illegal clubrooms will be abandoned, undesirable members will be expelled and those found guilty of anything criminal will be given penal servitude. The 'balloon ascension' of the organization has disappeared and I will carry out the reforms to its utmost."

The charges upon which the four men were expelled are that in dealing with the aeries in the purchas of supplies they are mixed up in a money affair which amounted to about $6400 to the order. Part of this was for a patent card-punching machine and the other was for the ritual. It is said that the ritual by an agreement was sold to the order for 68 cents instead of 58 cents, which it should have cost.

About $1200 is said to have disappeared on this method, as 12,000 rituals were sold. When the convention lines up for the election of officers and the proposed change in the constitution tomorrow, Hering will be in the chair and Bell and Grady on the stage with him, the former as grand worthy vice-president and the latter as grand trustee.

While the trial of the four men was going on in the trial committee chambers, an injunction was sought restraining the grand aerie from expelling the men, should the committee find them guilty. George H. Moore, a St. Louis attorney, associated with C. A. Handy in the defense of Krause, went to Circuit Judge Kinsey's chamber and asked to be allowed to read a petition for an injunction. He claimed property rights were involved, as the sick benefits and death benefits of the men might be jeopardized.

Judge Kinsey asked him to file his motion first and while this was being done, the men were expelled by the laved, the injunction would probably grand aerie. Had the grand aerie delayed, the injunction would probably have been issued. Pres. Hering says that this tribunal being final, there is little chance that any appeal can be made.

HEAVY DAMAGE

Done to the Crops in Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 26.—Market gardeners throughout this state have suffered losses amounting to more than $150,000 through damage to the cucumber crop by a new disease. The crop has been reduced 75 per cent and unless something can be found to check the epidemic the cucumber is threatened with extinction in Rhode Island. Melons have been affected as well. One large market garden firm in Cranston has already suffered a loss of $50,000. The ravages of the pest have become so extensive that plant specialists from the department of agriculture at Washington have come here to study the disease at the request of Dr. H. J. Wheeler, director of the experimental station at the Rhode Island State college at Kingston.

50 BURGLARIES

Boy Says He Made Many Breaks

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 26.—Fifty burglaries during the last three weeks are the boast that George Collins, 16 years old, has made to the police. Officers investigated his story and confirm it in the main. Collins said he sold his stolen goods to pawnbrokers. He stole goods valued at $1000.

MILLS CLOSED

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 26.—Fifteen thousand employees of the Amoskeag Cotton Manufacturing company were thrown out of work today when the seventeen mills of the plant were closed for fifteen days.

Curtailment of production is given as the reason for the shut down.

CARDINALS SAIL

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 26.—Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli, the papel delegate to the coming Eucharistic congress at Montreal, and Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, sailed today for Montreal on the steamer Empress of Ireland. Accompanying them on the steamer were over a hundred high ecclesiastical dignitaries and a hundred and fifty laymen of the Roman Catholic church, who will attend the congress.

LAWN TENNIS MATCH

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The Lawn Tennis association today cabled to Dr. James Dwight, president of the United States Lawn Tennis association, and to President Hoskins of the Australian Tennis association, asking if it would be agreeable to both associations to have the preliminary matches between the English and American challenging teams for the Dwight F. Davis cup played off in America this year. It had earlier been proposed to play off the preliminaries in Australia, but the Australian association declined to guarantee the money necessary for the expenses of the two teams on the ground that the proposed British team is not sufficiently strong.

The final matches for the cup of which the Australians are the defenders for the third successive year will be played in December.

Rev. Brother Osmond of St. Patrick's Boys' school and Michael J. Johnson, organist at St. Patrick's, attended the dedication of the new dormitory and hall at St. John's college, Danvers.

GREAT PITCHING

Nixey Coughlin Makes Record at Revere

Who said Nixey Coughlin of this city is a has been as a pitcher?

Nixey pitched for Lowell in the game between the John Hancock Insurance men of Lowell and their brethren of Lawrence.

The Lowell men won 15 to 0. Only 15 men went to bat in the five innings and Nixey struck out 13 of them, only two men reaching first base in the entire game. Rep. Erson B. Barlow umpired the game in faultless manner.

The outing was held at Revere by the Lowell and Lawrence agencies and it was a competition that has been on for three months, the agency making the smaller net increase in business during the three months being obliged to settle for the outing. Lowell not only beat out Lawrence but has shown the largest business thus far this year in the history of the company. During the year it was announced the Lowell agency has written more ordinary business, policies of $1000 and over than any other agency of the company in the United States, a Brooklyn agency being second.

The local men left Merrimack square at 7.15 o'clock in the morning on a special electric car and at Reading they were joined by the Lawrence men.

At the conclusion of the ball game the insurance men repaired to Sleeper's restaurant, where an excellent shore dinner was served. An informal program was carried out after the dinner, T. P. Donahue, Supt. of the Lawrence branch, delivered a humorous speech which was productive of vociferous applause, after which James West of Lowell entertained with a song. The song was composed by Mr. West and included compliments and knocks to members of the party.

In the afternoon the members of the party went bathing, after which the sights along the boulevard were taken in and Wonderland visited.

Specials left, conveying the party homeward at 8 o'clock, and the same route was covered on the way back, the Lawrence contingent leaving the local aggregation at Reading. The success of the affair was due to the efforts of Frederick G. Woodworth, Supt. of the company for Lowell, and of Supt. T. P. Donahue of the down-river city.

EXPERIMENTS

TO BE MADE BY ISTHMIAN CANAL OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—With the last three barges built of concrete just completed for canal work, officials of the Isthmian canal are to undertake other novel experiments with this construction material. According to a report to the Isthmian canal zone, experiments are to be undertaken at once on both the Atlantic and Pacific divisions of the canal to determine the effect of seawater on the concrete for the lower docks at Gatun and Miraflores. The object is to ascertain if steps will be necessary in order to protect the concrete. Slabs of concrete will be subjected to the seawater. Some of them will be left in their natural state; some will be treated with sodium silicate in the form of soluble glass in solutions of different strength, and some of them will be treated with alum and soap, using three-quarters of a pound of soap to one gallon of water, applied boiling hot for the first wash and 24 hours later a solution of alum, two ounces to the gallon, applied cold.

The only walls that will be subject to action by salt water will be those of the lower or sea level locks and the guide wall leading into these locks. At Miraflores about 1,400,000 square feet of surface will be thus exposed and at Gatun 1,270,000 square feet.

THE NINTH REGIMENT

Is Making a Fine Showing at Pine Camp

PINE CAMP, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Yesterday was an interesting day for the militia regiments in this camp, and particularly so for the 9th infantry. It was out early yesterday morning for battalion drill and yesterday afternoon participated in a very interesting problem, in which the three battalions had a part.

Maj. Casey's battalion represented a part of the red army, which had been gathering supplies in the vicinity of the camp, and took its position at Dolan's crossing, some three miles from camp, and was allowed about 30 minutes to get into position. His wagon train was supposed to have broken down and he received information that he was to be attacked by two battalions of the blue army, which was represented by the 1st and 3d battalions of the 9th, commanded respectively by Maj. Murray and Maj. Dunn, but they were late in discovering Maj. Casey's position and by that time he was well intrenched, and as he had only to hold the position until 4 o'clock the task was comparatively easy. But he was fiercely attacked by Maj. Murray's battalion, while Maj. Dunn had worked around his flank.

Time undoubtedly saved Maj. Casey's little force, and according to the umpire's decision, he had held the position and retired in good order. The "battle" was well fought on both sides and the observers were loud in their praises of the work of both officers and men. Both the Maine and Vermont regiments had interesting problems to work out.

The beauty of these maneuvers is that intrenchments and earthworks are thrown up by the men and not theoretically built, as in all previous maneuvers. This makes the work more realistic. Of course all are very much interested in the coming bivouac and battle tomorrow which has been arranged, when all the troops will participate, but no orders have been given, consequently all are in the dark on the subject.

This evening the cavalry are working out a problem in the rain, as almost immediately after they left the camp the first rain of the week began to fall. The fighting took place close to the camp site, but as the moon was overcast but little of the maneuvers could be seen. Hogs Back, where the searchlight had been placed by the engineers, was crowded with officers who were disappointed that more of the fighting could not be seen.

The rain not only had a dampening effect on the camp, but also on the spirits of the officers and men, who would hate to lose the maneuvers, which they have worked so hard for the last four days to grasp and become proficient in. It would undoubtedly be a great disappointment to every man.

The great progress made by the men of the 9th regiment has been a revelation to the officers who have charge of their instruction, and the instructors have not been afraid to express themselves to the writer and also to the officers. The regiment does not make a move that is not followed by a dozen observers and umpires.

Possibly the most conspicuous company on the field is Co. L of Natick, as it is well known that it had trouble in connection with its officers just before coming to camp. It is here, however, with 60 men and two officers, and it is doing great work. It turns out with full ranks at every drill. Brig. Gen. Elliott C. Dill adjutant general of Maine, arrived tonight. Yesterday morning Hon. William S. McNary of South Boston "blew" into the camp of the 9th, where he received a warm welcome from his old comrades. Some years ago he held a commission in the regiment.

At the band concert of the 9th over 1000 men of the 10th cavalry and 24th U. S. regiment were present. Bandmaster Barrington Sergeant having captured the colored troops with his star aggregation. At the close of the concert Chaplain Jas. Lee conducted the men in singing "America," which had to be repeated. The men then took possession of the temporary bandstand and conducted a most enjoyable vaudeville show until taps were sounded.

MAY YOHE IS ILL

She Was Stricken With Paralysis

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 26.—May Yohe, once Lady Hope of the English nobility and later wife of Major Putnam Bradlee Strong, is destitute and ill in a local hospital. She was stricken with paralysis in a cheap cafe, where she was singing, and death may end her adventurous career at any time. May Yohe was born in Pennsylvania in a little town near Philadelphia. Her mother took her to the city, where she learned French and German. She developed a singing voice that was first heard in a Philadelphia church choir. Then she went on the stage. She attracted the attention of Lord Francis Hope, son of the Duchess of Newcastle. One of the wedding presents was the famous Hope diamond. It was in 1893 that they were married, and for seven years they lived together. Then came Captain (Later Major) Putnam Bradlee Strong, the son of the mayor of New York. Fresh from the Philippines, he met her in San Francisco, and they eloped, going to Japan, and Lord Francis Hope divorced her. She and Major Strong traveled much, separating and uniting several times, but finally separating for good. Since then May Yohe has been heard of from time to time, dropping lower and lower in the ranks of the profession until the end came in the San Francisco cafe. Strong when last heard from was at Macao, in China.

THE HOT SPELL

THE BACKBONE OF IT MAY BE BROKEN TODAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A drop of 25 degrees in temperature made Chicago shiver last night. On the streets the women wore their wraps and the men their overcoats.

The change—it isn't a cold wave, says the weather man, for cold waves come only in winter—is sweeping across the western states, shattering some summer records as it advances eastward. Snow in the far west and killing frosts in many states are unseasonable companions of the change.

The sudden drop in temperature is accompanied by high winds, and the weather bureau issued a special storm warning to navigators on Lakes Michigan, Huron and Superior. High westerly winds will prevail and summer voyagers will have a rough, cold time of it for the next 24 hours.

Concert tonight, Breezy Point.

Minor Heir Defeated Hedgewood Boy in Fast Race

GALESBURG, Ill., Aug. 26.—The world's pacing race record was broken on the Galesburg track by Minor Heir yesterday afternoon in a heat with Hedgewood Boy, the mile being covered in two minutes flat in the presence of 10,000 spectators. The weather was cold and a high wind blew, making the going slow.

Hedgewood Boy had the pole, but was passed at the quarter, which was reached in 31 seconds. On the backstretch Minor Heir gained the pole and held the lead to the wire, beating the world's record by a half second. The third quarter was done in 29 seconds.

The mile was evenly and smoothly paced by both horses, and Minor Heir was going easily and without distress when he went under the wire.

The 2.10 pace was very closely contested, and every heat was marked by close and driving finishes. From the sixth place in the first heat W A took the next three heats, with Auctioneer as a close contestant. The two other races went in straight heats. The summary:

THE TALENT FOOLED

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Canadian trotter, General H., was the star performer at Empire City track yesterday afternoon. The Grand Circuit horses are drawing much larger crowds to the Yonkers course than the runners ever have, and it is a pity that the people cannot see more of them at one session. Seven heats were the best that was offered yesterday, with a mile in 2.07¼ by the stallion from far-away Calgary, the only bit of high rolling seen.

A high wind made fast time out of the question, as 2.05 was the low figure for the pacers that are up to miles around 2.03. This makes the performance of General H. stand for something, and tells that before long the turf will have another 2.06 trotter. The General's win was a surprise, as the battle looked to be between Teasel and Soprano.

The latter was making her first start of the season, and her appearance attracted much attention. An accident to her harness caused her to be pulled up at the half-mile post in the opening heat, so the regulars will have to wait until Readville to find out much about her.

Teasel was not at her best and played in good luck to get a division of second and third money. Aquin went a smashing good mile in the second heat. He took the word several lengths back and finished a close third.

The 2.05 pace went to Ess H. Kay in rather an unusual manner. The black horse from Buffalo made a break in the second quarter of the first mile, leaving Walter W. and Baron Whips to fight for the heat, the latter getting the decision. Ess H. Kay won the next heat comfortably. This left only the two heat-winners to finish out the race, but all the horses came onto the track.

While the judges were discussing the conditions, White and Murphy scored down and, not hearing the recall bell, took it for granted that the word was given. Ess H. Kay went to the lead and came home with something to spare. A conference of drivers and officials followed, with the result that the announcement was made that the mile should stand as part of the contest, thereby ending the race, with no time taken.

The final in the Speedway stakes, the event for 2.16 trotters, to wagon, driven by amateurs, was a gift for the European stallion Willy. The handsome foreigner finished with a commanding lead in 2.11¼, 2.10½. The summary:

CLEANS UP FREE-FOR-ALL

TROY, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Walter Cox brought Aileen Wilson up from the Yonkers yesterday afternoon to clean up the free-for-all and did so admirably. It was the first time in several years that the black mare had been on a half-mile track, but her behavior was faultless.

Cox won the $200 offered to drivers when he sent Aileen over the mile in 2.07¾, lowering the track record of 2.08½ made last year by Gallagher. The summary:

RACING AT BANGOR

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 26.—The races at the Eastern Maine fair yesterday were each settled in three straight heats, but all were interesting. The feature of the day was the 2.22 trot-2.24 pace, which had twelve starters and which resulted in an upset, for the favorites did not place.

Direct Braden from Hartford, Conn., and driven by R. W. Burrill of Bangor, was the surprise of the day, taking the three heats of this race easily. Gold Bug and Col. Direct paced the winner home, and the fight for place was hot.

Lewiston horses won in the other two races, Prince Alfondly taking the 2.20 trot-2.22 pace easily, and Maude S having the speed of the 2.30 class trot. Both were picked as winners. The summary:

FEAR OF ARREST

Does Not Stop Girl Raffles

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The girl letter thief who has been keeping the Cambridge police on edge for the past two weeks has not stopped her operations through fear of arrest, but on the other hand the new reports that have come to the authorities show she has been making large sums of money by duping her victims on the bill and check game.

The thought of a gang of thieves working with the sixteen-year-old girl as an agent has been dropped and now the police believe she is working alone, with remarkable cleverness for one of her age. Many prominent Cambridge men have sent word to police headquarters that they have been either duped on checks, or have lost mail with money in it, within the past three weeks, and as the complaints pour in it is easy to see the large scale upon which the girl has been working.

A. C. Evans and William C. Stearns, both of 18 Center street, Cambridge, have been the victims of the girl's mail stealing. Mr. Evans received a check for $50, and a bill for $5 was received from a Boston department store by Stearns. The girl went to the store and paid the small bill with the large check and cleared $45 for her day's work.

The girl "Raffles" has caused much trouble for Edward H. Cook, formerly of 2 Clinton street, but now living at the house numbered 332 Broadway, which he has recently bought. Important papers relating to the transaction were mailed to him but were stolen by the girl, at least so think the police.

One case where the girl went astray was learned of when it was discovered that she had stolen a letter containing a bill for $5 from Dr. Charles H. Thomas. She took the bill to a woman of the same name as the patient to which it was made out, but not the patient. Nothing more has been heard of it.

HOWARD A HERO

Lowell Player Saved a Child From Drowning

Paul Howard, centre fielder of the Lowell team, who is recuperating at East Weymouth, saved a child from drowning Wednesday afternoon, and is now the hero of East Weymouth.

A little child had fallen in the deep, grass-tangled waters of a mill pond near the village, while at play. Her playmates were too young to go to her assistance as she drifted down beneath a bridge which crossed one end of the pond, and it seemed certain that she must drown.

Howard, who was sitting on the piazza of his cottage a short distance from the pond, heard the mother of the child scream and dashed down to the beach which borders the pond at that point.

Without stopping to divest himself of his clothing, he plunged into the water and though hampered by his clothes and the long grass, managed to reach the child as it was about to sink for the last time.

The former Lowell ball player, without assistance, managed to reach shore with his burden, and in time to save the child, which, after receiving the care of a physician recovered consciousness.

ROOSEVELT "LOST"

THE NEWSPAPERS COULD NOT LOCATE HIM

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—For twenty minutes last night Col. Roosevelt was "lost" in this city and the eastern correspondents and the members of the newspaper club were much perturbed to know what had become of him. The secret came out. Col. Roosevelt wanted a breath of fresh air before going to the reception that had been arranged in his honor. The ride came nearer to being a secret expedition than anything he has done since he left the African jungle. From the moment he was whisked away in an automobile from the shouting crowd in the station until he reached the entrance to the club he was lost to the public eye.

LOWELL COUPLE

GOT LICENSE TO MARRY AT NASHUA, N. H.

Among the marriage licenses issued by the city clerk of Nashua, N. H., yesterday, was one to Arthur E. Redmen, aged 19 years, and Amelia Gauthier, aged 19 years, both of this city.

HERMIT IS DEAD

He Has Left $15,000 in Cash

NORTH SCITUATE, Aug. 26.—Silas Litchfield, 84, for many years a recluse, was found dead yesterday with bankbooks representing $15,000 about his person.

Three days ago "Hermit" Litchfield gave his brother, Bridge Litchfield, $3000 in $5 bills.

"Hermit" Litchfield was famous for the motto that he posted up some years ago that read, "Free from water with plenty of rum." Some years ago he sent his second wife to her parental home in New York, after having refused to speak to her for a period of five years.

Mr. Litchfield ran a general country store at this place, but it was not generally believed that he had any amount of property. The bank books found in his clothing were issued from banks in different cities, including Boston.

The old man was found dead in his store yesterday afternoon by William Harney. When the medical examiner was summoned by Selectman F. B. Bailey, he stated that Litchfield had met his death from heart reaction caused by falling and hitting his head on the bed.

LOWELL AUTOISTS

Trapped by New Hampshire Cities

The police of Nashua and Manchester, N. H., are enforcing the automobile laws in a rigid manner and the drivers who operate their machines at a rate of speed faster than that provided by the law will come to grief.

Yesterday three autoists were arraigned in the Manchester police court and fined $10 and costs of $4.62. One of the trio was Albert S. Taylor of this city.

Another Lowell autoist came to grief in Nashua. Preston Landers of this city was the victim. He was fined $10.

WHEEL CAME OFF

Octave Daignault Was Dragged on Street

Octave Daignault had a narrow escape from being badly hurt at the corner of Paige and John streets shortly before 10 o'clock this morning when the nut on one of the rear wheels of the wagon which he was driving dropped off, allowing the wheel to detach itself from the wagon and precipitating him to the pavement.

The horse became frightened and started to run but the man clung to the reins and after being dragged several yards brought the horse to a standstill. The wagon was filled with barrels of swill and when the wheel came off the swill was scattered about the street.

The driver after regaining his feet stated that he had suffered no injury other than a few slight bruises.

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALVENA SPERLING, 1468 Clybourne Ave.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

For local playgoers the treat of the season is here this week at Lakeview theatre, in the shape of Eugene Walter's drama of New York life of today, "Paid in Full." Not to know of this most celebrated play of the time is to confess one's self uninformed as to the exceptional features of the American stage; not to have seen it is to be outside the three million persons who had witnessed its many performances up to the end of last season. No play ever produced in this country or abroad has the brilliant record of "Paid in Full." It will be here all this week with matinees every day at 2.30, evenings at 8.15, and one should avail himself of the opportunity to see this great play.

"Two Jolly Rovers" is the name of the "comedy perplexity" with musical interruptions that will awake to peals of almost endless laughter patrons of Lakeview theatre next week every evening as well as the matinees. When the concocters of this attempt to make all the world happy were burning the midnight oil during long weeks of preparation, they had one motto ever before them—"Make 'em laugh." Anyone who sees the performance will readily agree that they have succeeded.

THEATRE VOYONS

There are many minor details to the presentation of motion pictures that if not carefully looked after greatly hinder the fullest enjoyment of the pictures. At the Theatre Voyons, however, this is never the case, for with years of experience in the motion picture game, the most competent operators and the best equipped apparatus, the finest and most satisfactory results are sure to follow. The projecting equipment of this theatre has served as a model for many newer houses and it ranks as one of the very best equipped houses in the state not barring the big Boston houses. Then, too, the careful selection of programs means that a well balanced program is always shown and no matter how critical one's tastes are some one number will just suit them. Today's feature Dora Thorne, a pleasing dramatic story picture, finely acted and well staged.

CANOBIE LAKE THEATRE

There is a wealth of fun in "My Girl," the latest of J. W. Gorman's musical farces that is to be seen at Canobie Lake Park theatre for the week commencing Monday, August 29, and this will be clearly demonstrated when the large audiences that are expected at the Monday performances see this new care dispeller. As in all the Gorman musical plays there is a sprightly chorus of young ladies who interpret the many musical numbers with vim and abandon and who form the very pleasing frame in which a comedy of more than usual mirth is placed. The plot deals with the entanglements into which a number of the funny characters get themselves by making pretentions in spiritualism. No tinge of seriousness is allowed to enter into this real fun show and the only touch that is made upon the subject of spiritualism is in the dealing with these imposters.

The play is liberally interspersed with bright catchy music each and every number of which is a gem in itself. Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the entire week.

KILLED BY GAS

Man Found Dead in His Room

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick Joy of Skowhegan was found dead from gas poisoning in a room at a lodging house on lower Washington street in the South End today. When the room was entered Joy was found in bed. All the windows of the room had been closed tightly and the gas cock was wide open. It is believed to be a case of suicide. It is understood here that Joy, who was about 35 years of age, was a widower with two children. The children are said to be living at Augusta, Maine.

ARREST CASHIER

Said to Have Stolen Firm's Money

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—George Wenzel, who started in as a cash boy with B. Altman & Co. 26 years ago, and who has been a cashier for that firm since 1898, was arrested by Store Detective Larkin and locked up in the West Thirteenth street station, accused of stealing $15,000 of the firm's money. The specific charge against Wenzel was the theft of $111 on Aug. 15. According to Detective Larkin, Wenzel confessed not only to taking the $111, but to appropriating other sums belonging to the store which would raise the total amount of his peculations within the last year to $15,040.

Wenzel is 39 years old and is unmarried. He lives at 407 West Fifty-first street. At the age of 13 he got a job as a cash boy in the Altman store down-town. His rise was rapid. When he became a cashier his salary was raised to $30 a week. In the uptown store Detective Larkin and Wenzel grew to be good friends. The store detective as he passed Wenzel's desk would occasionally say: "Well, old man, I'll get you yet."

The cashier would invariably raise his head from his books and reply, with a smile: "Yes, I guess you will. But not today."

Wenzel said that years ago he was tempted and fell. He needed a little extra money to meet an unexpected emergency. He had not saved anything out of his salary, having long since drifted into ways of living for which $30 a week proved inadequate. So he took a little of the firm's money—just enough to tide him over. By and by he took a little more to cover up his first theft. And so it went on until he had diverted the whole $15,000. He merely abstracted money orders and checks from the mail, which he cashed in his own name, and then juggled the books to conceal the abstractions.

When the time for his vacation came around Wenzel was afraid to leave, fearing that in his absence his substitute would learn the truth. His announcement that he would stick to the job aroused some suspicion and led to an investigation which disclosed the thefts. Wenzel was called to the office, where he broke down and confessed. The only excuse he had to offer was that he had been a good fellow and had been played for a good thing.

Wenzel asked for a chance to raise the money from his friends and make restitution and got it. He scoured the town, but none of those he had regarded as his friends would help him. Finally he appeared to the proprietor of an uptown cafe where he had spent most of his pilferings. The proprietor not only refused to make him a loan, but disclaimed all knowledge of him, saying that he had never seen Wenzel before. All that remained after that was to submit to arrest.

MAYOR FITZGERALD

TO TAKE STUMP IN WESTERN PART OF STATE

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Chairman Macleod of the democratic state committee accompanied by a number of his active lieutenants, will leave Boston at 10 a. m. tomorrow for a political visit to Hampden and Hampshire counties, where they will hold a number of meetings and confer with members of the state and city committees of that section in the interest of a more thorough organization for the fall campaign.

At Springfield, immediately after their arrival Saturday, the party will hold a reception. In the evening they will go by automobile to Westfield, Chicopee and Northampton. Sunday will be spent in Holyoke, with a mass meeting at 2 p. m. Among the speakers at this and four other meetings arranged for will be Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston.

Besides Chairman Macleod, the party will include Chairman McDonald of the executive committee of the state committee, Chairman Maynard of the Boston city committee, and Representatives Riley of Malden, Parks of Fall River, Shaw, Callahan and O'Brien of Boston, Dean of Wakefield, Carmody of Worcester and Cummings of Pittsfield.

The mayor yesterday said he indorsed all that had been said about Gen. Charles H. Taylor as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, but he said nothing to indicate that he would pull out of the fight to allow Gen. Taylor's nomination.

MATRIMONIAL

M. Albert L. O'Malley and Miss Anna V. McMahon were married yesterday morning by Rev. A. P. Wedge, pastor of the Worthen street Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. O'Malley left on a honeymoon through Maine.

ROWAN—JARDINE

Mr. James A. Rowan of Barre, Vt., formerly a resident of this city and well-known here, and Miss Jessie E. Jardine of Blackburn, England, were married last evening at 6.30 o'clock by Rev. James M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at his residence, 3 Belmont street. The wedding, though private, was a very pretty one. The little flower girl was Miss Margaret Holgate, while the best man was Dr. Robert Holgate and the bridemaid Miss Harriet Elizabeth Bowden. All are of this city. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Rowan will make their home in Barre, Vermont.

TOMPKINS—COOKIN

The marriage of Mr. Frederick Tompkins and Miss Mary Cookin took place at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the Immaculate Conception parochial residence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lawrence J. Tighe, O. M. I. The bridemaid was Miss Alice Cookin, a sister of the bride, and the best man Mr. Frederick Sullivan, cousin of the groom. The bride was attired in a gown of ivory silk and duchess lace and wore a white picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridemaid wore a dress of pink silk with lace trimmings, a picture hat, and carried pink roses. After the marriage ceremony a reception to the immediate relatives of the bridal party was held at the home of the bride's mother at 824 Rogers street. The ushers were Mr. John J. Gookin, Mr. Charles Boutilier, Mr. Thomas Kelley and Mr. Thomas Ward of Ayer. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts. Amid showers of confetti Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins departed on the 9.45 train on a wedding trip.

NEW ECZEMA REMEDY

Stops Itching At Once

The new remedy Cadum has astonished the medical world. Many cures of eczema and other distressing skin diseases are reported, and the remarkable feature in most cases is the quickness of the cure. Eczema is not a blood disease, but a skin affection. It cannot be cured by internal medicines. External treatment is absolutely necessary. Since the introduction of Cadum eczema is now recognized as a curable disease, and that tormenting affliction has been robbed of its terrors. Cadum stops the itching at once and begins the healing process with the first application. It destroys disease germs, allays inflammation and is soothing and healing to the skin. From the moment it is applied to any skin trouble immediate relief is felt. It is for pimples, blotches, hives, tetter, itch, acne, herpes, scaly skin, psoriasis, rash, chafings, eruptions, sores, scurvy, scabs, blackheads, itching piles, etc. Trial box 10c; large box 25c; all druggists.

BASEBALL AT NIGHT

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—C. A. Comiskey's recently installed lights received their first real tryout at the American league grounds last night when the Illinois Athletic club and Calumet Lacrosse teams battled for over two hours in a fast match in the glare of over one million candlepower of light which constitutes a portion of the light plant that will give Chicago night baseball in the near future. The plant proved itself equal to the occasion for the test held up to what was expected.

The Illinois A. C. won the game 11 to 10. At no time during the eighty minutes of play did the players find it hard to follow the ball but the game proved as fast and as interesting as if it had been played in broad daylight. No complaint was heard from the players and with the roof lights uncovered the contestants were in no way bothered by the force of the lamps.

The cottage in the rear which has been built within five years, has six rooms, and bath with hot and cold water, open plumbing and gas. All the buildings are in first class repair inside and out, the two-tenement houses being remodeled a few years ago, and the cottage in the rear practically new. The property is all rented to a first-class lot of tenants, most of them living there since it was remodeled, and brings in a yearly rental of about $850. The lot has a good frontage on High street and an area of about 8015 sq. ft. The yard is all concreted and the lot is all fenced in. Now then, this property is located in a very central part of Belvidere, it being the second property on High street from East Merrimack street, bringing it less than five minutes' walk to Merrimack square and the many industries located in that vicinity. I consider it one of the best pieces of realty that has been offered at public auction this season; for it has all the essential qualities which go to make up a good piece of realty, offering you as it does, about 8015 square feet of land with three substantial buildings, in first class condition, in an excellent location and bringing in a steady income of about $850 a year. It is a proposition worthy of your careful consideration: look it up. A good, liberal mortgage can be had at 5 per cent. Terms, $650 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as the property is struck off.

SECOND PARCEL AT 3 O'CLOCK

AT 137 FAYETTE STREET, A THREE TENEMENT HOUSE WITH STORE AND ABOUT 1574 SQUARE FEET OF LAND

On the first floor is a store with two rooms in the rear, and a tenement of five rooms; on the second floor are two tenements, one five and one of six rooms. There are toilets on each floor, and the house is in good condition. The tenements are occupied by a lot of good tenants and bring in a yearly rental of about $455. The lot has a good frontage on Fayette street and has an area of about 1574 square feet. Now here is a proposition which should command the attention of the speculator, for it is bound to pay a large revenue on the amount invested.

TERMS—$250 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

THIRD PARCEL AT 3.30 O'CLOCK

AT NOS. 28, 30 AND 32 CHESTNUT STREET, CONSISTING OF A FIVE TENEMENT BLOCK AND ABOUT 2712 SQUARE FEET OF LAND.

The block consists of two tenements of nine rooms, bath and back shed with each tenement, and two tenements of four rooms and bath with each tenement, and one tenement of four rooms. This property is in excellent shape inside and out, has all open plumbing and is occupied by a very nice lot of tenants and brings in a yearly rental of about $690. The lot has a good frontage on Chestnut street and an area of about 2712 square feet and is all concreted. The property is located about half way between High and Fayette streets on Chestnut street and is within five minutes' walk of many large industries.

TERMS—$400 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

Now the above three parcels will be offered for sale on the day and hour advertised on their several premises, regardless of any conditions of the weather. They are located in a central part of Belvidere and have always been rented and have paid me a large percentage on the investment, but I recently purchased some land in Revere and am about to erect a hotel there. For this reason I have placed the above properties in the hands of the auctioneer.

Make all inquiries of the auctioneer, whom I have left in full charge.

By Order of NATHAN A. CARP.

Tomorrow Afternoon at 4 O'Clock

TWO-TENEMENT HOUSE WITH SLATED ROOF AND ABOUT 2475 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT NO. 39 AND 41 UNION STREET.

On the premises regardless of any conditions of the weather I shall offer for sale my two-tenement house and about 2475 sq. ft. of land, at Nos. 39 and 41 Union street. There are eight rooms with each tenement and the house is in very good condition inside and out. It is lighted by gas, and each tenement has separate front and back doors, cellars and toilet. It rents for about $312 a year and tenements in this locality always rent well. The lot has a large frontage on Union street and an area of about 2475 sq. ft. with right of way to the centre of a passageway that must be forever kept open. There is a large elevated piazza in the rear for the drying of clothes. The property is located on Union street about half way between Gorham and Central streets, which brings it within 10 minutes' walk from many large industries in this section of the city. Now then, I think a two-tenement house of this kind is one of the very best investments for a man of moderate means, as he can occupy one tenement and have the income of the other.

Terms: $300 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

By order of MARY E. BOYLE.

Tomorrow Afternoon at 4.30 O'Clock

HEIRS' SALE OF THE DOLAN PROPERTY AT 148 LAKEVIEW AVE., CONSISTING OF A COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT 2325 SQ. FT. OF LAND.

The heirs of the above estate have placed with me this five-room cottage and about 2325 sq. ft. of land to be disposed of on the premises on the day and hour advertised. The cottage which has five rooms is in fair condition inside and out. The lot has a good frontage on Lakeview avenue with an area of 2325 sq. ft. which gives quite a nice yard in the rear. Now this is a good proposition for a man with a small family or for the speculator who would like to improve, as there is ample room in the rear for improvements. This property is located on Lakeview avenue about opposite Coburn street, and this part of the avenue is a very busy thoroughfare.

Terms: $150 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

C. F. KEYES in charge for the heirs.

THE WEATHER

Fair and much cooler tonight; probably preceded by showers; Saturday, fair and cool; moderate to brisk westerly winds.

A Close Game Played at Spalding Park Today

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
LOWELL - -	0	0	0	1	2	0	0	0	x	--- 3

One thousand fans witnessed the game between Lowell and Lynn at Spalding park this afternoon, the good work of the Grays of late being accountable for the large attendance. Wolfgang was to have pitched for Lowell, but when the management learned that Abbot was to do the twirling for the visitors Tyler was placed on the slab for the home team.

The double umpire system was used, Tom Duffy doing the honors when it came to balls and strikes, while Mike O'Brien was the decision maker on the bases.

There were a number of Lynn fans present, including Beckwith, better known as "Clara" the photographer and artist of the Lynn Item.

The game between Lowell and Lynn tomorrow will be played at Lynn instead of Lowell. Prior to the game it was announced that Lowell and Lawrence would play a double header in this city Labor day afternoon.

The game was called at 3 o'clock, the batting order of the teams being as follows:

Lowell	Lynn
Blakely, cf	lf, Coulter
Fitzpatrick, 2b	ss, Cargo
Cooney, ss	ss, Cargo
Magee, lf	1b, Daum
Tenney, 1b	2b, Logan
Fluharty, rf	rf, Metz
Boultes, 3b	c, Monahan
Sullivan, c	3b, Burg
Tyler, p	p, Abbott

First Inning

Coulter was the first man to bat and he was retired on strikes. Cargo singled to centre field and Wallace followed with a fly to Fluharty. Cargo stole second but Daum hit to Boultes and was out at first.

In the latter half of the inning Blakely flied to Abbott. Fitz singled to left but was nailed while trying to purloin second. Cooney was third out on a fly to Coulter.

Score—Lowell 0, Lynn 0.

Second Inning

In the second inning Logan singled but was forced out when Metz hit to Fitz. Monahan flied to Fitz and Metz later stole second. Tyler threw to second to get Metz, but threw bad and Metz went to third. Magee prevented the visitors from scoring a run by catching a fly off Burg's bat.

Magee hit a line drive which Cargo gathered in. Tenney flied to Logan, and Fluharty followed with a single to right garden. Boultes was third out, Long to Daum.

Score—Lowell 0, Lynn 0.

Third Inning

The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the third inning. Abbott flied to Fluharty, Coulter hit to Cooney and died at first and Cargo hit to Tenney and was out at first, Tyler covering the base.

Sullivan flied to Burg, Tyler sent a grounder to Logan and died at first while Blakely foul flied to Monahan.

Score—Lowell 0, Lynn 0.

Fourth Inning

The fourth inning proved to be a bad one for the home team, the visitors scoring two runs. Wallace opened with a free pass. Daum then hunted in front of the plate and Sullivan in running for the ball booted it and then threw to first, but the runner reached the base before the ball and was safe. Logan bunted to Boultes but beat the ball to first and the bases were filled. Metz struck out. Monahan hit in front of the plate and Wallace started for home. Tyler ran for the ball but fell down and Wallace and Daum scored.

Burg bunted to Tenney while Logan came home, but Duffy called it a foul strike for stepping out of the box and Logan was sent back to third. There was a big kick on the part of the Lynn players but the decision stood. Abbott hit to Cooney and was out at first.

Lowell scored one run in the latter half of the inning. Fitz flied to Cargo and Cooney followed with a three bagger to the centre field fence. Magee scored Cooney on a single to centre field. Tenney hit to Cargo who tagged second and then sent the ball to first for a double play.

Score—Lowell 1, Lynn 2.

Fifth Inning

Coulter struck out and Cargo hit to Cooney and was out at first. Wallace hit a hot one to Tyler and was third out.

There was great excitement in the latter half of the fifth inning when Lowell forged to the front by scoring two runs. Fluharty opened with a single and Boultes bunted and beat the ball to first. Both men were advanced on Sullivan's sacrifice. Tyler with three balls and two strikes sent the ball to right field for a Texas leaguer and Fluharty and Boultes scored. Blakely hit a hot grounder to Logan who threw to Cargo getting Tyler and the ball was sent to first for a double play.

Score—Lowell 3, Lynn 2.

Sixth Inning

In the sixth inning Daum hit to Cooney and was retired at first. Logan foul flied to Sullivan and Metz followed with a base on balls but Monahan fanned the breezes and was third out.

Fitz, Cooney and Magee hit grounders to Cargo and were retired at first.

Score—Lowell 3, Lynn 2.

Seventh Inning

Burg struck out, Abbott flied to Fluharty and Coultier flied to Blakely.

Tenney hunted down the first base line and beat the ball out for a single and went to second on Fluharty's sacrifice. Boultes drew a free pass, but Sullivan flied to Burg and Tyler flied to Metz.

Eighth Inning

Cargo flied to Fluharty and Wallace struck out. Daum flied to Blakely.

Blakely hit to Logan and died at first. Fitz flied out to Metz who made a pretty running catch. Cooney hit to Cargo who threw away over to the bleachers and Cooney went to third on the error. Magee flied to Cargo.

Score—Lowell 3, Lynn 2.

Ninth Inning

Logan flied to Tenney. Busick went to bat for Metz and drew a base on balls. Monahan flied to Sullivan. Burg got a single to right field. Manning went to bat for Abbott. A wild pitch sent Busick to third and Burg to second. Manning struck out.

Score—Lowell 3, Lynn 2.
Hits—Lowell 8, Lynn 4.
Errors—Lowell 2, Lynn 1.

FIVE MEN ARRESTED

They Attempted to Rob a Train in Iowa

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug 26.—Eight men attempted to rob the Iowa Central passenger train south-bound from Minneapolis, near Northwood, early today. Members of the train crew succeeded in placing five of the men under arrest and they are held at Northwood.

WRIGHT CAUGHT

Known as the "Literary Burglar"

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—George Wright, known to the police as "the literary burglar," was caught today but not until his captor had fired several shots at him to bring him to a stop. Wright had a penchant for note writing and his victims always found either sympathetic or sarcastic missives after his departure. He was caught on a railroad bridge in the Bronx today and when a policeman approached him drew a revolver and fired. A pistol duel followed and Wright was captured.

NATIONAL CAR

Won the Auto Race at Elgin

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 26.—In one of the prettiest automobile road races ever run, A. E. Livingston at the wheel of a National, car today won the Illinois trophy. He averaged 60.6 miles an hour for the distance of 203.35 miles.

Livingston took the lead from his seven competitors at the ninth mile and held it throughout. He was two laps ahead of Greiner, who drove another National. Dawson drove a Marmon consistently, but finished a lap behind.

TRIP TO NASHUA

WILL BE SOURCE OF MUCH INCONVENIENCE

The closing of the Hudson bridge will inconvenience travel between this city and Nashua and unless one hires a boat or takes his life in his hands by walking over the railroad bridge the trolley will have to be abandoned for the time being. This will mean an increase of travel for the steam road.

WATER DEPARTMENT BUSY

The water department is busy in Walker street and Western avenue. The work being done by the water department in these two streets is preparatory to the grade crossing work which will be in full blast in a few days.

QUITS PULPIT FOR STAGE

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Instead of facing a congregation in Woodlawn Sunday the Rev. Dudley C. Fosher, for three years pastor of the Ryder Memorial Universalist church, at Sixty-fourth street and Kimbark avenue, will appear in a theatre at Racine, Wis., as an actor in a touring company playing "Stubborn Cinderella."

The clergyman did not state what his reasons were for wanting to resign, except that his salary of $1200 was too low, and many of his flock did not know today that the man to whom they had listened many a Sunday in the pulpit of their church had "gone on the stage."

WILL SHUT DOWN

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 26.—The Valley Worsted mill, the only mill of the American Woolen Co. in Olneyville manufacturing yarn exclusively, closed today for an indefinite period. Lack of demand for its product is the cause. The mill employs about 300 operatives.

WEDDED AT LAST

Two Young People Tried to Get Married Here

Alexander C. Hooper and Gladys B. Reynolds, who eloped from Lynn and whose attempt to get married in this city was frustrated by their parents, succeeded in getting married in Derry, N. H., by Justice of the Peace Fred M. Moore, Wednesday.

They registered, he as 18 years and she as 17. As they were of legal age the town clerk could do no less than to furnish them with the certificate.

After procuring the document they then went to the office of Mr. Moore and were legally united in the marriage relations.

After the ceremony had been performed they jokingly related their experience in trying to get married and told the people in the office that they had arranged to get married in Lowell, but that their parents had learned of their plot and had followed them to that city and stopped the proceedings.

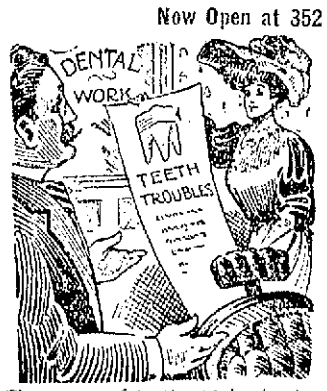

They said they kept their own counsel and in due time started out together for New Hampshire. Thinking that Derry was a convenient place, they alighted there and after a brief inquiry soon carried out their plans. They said they were bound to get married, so it was no use for their parents to try to stop them.

He registered as a clerk, and as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hooper, of Swampscott, Mass. She as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Reynolds, of Lynn, Mass.

They went to the postoffice in Derry, bought some postals and with the souvenir postals they got in the book store, wrote a number to their friends, telling them that "it was all over." They then got their luncheon and soon after took the south bound train for their honeymoon.

PROPHYLACTIC SYSTEM OF DENTISTRY

Now Open at 352 Merrimack Street

Prophylactic or Preventive Dentistry is fast becoming more widely understood and practised by those who stand highest in the dental profession. The mouth is the gateway to the entire digestive tract. NASHUA WOMAN

Did Not Want Daughter to Wed

A woman who said she came from Nashua was a little late in arriving at the office of the city clerk at city hall yesterday afternoon, to accomplish what she had in mind. She was all out of breath when she arrived at city hall and she quickly made known her mission. Her daughter and a young man had left the hall just a few minutes before her arrival and had taken with them a marriage license. That was where the shoe pinched. The woman from Nashua didn't want her daughter to marry the young man in question and she left the hall in a very disturbed state of mind. She did not show up at the hall again and it is not known if she succeeded in frustrating the plans of the daughter and her ardent lover.

FOR A NEW PUMP

Bids Called for on Specifications by Water Board

Six of the Biggest Pump Concerns in the Country Will be Asked to Bid on the Pump Contracts

The water board met last night and, pursuant to the request of the mayor the board of aldermen, voted to call for bids for a pumping engine for the Centralville pumping station, before the money for the pump has been appropriated.

The request made by the mayor and board of aldermen was not in any way mandatory, but the water board decided that if compliance with the request would hasten definite action on the pump, for the matter had been hanging fire for months, it was up to the board to do it.

In the first place the water board asked for $75,000 for a pump. The matter was referred to the committee on appropriations and the committee voted to recommend the sum of $60,000. The matter went back to the board of aldermen and, on suggestion of Alderman Carmichael, was recommitted to the appropriations committee with the further suggestion that the committee ask the opinion of the city solicitor as to the legality of calling for bids for the pump before the money for the same was appropriated.

The city solicitor's reply to the communication, from the appropriations

WAS NEARLY DROWNED

Ex-Alderman Daly Was Saved by His Brother

Was Struck by Boat and Sank Unconscious—His Brother Dove in and Rescued Him—His Arm Numb From Nervous Shock

Ex-Alderman John W. Daly, the noted athlete and swimmer had a narrow escape from drowning at Revere Monday afternoon, and but for the heroic efforts of his brother Chris Daly would have succumbed.

Since he announced his determination to swim from Boston to Boston Light, Mr. Daly has been enjoying his vacation at Revere beach, taking long swims daily including the celebrated stunt of swimming from Revere beach to Nahant.

JOHN W. DALY

On the afternoon in question Mr. Daly was out for his usual swim and his brother and William Dugan of this city followed him in a row boat. The water was exceedingly rough, a strong wind blowing. After he had been in the water for two hours and out a great distance, Mr. Daly became thirsty and called to his brother for water. The men in the boat drew near to give him a drink and as they got close to him the wind caused the bow of the boat to swing about suddenly striking the swimmer with terrific force behind the ear.

The force of the blow rendered him unconscious and he immediately sank. Mr. Chris Daly becoming alarmed at the suddenness with which his brother went down, without waiting to remove his clothes dove in after him and brought him to the surface. He was pulled into the boat in an unconscious condition and all haste was made to get him to the shore where a physician was hastily summoned.

He regained consciousness in a short time, but felt a numbness in his arm. The physician attributes the condition of the arm to a nervous shock as the result of the blow and doubts if Mr. Daly will be able to do any strenuous swimming stunts for some time to come. The party will return to Lowell before the end of the week.

COL. ROOSEVELT

TO HEAD THE DELEGATION FROM NASSAU COUNTY

MINEOLA, L. I., Aug. 26.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will be chosen as a delegate from Nassau county to the republican state convention, leaders say here today. It is further proposed that the colonel head the delegation from Nassau.

MILLS TO CURTAIL

FITCHBURG, Aug. 26.—The Parkhill gingham mills here will be closed from Sept. 3 until Sept. 10. The weave rooms of the Parkhill mills have been running five days weekly since July 1. Several other local textile plants are also curtailing the output.

INCREASED POPULATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The population of Saginaw, Mich., is 50,510, an increase of 8165, or 19.3 per cent as compared with 42,345 in 1900.

BILL FOR $4200

Has Not Been Paid by the City As Yet

That $4200 bill owed the Massachusetts Home for the Feeble Minded by the city of Lowell has not been paid. The board of charities has asked City Solicitor Duncan if it would be legal to pay the bill out of the board's appropriation for 1910, in view of the fact that no money was appropriated for that specific purpose. It is not mentioned in the estimate of expenditures of the board for the current year.

The ordinance providing for estimates for appropriations and for other purposes reads, in part, as follows:

Section 1—At the beginning of each municipal year and not later than the third Tuesday in January the mayor shall make and transmit to the city council an estimate of the expenditures required for the year. Such estimate shall be framed and itemized as to show separately

Par. 2—The amounts required by each department, office, board, commission or other sub-division of the executive branch of the government, and so far as may be practicable for the subdivision of the work of each department.

Par. 4—Such estimates shall be in such form as to show in parallel columns, opposite each item, the amount paid for the previous year, and the amount unexpended at the close of such year.

Section 3—All regular annual appropriations shall be for and only applicable to the liabilities incurred during the year in which they are made, any form of phraseology in the order, resolution or vote providing for the same, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Turning to charter amendments, acts of 1895, chapter 415, the following is noted:

Section 8—No sum appropriated for a specific purpose shall be expended for any other purpose; and no expenditure shall be made and no liability shall be incurred by or on behalf of the city unless the city council has duly voted an appropriation sufficient to meet such expenditure or liability, together with all prior unpaid liabilities which are payable therefrom, except that after the expiration of the financial year and before the making of the annual appropriations, liabilities payable out of the regular appropriations may be incurred to an amount not exceeding one-sixth of the total appropriation made for similar purposes in the preceding year, etc.

In view of the fact that no provision was made for the payment of the $4200 bill in question in the estimate of expenditures required for the year, it would seem from what is quoted here that it was up to the board of charities to seek the advice of the city solicitor before paying the bill out of its present appropriation.

The city solicitor has not yet returned from his vacation and when he does he will undoubtedly give this matter his immediate attention.

FOR A NEW PUMP

Continued

committee asking for an opinion was to the effect that it would be legal for the city water board to call for bids before the money was appropriated providing there was no expense attached to the call.

The appropriations committee then sent a communication to the water board asking the board to call for the bids and the board replied to the committee stating that the board deemed it inexpedient to call for bids before the money had been appropriated.

That was all that was heard of the pump question until Alderman Gray came out with the statement to the effect that the water board had replied to the committee on appropriations when it should have replied to the board of aldermen. The water board, in reply to Alderman Gray's statement, gave copies of the committee's letter to the board and the board's letter to the committee and that, of course, proved plainly that Alderman Gray was in the wrong, for up to that time the board of aldermen had not taken the matter up with the water board.

When Alderman Gray found that it was his turn to move, a resolution was introduced in the board of aldermen, requesting the water board to call for bids. The mayor signed the resolution or request, and the board at its meeting last night voted to call for bids. The call, copies of which will be sent to the six largest pump concerns in the country, reads as follows:

Proposals for pumping engine.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Lowell water board, Lowell, Mass., until 2 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 27, 1910, for the construction, delivery and erection, complete, ready for use, for vertical triple expansion crank and fly wheel pumping engine of 8,000,000 gallons capacity, for the city of Lowell, Mass.

The proposed engine is to be located at the pumping station now in use by the city on West Sixth street and known as the Centralville pumping station. The supply of water is to be drawn from pump well now in use, through a pipe 30 inches in diameter. Capacity of pump well 85,000 gallons.

The water is pumped into a force main 24 inches in diameter, extending from the engine house to existing reservoir, where it will discharge over weir now in use, the total length of pipe being approximately 2675 feet. The steam pressure available at the boiler is 125 pounds. The various elevations concerned in the work, measured above the city datum plane, are as follows:

Engine room floor	37.5 feet
Boiler room floor	32.5 feet
Pump well, high water mark	31 feet
Pump well, low water mark	19.5 feet
Pump well floor	15.5 feet
High water reservoir	182 feet
Low water weir at reservoir	181 feet

Datum, 35 feet below top of Pawtucket dam.

The proposed pumping engine to be self contained, requiring no foundations excepting under pump chambers, and to include and have attached thereto a surface condenser, air pump and boiler feed pump of sufficient capacity, also steam throttle valve and all piping excepting the main steam, free and suction pipes.

The bidder is to furnish, in connection with his proposal, a full description of the engine, together with drawings illustrating the same, a photograph or perspective, showing its general appearance when erected and in operation, and drawings of the foundation. He is also to furnish a complete set of specifications in detail, giving the kind and quality of the material of which the various parts are to be composed, the sizes and strength of the principal working parts subjected to strain, and the manner in which they are constructed, so as to furnish a clear understanding of all points regarding the workmanship, strength, durability and general efficiency of the whole mechanism. He is also to state the working pressure of the engine, and speed of the pumps, when working at their rate capacity, and he is to specify in detail the various appurtenances which are to be supplied in order to fully equip the engine for its work, giving the name of the manufacturer of all parts not made by himself, and the time of completion of the contract. Furthermore, he is to guarantee the amount of continuous duty which the engine will perform, the said duty to be at least 160,000,000 foot pounds, on 1000 pounds of steam, and the amount of slips of the pumps. These various descriptions, specifications, drawings and guarantees are to form a part of the contract.

It is desired that the engine and its full equipment shall be complete in every respect, and that in the matter of material, workmanship and construction, it will conform to the best practice. The bid is to cover the cost of furnishing all the materials and doing all the work required in the construction and erection of the complete engine above the foundations.

The engine is to be capable of delivering from the pump well to the reservoir 8,000,000 United States gallons in 24 hours, through the 2675 feet of 24-inch pipe already named in regular service, and further, it must be capable of working to 20 per cent. higher capacity without undue strain or injury to the mechanism.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or cashier's check, upon a national bank of the city of Lowell or Boston, payable to the order of the treasurer of the city of Lowell, for the sum of $1000, said check to be returned to the bidder in case his proposal is not accepted. The party whose bid is accepted will be required to execute the contract of the form on file in the water works' office within 10 days from the time of notification of such acceptance, and in such case of failure or neglect so to do, the check accompanying the proposal will be forfeited to the city of Lowell. The party to whom the contract is awarded will be required to furnish a bond for the faithful performance of the work, in such sum as shall be fixed by the water board, this sum to be not less than 50 per cent. of the contract price. The bond must be signed by two or more sureties, who are residents of the state of Massachusetts, and satisfactory to the water board.

No bids will be considered for others than a vertical triple expansion crank and fly-wheel engine, nor from other than the regular pump manufacturers. Bids shall be addressed to the President of the Lowell water board, and marked, "Proposals for Pumping Engine."

The water board reserves the right to reject any and all bids, should they deem it for the interest of the city of Lowell so to do.

These proposals are invited pursuant to a resolution of the mayor and board of aldermen of the city of Lowell, as follows:

City of Lowell
In board of aldermen.

Resolution requesting water board to procure competitive bids for new pump. Resolved by the board of aldermen of the city of Lowell, assembled, as follows: That the water board be and it is hereby requested to procure competitive bids for a new pump for Centralville pumping station, so that an accurate estimate of its cost may be obtained.

In board of aldermen, Aug. 9, 1910.
Approved Aug. 19, 1910.
John F. Meehan, Mayor.

Copies of the call will be sent the following companies:

160 LIVES LOST

Men Perished in the Disastrous Forest Fires

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 26.—Following is a revised list of the number killed in the Idaho, Montana and Washington forest fires last Saturday and Sunday.

United States forest employees, Idaho and Montana, 100.

Settlers and fire-fighters, St. Joe Valley, Idaho, 50.

Settlers at Newport, Washington, 4.

At Wallace, Idaho, 3.

At Mullan and Spokane, 3.

Total 160.

The Missoula forest officials' list of 79 dead forest employees omits 31 killed at the Bullion mine, Montana, and on the big fork of the Coeur d'Alene.

Missing:

Negro soldiers near Avery, Idaho, 4.

Ranger Holms' party, headwaters of St. Joe, 15.

Forest employees in St. Joe valley, 25.

Reports received today by Supervisor Weigl at Wallace concerning the number of dead forest employees did not agree with that obtained at Missoula. The reports to Wallace, that of Ranger Hollingshead's sixty men on Big creek, 14 bodies have been found and the other men are missing.

Of sixty men on Setser creek 48 bodies have been found and five men are missing. These sixty two deaths of forest employees added to the 21 deaths at the Bullion mine and on the big fork of the Coeur d'Alene and the deaths in Montana and various creeks would bring the total number of deaths in the service up to 100.

SIBLEY WAIVES HEARING

WARREN, Pa., Aug. 26.—Waiving a hearing on informations charging them with conspiring to debauch the electors of Warren county, Joseph C. Sibley who recently resigned as candidate for congress on the republican ticket in the twenty-eighth congressional district of this state, Frank R. Taylor of Franklin; Charles Crandall, George B. Munn and D. M. Howard of this county were held for court trial here today by Justice of the Peace Peary. All the defendants were present except Mr. Sibley, who, according to physicians' certificate, was confined to his home in Franklin with acute heart trouble.

It had been previously stated that the defense would attempt to have quashed the informations containing the erroneous date of the primaries but this was not done.

Each of the defendants was released on his own recognizance to get bail in the sum of $1000.

FIVE MEN KILLED

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 26.—Five men were killed and one badly injured when two heavily-loaded freights on the Diver route division of the Missouri Pacific road collided near Blackwater, about sixty five miles west of here today.

KING ARRESTED

He Made a Dashing Figure in Paris

PARIS, Aug. 26.—Instead of going to Rome, by the king's favor, to be an instructor of the pretty Italian princess, young Oswin King, the dashing American, who rose from a skating rink job to be the friend of Paris nobility, departed for Switzerland yesterday as a prisoner, charged with fraud and forgery.

King claims to be a son of a former governor of Texas, but if he is, he has changed his name, for no man of that appellation has ever been governor of the Lone Star state.

He was arrested in the Place de l'Opera on requisition from the Swiss government. It is said the specific charge is the swindling of a Swiss hotel keeper by means of forged checks.

The handsome young fellow appeared in Paris last year and for a time spent money freely. After a few months he obtained a position as skating instructor at the Palais de Glace, where he taught a number of young American girls of noted families.

Gentleman of Means

He always refused tips, and posed as a gentleman of means, who had taken up skating work for fun. He was received in many of the best houses of the American colony, and a few weeks ago announced his engagement to one of the two Countesses Bylandt. The lady made no denial of the betrothal, but it is said that her friends made far-reaching inquiries as to King's standing in America.

Meanwhile the young man was off to Switzerland on the trip which has proved his downfall. One of his traveling companions was a member of the royal court set in Italy, and he procured for King an engagement to go to Rome and teach the princesses to skate.

King was to present himself at the Quirinal on Sept. 15, where, after giving instructions during the winter, he was to go with the princesses and their suite to Nice.

The airy self assurance of the young man in the matter of love affairs is thought to have been the immediate cause of his falling into the hands of the police.

Weeps When Arrested

Before his departure for Switzerland he said:

"I may go back to my father's ranch in Texas next April, and I expect to take with me as my bride one of the titled ladies of Europe. Just which one I am not at liberty to say. Indeed, I have not yet made a definite choice."

This speech is said to have aroused the anger of certain titled ladies who had befriended the young man, and one of them is supposed to have given the police information regarding his return to Paris.

There was a scene in the Place de l'Opera when he was taken into custody. King wept and fell on his knees, begging the detectives to let him go. By the time he had reached headquarters he had become calm. He asked for an interpreter and then said that everything would be squared, because his father occupied a high position in Texas. He was locked up. Later the Swiss detectives arrived with extradition papers and took him away.

DR. MADRIZ MUST LEAVE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Honduras officially has invited Dr. Madriz, the deposed president of the Nicaraguan government at Managua, to move on. This information was received at the state department today from its diplomatic representatives. It accounts for the announcement that Madriz who fled from Nicaragua to Amapala on the little Honduran island just beyond the Nicaraguan border is to leave Monday for Mexico. The request of Honduras is based on the Washington convention with Central American republics by which the leaders of a faction in one country is forbidden refuge in another.

STRIKER KILLED

And Another's Skull Was Fractured

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 26.—During a battle today between a detail of state police and strikers at the Old Forge colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal Co., near here, one striker was killed, another's skull was fractured and several were seriously hurt. Thirty-eight men were arrested.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Despatches to R. G. Dun & Co. indicate some slight improvement in general trade and fall business is opening up well as a rule. Merchandise markets in Boston are quiet in all branches as far as new business is concerned but there are indications of increased activities early next month. Drygoods jobbing houses report an improving trade in fall goods and retailers now show less conservation in their operations. Wool is very quiet but there is a firmer tone in cotton goods, although business shows little increase.

Bank exchanges this week at all leading cities in the United States aggregated $2,204,157,897, a loss of 20.2 per cent. compared with last year.

NO OPPOSITION

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The granting of a certificate of exigency to the Hampden railroad for a proposed line in western Massachusetts will not be opposed by Grand Trunk railroad system, according to a statement today by First Vice-President Fitzhugh of the latter company.

The Hampden line as outlined by its petitioners will occupy a strategic position between the Grand Trunk and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad.

CONGRESS OF SAILORS

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 26.—Delegates from all the seamen's unions from America and Europe represented here the international congress of sailors and American marine firemen in session here, with the exception of the French association, agreed today to declare an international strike unless the shipowners of every country concerned agree to the formation of a board of conciliation to deal with the grievances of the men. The proposal for the strike has been the subject of heated discussions, the delegates of several of the continental countries having opposed the suggestion of the British union for a strike.

The date of the threatened strike will be known only to the leaders of the international congress who are pledged to secrecy. It is expected that the full convention will approve the strike resolution when it is laid before them for formal action.

TO INTERVIEW KING

MADRID, Aug. 26.—Mgr. Vicco, the papal nuncio at the Spanish court, today applied for an interview with King Alfonso. No statement of the purpose of the interview is made but it is suggested that the representative of the Vatican desires to take up personally with the king the subjects of the conflict between the Spanish government and the Vatican.

MISS ELKINS TO WED

PARIS, Aug. 26.—Special despatches from Italy insist that the marriage of Miss Katherine Elkins to the Duke of the Abruzzi in spite of all denials has been decided upon and that Senator Elkins and the affianced couple will soon arrive in Paris to arrange the details of the wedding.

Both the queen-mother of Italy and King Victor Emmanuel have, according to these reports, given their consent to the wedding.

WOMAN RESCUED

Man and His Fiancee Drowned

NEW PRESTON, Conn., Aug. 26.—S. D. Valentina of Brooklyn, N. Y., and his fiancee, Miss Moore, who is believed also to have come from that city, were drowned in Lake Waramaug this afternoon. Mrs. Umbach, an aunt of the young woman, was rescued. The boat in which the party were out for a row, was upset.

COMPLAINT AGAINST ROAD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Refusal of the Pennsylvania and New Haven railroads to establish through rates and joint rates on coal shipped from the Allegheny field in Pennsylvania to New York and New England points via Jersey City is made the burden of a complaint filed today with the interstate commerce commission by the Bader Coal company of Boston.

OFFICERS ELECTED

THE WEIRS, N. H., Aug. 26.—J. M. Clough of New London, Conn., was elected president of the New Hampshire Veterans association at the closing session of the annual reunion of the organization here today. The other officers chosen were as follows: Vice-president, D. E. Proctor, Wilton; secretary, Nat Shackford, The Weirs; treasurer, D. W. King, Nashua.

THE REED MONUMENT

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 26.—President Taft is not expected by the officers of the Reed Memorial association to be present next Wednesday at the unveiling of the monument erected to the memory of the late congressman, Thomas B. Reed, it was learned today. On this account there was much disappointment. When President Taft made his trip along the Maine coast last month the Mayflower was in Casco bay overnight but the president did not come ashore. Then it was understood he undoubtedly would be present at the monument dedication and in cancelling the most of his appointments for August he had reserved the Portland date. The reason for the change in plans is not known here.

A TELEPHONE ALARM

A telephone alarm at 1.10 o'clock this afternoon summoned a portion of the fire department to a blaze in a pile of rubbish in the cellar of a house which is under the course of construction at the corner of Aiken avenue and Cumberland road. The fire was extinguished before any damage was done.

PAPAL SECRETARY

TO RECEIVE THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS

ROME, Aug. 26.—Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, came to Rome today from his summer residence at the villa Monte Mario for a reception of the diplomatic corps. Among those who attended was the Marquis de Gonzales in charge of the Spanish embassy at the Vatican since the recall of the ambassador, Marquis de Odejo, whose audience was longer than usual.

It was reported that the conversation of the Spanish representative with the cardinal was cordial, although Cardinal Merry del Val confirmed the details of the last note communicated to Spain which maintains unchanged the attitude and policy of the Holy See without making a step either forward or backward. The note asserts that if Premier Canalejas maintains his position the conflict will be left in statu quo, the Spanish Catholics being left to decide between the rights of the church and the policy of the government.

Marquis de Gonzales declares that he has received no further instructions from Madrid since communicating to his government the note of the Vatican.

MAN ARRESTED

Charged With Uttering Forged Check

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 26.—A man who gave his name as John Bagley of Boise City, Idaho, but believed by the police to be Charles V. Knightley of 15 East 11th street, New York, was arrested here late last night, charged with obtaining from a local firm $700 worth of jewelry by false pretenses and with uttering a forged check for $2000 on the Toronto bank of commerce. According to the authorities Knightley is wanted in Boston and Peekskill, N. Y., for alleged foregries.

CHARLES B. HILL DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Charles Barton Hill, former assistant professor at the Lick observatory on Mount Hamilton and a member of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, is dead at his home here. He was 47 years old.

DECREASE IN EXPORTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—A marked decrease in exports of natural products, increased exportation of manufactures and increased importation of manufacturers' materials are shown by the bureau of statistics in a statement on foreign commerce in the United States during the seven months period ending July 31, 1910.

Exports of wheat, flour, meats, cotton, illuminating oil and copper show a decline. Exports of lumber, leather, agricultural implements, lubricating oil, steel rails, naval stores, scientific matter, shoes and boots and automobiles show an increase. Imports in principal manufacturers' materials, including hides and skins, tobacco, cotton, wool, etc., show an increase, while many of the manufactures, including cotton, laces, linens, cotton cloth, books and silk here show a slight decline.

WANTED!

First class man to act as district sales manager for a western manufacturing company. Must be good salesman and capable of handling other salesmen; references required. Call 10 to 12 a. m. F. R. Muenzenberger, New American Hotel.

TRAFFIC CLOSED

Ice and Milk Supply Cut Off From Hudson

NASHUA, N. H., Aug. 26.—The bridge connecting Nashua and Hudson and spanning the Merrimack river was closed to traffic last night after the last passengers had transferred from trolley cars.

The closing of the bridge came suddenly as the result of the breaking away of a wall on the Nashua approach, where the excavations are being made for the Nashua abutment. This wall has been pushed out to one side by the pressure behind it and the contractors fear that it may push toward the river, hit the supports which are now holding the jacked up bridge and let the entire 600-foot structure into the river.

The Nashua end of the long bridge has dropped considerably and it was necessary last night to shut off the gas main running from this city to Hudson, thus putting many homes in darkness.

Supt. Anthony Morris remained at the bridge all night with two watchmen, and while teams were barred entirely Nashua people in Hudson and Hudson people in Nashua were permitted to return home with the understanding that they were crossing the bridge at their own risk. Today all traffic was suspended. This will cut off a large portion of Nashua's milk and ice supply.

The Nashua Coal and Ice company, one of the city's largest supply companies, has its entire stock in Hudson. Its only means of getting the ice to Nashua will be to hire wagons to draw to the railroad and ship that way. The same will have to be done with the milk that comes from Hudson to Nashua.

Supt. Morris stated last night that with careful work the roadway approaching the bridge will be dug out and the pressure from the rear removed. Then after building a new approach the bridge will be reopened.

BIG ICE WAGON

CRASHED INTO A POP CORN CART

One of the heavy wagons of the Daniel Gage Ice company crashed into a pop corn cart drawn by a horse on the Thorndike street bridge yesterday afternoon. There were a number of vehicles on the bridge and the driver of the horse attached to the pop corn wagon, a Mr. Gifford, in trying to avoid colliding with another vehicle steered his horse to one side only to get in the path of the ice wagon. The result was that the ice wagon overturned the lighter vehicle.

When the wagon was upset Mr. Gifford was thrown out and his stock of popped corn, unpopped corn, butter, bags and cooking utensils were scattered about the street.

When the man was thrown out of the car he had a narrow escape from being run over by the ambulance which passed over the bridge about that time on its way to the scene of another accident. The driver of the ambulance thinking that Mr. Gifford was hurt stopped but upon finding that the man had escaped injury he drove on.

THE LADIES' AUXILIARY

Elected Miss Conway on the State Board

The convention of the Ladies' auxiliaries of the A. O. H. came to a close yesterday afternoon with the election of Miss Mary McAndrews of Adams as mistress-at-arms and Miss Delia A. Conway, of this city, as sentinel.

Mrs. Catherine E. Burke, the retiring president, was presented a purse of gold in acknowledgment of her services as president and bouquets were given and gifts made to other officers.

Before adjournment the newly elected officers were installed by Mrs. Mary E. McCarthy of Westfield, the national vice president.

In electing Miss Conway on the state board the Ladies' Auxiliary made no mistake. She is one of the best speakers and ablest presiding officers to be found among the women of Lowell, but she is so modest, only her intimate friends and fraternal associates are aware of it.

NO CHANGE YET

In Strike Situation in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—Following the failure of the contractors to meet William McLean, president of the Bricklayers' union, on Thursday afternoon in a conference which had been arranged, both the contractors and the strikers are resting today as far as any important events in the laborers' strike are concerned. The strike leader, Dominick D'Alessandro said today that he did not know what his next move would be, possibly he would withdraw from the city and allow the laborers themselves to adjust their difficulties.

CONSTABLE BUSY

Brought Consternation to Summer Colony

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 26.—Again yesterday Constable John G. Cross, the young Harvard law student, brought consternation to members of the summer colony who frequented the alleged gambling parlors at the Narragansett club before they were closed Aug. 7, following a raid by him. Mounted on a bicycle he made an unexpected visit yesterday afternoon to the Point Judith Country club, where the polo matches were being contested, and moving through the crowd of society folk served summonses on three Philadelphia men to appear in court on Monday next. Then he was ordered by Philip S. F. Randolph of Philadelphia, president of the country club, to leave the grounds.

Mr. Randolph had called a policeman and the crowd of gaily dressed women with the men looked for something exciting. But Constable Cross declared he had served all the summonses he had with him and was ready to go.

When asked last night for the names of the men he had summoned to attend on Monday the trial in the second district court at Wakefield of William E. Arnold, who is charged with maintaining a gambling place at the Narragansett club, Constable Cross refused to make any statement.

It looked for a moment as if there would be trouble when one of the men whom Mr. Cross buttonholed yesterday afternoon shook his fist in the constable's face. The latter continued reading the summons, however, and the remonstrating Philadelphia social leader carried his objections no further.

The Narragansett club was closed tight as a drum yesterday for the first time this season.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

A social and dancing party was held in Merrimack hall, Merrimack street, Wednesday night under the auspices of the Lady Wolfe Tones, L. N. F. There was a large attendance and the affair proved to be a success.

The following had charge of the party: Maria J. Markham, general manager; Lizzie Lynch, assistant general manager; Kittie O'Neill, floor director; Bridgie Nolan, assistant floor director; Mrs. Dwyer, chief aid; aids, Mary A. Dillon, Nellie Nolan, Mrs. Grady, Margaret Lynch, Susie Riley, Mamie Connors and Mary Riley.

DIRECTOR CHANGED

REV. BRO. JORDANS LEAVES ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

Rev. Brother Jordanus, director of St. Joseph's college, has been transferred at his own request to the Marist school at Robervial, Lake St. John, where he will fill the office of assistant director. He left this city last night for his new place.

The change came at the request of Rev. Brother Jordanus himself whose health had not been of the best lately, and who desired less arduous duties for a time.

Rev. Brother Leon Marcel, for the past three years director of the Marist school at La Malbaie, Que., is coming to Lowell to take the direction of St. Joseph's college. He is a native of France, 31 years old.

SALVATION ARMY

TAKES CONTROL OF THE CHILDREN'S PICNIC

The annual outing of the poor children of this city, which in years previous has been conducted by Constable John McManus, will be held next Wednesday at Mountain Rock grove under the auspices of the Salvation Army corps, and under the direct management of Adjutant and Mrs. Harry Hawkins of the local branch of the army.

The success of the affair depends in no small measure on the generosity of the public and for several weeks boxes have been placed at points of vantage along the principal streets and considerable money has been received, but the army is in need of more money and balls, bats, neckties, shoes, candy, peanuts and various notions, the latter to be offered as prizes. If the public desires to contribute either the money or different articles can be sent to the barracks or a post card sent to 32-34 Jackson street, and the articles will be called for.

Fifteen hundred lunch boxes have been given by A. F. French and in each box there will be placed a ham sandwich, a doughnut, a cheese sandwich, a cup cake and a banana. There will be plenty of lemonade for the youngsters.

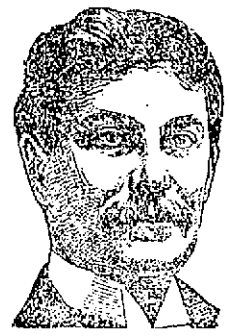

Up to date 13 cars have been donated but five more are needed.

The Provincial band of New England, with headquarters in Boston, will be on hand and give a concert in Paige street Wednesday morning prior to the start of the cars and on Tuesday evening, the night before the outing, the same band will give a concert at the army barracks in Jackson street.

Upon arriving at Mountain Rock the children will be started on their sports at once, and will continue until noon. Then all will be lined up and marched to the ball grounds. As each child enters the grounds he will be passed a box containing his lunch. After dinner, sports will be in order again. The first car will start back to the city at 5.30 o'clock, and will arrive here shortly after 6 o'clock.

POLICE USED GUNS

More Rioting Broke Out in New Bedford Today

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—Rioting broke out afresh today in connection with the strike of building laborers in this city and the police were obliged to fire their revolvers and use their clubs in order to keep back the mob. Six arrests were made.

The trouble occurred near the corner of Rockland street and Bolton road, in the southerly part of the city. Several mills are under construction in that locality and a number of strikers had gathered nearby. The crowd steadily increased in numbers until it reached four or five hundred men. Disorderly acts began to be perpetrated and by the time Chief of Police Mason and a squad of sixty patrolmen arrived in autos the strikers were apparently in a belligerent mood. The crowd refused to disperse at the command of Chief Mason and the officers then tried to disperse it by force. Clubs were drawn and many sore heads resulted from the clash.

At length the officers drew their revolvers and fired into the air. No one was injured but this show of force had its effect on the crowd, which reluctantly scattered.

Within a few minutes after the clash began, a meadow nearby was strewn with many strikers, upon whose heads the clubs of the officers had descended while six of the men were taken to the police station. So far as a settlement of a strike was concerned there were no developments this forenoon.

The strikers took advantage of the eight officers being at dinner and an uprising occurred. At this first attack no arrests could be made but when the strikers took a new stand they had gathered up all the sticks and clubs, including baseball bats that were available and Chief Mason had summoned all the officers possible. Many arrests were made including the leader of the riot, who gave as his parting words of advice to the strikers: "Go home, or the officers will kill you."

The fight took place on the corner of Sagamore and Hemlock streets, lasting for ten minutes. Six wounded strikers were taken up to the station in the automobile. Lieut. Fay with about sixty officers opposed the crowd.

GIFFORD PINCHOT'S STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Gifford Pinchot of the National Conservation Association and former head of the government forestry service, in a statement issued today holds that the loss of property and life in the recent and present forest fires was unnecessary.

The disastrous results, he says, are traceable to the unpreparedness to deal with the wire situation. He scores members of congress who have opposed appropriations for the proper equipment for forest rangers and in that connection names Senator Heyburn of Idaho, whose home town, Wallace, Idaho, suffered serious loss; Senator Carter of Montana and Representative Mondell of Wyoming. The statement in part follows:

"If a forest is equipped with roads, trails, telephone lines and a reasonable number of men for patrol there is no more likelihood that great fires will be able to get started than there is that great conflagrations, like the Chicago fire, will get started in a city with a modern fire department. Under rare circumstances they may, but the chances are against it."

When You Know How

To select good burning coal, or if you know now—you will come to me with your fuel requirements aware of the fact that the mines whose output I represent send me nothing but the most desirable sort of condensed fuel. For my part, I deliver only a well screened article, of full weight, and have it at your door promptly. At ruling prices my coal makes for real economy.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

MAYOR OF SALEM

Is Said to Have Got Names Mixed

SALEM, Aug. 26.—Mayor Howard's charges that L. F. Bassett has been guilty of grafting in the work done on the manual training school will be heard Monday night before the committee of public property and it will then develop that it would have been quite impossible for L. F. Bassett to have been guilty of the acts alleged.

In his letter to Alderman S. Herbert Wilkins, chairman of the committee, Mayor Howard specified that Bassett had two men employed by him on the manual training school and that each of those men was down on the city payroll at $24 a week, whereas they actually received $15 and $18 respectively, the contractor pocketing the balance.

L. F. Bassett is not a contractor and had no contract and hired no men on the school work. His brother, F. S. Bassett, however, did have a contract to install an engine at the school, and, while that work was being done, he was asked to figure on some "extras" in carpenter work.

Members of the committee to hear the charges say they know all about the affair, that Bassett said the work was too small to figure on and that the easiest and cheapest way for all was to let him (Bassett) have his men who would do the work go on the city payroll at his regular charge for such work, $24 a week, and he would pay them and get his profit on the difference.

STOCK MARKET

DULL AND STRONG AT THE CLOSE TODAY

Great Deal of Buoyancy Developed—Grain Carriers Got Back to High Level of Yesterday

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Higher prices prevailed at the opening of the stock market with U. P., Reading, S. P., and Interborough-Metropolitan making gains of a point each. American Smelting, Brooklyn Transit, U. S. Steel and Ches. & Ohio were ½ to ¾ better.

The market wavered a bit and then went on upwards with the buying stimulated by the passing of the frost scare in the corn belt. Round amounts of U. S. Steel and some of the railroad stocks were bought, but the general buying fell off and the list became dull. Union Pacific, Con. Gas and Chicago Great Western advanced 1½, U. S. Steel 1¼ and Atchison, St. Paul, New York Central and International Harvester 1. Rock Island pfd. broke 2¾.

A more cheerful sentiment pervaded speculative circles today. The failure of the frost scare to materialize which was responsible for the heavy selling yesterday left the bears in a plight and they covered heavily at levels materially above yesterday's final figures. Speculation on the whole was purely professional, the recent introduction of politics as a factor into the market and the general concern over the money and crop conditions being sufficient to discourage much of the usual public interest in the market. Northern Pacific, Illinois Central, Great Northern pfd., Wabash pfd., Amalgamated Copper and Utah Copper gained a point. Southern Railway pfd. fell 1⅜ and United States Realty 1½. At noon prices were in some cases one-half below the best. Bonds were steady.

Buying was in scanty volume and very few of the active stocks fluctuated more than ⅛ in the noon session which illustrated to what extent the market had got into a rut.

There was just double the amount of business done between 1 and 2 o'clock that there was in the previous hours and prices were a shade higher. U. S. Steel crossing 69 and Reading 140.

The market closed dull and strong. The market developed a great deal of buoyancy and most of the grain carriers got back to the high level of yesterday before the crop scare broke the market.

W. K. VANDERBILT

To Become Head of Railroad System

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—William Kissam Vanderbilt, Jr., is at thirty-two years of age the acting head of what has been called the greatest railway system in the world, the New York Central & Hudson River railroad.

This young man, fifth in the line of the Vanderbilt succession, is filling the shoes of President W. C. Brown, who is in Europe on a long vacation.

Wise men of Wall street recall that within the last few months William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., made an extensive examination of all the properties of the New York Central & Hudson River, and this fact strengthens their belief that the young multi-millionaire is destined to become president of the road, thus restoring to the Vanderbilt name all the prestige, power and influence of past generations.

It is the thing which may happen when Mr. Brown returns to this country that has set Wall street talking in whispers.

The New York Central and all its branches have always been regarded as the heritage of the Vanderbilt family.

Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt founded the road and was succeeded by his son, William H. Vanderbilt, as president. He in turn passed over the control of the system to his son, Cornelius Vanderbilt II. Upon the illness of Cornelius Vanderbilt, William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., second son of William H. Vanderbilt, became president and chairman of the board.

It seems only natural that the control of this great system, so closely allied with the Vanderbilt fortunes, should pass into the hands of the son of William K. Vanderbilt, who but recently was appointed to the position of assistant to the president, W. C. Brown, a position especially created for the young man.

HELD A LAWN PARTY

A very successful and well attended lawn party was held at the Grange hall in Dracut Centre last night under the auspices of the Dracut Centre volunteer fire company. Dancing, which was held in the hall, proved to be one of the features of the evening.

The grounds adjoining the hall were decorated and illuminated in an attractive manner. Several booths which were placed on the lawn and presided over by members of the department were well patronized.

Those serving at the tables were: Ice cream, Harry Fox, A. P. Bryant, Henry Parker, George Currier; candy, Walter Fox, Eugene Anderson; tonic, Frank Huntley, William Hazen; clams, Mark Lurvey, Peter Ford, Ernest Moore; popcorn, Albert Fox; dancing, Harold Lurvey, George Hague, Gus Roth, Conant Udell.

The Colonial orchestra furnished music for dancing.

CONVENTION DATES SET

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 26.—The republican state and congressional conventions will be held on October 20 according to a leader of the party. The election will come on Nov. 8. It is expected that the entire state ticket and the two congressmen will be renominated. The republican state central committee will meet on September 20 when they will issue an official call for the convention.

COMMITTED SUICIDE

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., Aug. 26.—With a note reading, "I am tired of living," pinned to his clothing, the dead body of Jacob J. Strobel, aged 36 years, was found lying across his mother's grave in Fairview cemetery today. He had taken carbolic acid.

A. O. H. NOTES

The soliciting committee has received a check for $25 from Thomas H. Boyle & Co. Acknowledgment of this contribution was not made when the regular list was published.

The state officers and the visiting delegates were loud in their praise of the service rendered by the local police. They also expressed their entire satisfaction with the street railway service.

A BOLD ROBBERY

Aged Man Was Held Up in Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Joseph McCarthy, 22, and Albert M. Carroll, 25, both single, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Jeremiah Crowley of station 15 on a charge of robbing Valentine B. Willey, 74, a wealthy lumber dealer of Wolfboro, N. H., of a silver watch, valued at $12, on Roland street, Charlestown, about 11 o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Willey has been in this vicinity for the past few days, and yesterday morning went out to Lexington to transact some business. On his return he alighted from the car in the Sullivan square terminal and proceeded to walk to the depot of the Eastern division of the Boston & Maine railroad at East Somerville for the purpose of taking a train to Medford.

Things had so changed since Mr. Willey's last visit here that he became bewildered and got down among the tracks of the railroad at East Somerville and was wandering aimlessly about when, he claims, he met McCarthy and Carroll on Roland strtet and asked them the way to the depot.

While going up Roland street, Mr. Willey was dealt a severe blow behind the right ear and as he fell a hand clutched his throat. His silver watch was then taken from his pocket.

A bookkeeper in one of the manufactories close by saw the entire transaction and telephoned to Station 15. Patrolman Crowley responded, and from the description given him of the two men, decided to arrest McCarthy and Carroll.

McCarthy was captured about 1 o'clock at the office of the Boston & Maine railroad, where he had applied earlier in the day for work. Carroll had been arrested previously.

Carroll at first stoutly denied that he had anything to do with the affair, but according to the police, finally weakened and told where the watch was. He told Crowley that when he saw him on the car a short time after the robbery he feared he was after him, and ran and threw the watch down a vault. Here the watch was found and was returned to Mr. Willey. The latter was not seriously hurt.

TENDERED A RECEPTION

Mr. William Herrick, son of Mrs. Louise Herrick of 48 Sladon street, Dracut, and Miss Elsie Crowingshield, of Ticonderoga, N. Y., who were united in marriage Monday at the latter's home, were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. Herrick's mother in Dracut, Tuesday night. During the evening the newly married couple received many presents.

The interior of the house was artistically decorated and the couple was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Louise Herrick.

CHOLERA OUTBREAK

THE DISEASE HAS REACHED VIENNA

VIENNA, Aug. 26.—Cholera, it is officially announced, has broken out in this city. After throwing doubt for two days on the reports of cases in Vienna, the health department of the ministry of the interior today announced that bacteriological examination of several suspected cases had established that the patients were suffering from Asiatic cholera. The victims are from Hungary.

A BIG RECEPTION

Tendered Colonel Roosevelt in Iowa Today

AMES, Ia., Aug. 26.—Speeding westward in his special car Colonel Roosevelt was not permitted to sleep late this morning. Scarcely had he entered the state of Iowa when a stop was made at Marshalltown where hundreds of people clamored to see him. After some delay he emerged from the rear floor of his car, clad in pajamas, raincoat and slippers, smiling, but protesting that he had not been scheduled to speak there. He then delivered his first speech in what he termed the heart of the nation. He told the audience he was glad to get back to his own country, although he had enjoyed the lions in Africa more than they enjoyed him.

Expressing interest in the children of the assemblage he suggested that it would not be well to depend on immigration for an increase of population of the country. After brief remarks, frequently interrupted by cheering, he protested against the action of photographers who brought their cameras into action.

"It is an outrage," he said, "to take my picture in this garb." He had time only to throw a raincoat over his pajamas and don slippers when called to the platform. The Roosevelt special will go through Iowa and Nebraska, stopping at a dozen or more places where Colonel Roosevelt will make an addresses.

TO RIDE ON ENGINE

BOONE, Ia., Aug. 26.—The Roosevelt train arrived here at 8.30 and departed at 8.45. Col. Roosevelt addressed 2000 persons during the stop. Col. Roosevelt will ride on the engine part of the time between Boone and Council Bluffs. The train stopped at Boone viaduct over the Des Moines river to allow a picture to be taken. Senator Cummins boarded the train at Ames and appeared on the rear platform but did not speak.

ROOSEVELT IN CARROLL

CARROLL, Ia., Aug. 26.—Theodore Roosevelt definitely aligned himself with the progressives of New York state in a statement which he issued on the train today as he was traveling across Iowa.

Colonel Roosevelt declared that the main issue in the fight in New York was not any specific reform measure, but bossism. Bossism, he declared, frequently led to corruption and he said he would wage ruthless war on corrupt alliances between business and bosses. Colonel Roosevelt was asked about remarks by Timothy L. Woodruff, New York republican state chairman, in regard to the factional fight in New York. In reply he issued this statement:

"The progressives are emphatically in favor of taking a real step forward about direct primaries, substantially on the lines of Governor Hughes' proposition but this is not the main issue. The main issue is that we stand against bossism, big or little, and in favor of genuine popular rule, not only at the elections but within the party organization and above all that our war is ruthlessly against every species of corruption, big and little, and against the alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics as to which it has found that too often in the past the boss system a peculiarly efficient and objectionable means of communication. We are against the domination of the party and the public by special interests, whether these special interests are political, business or a compound of the two."

DIAMOND NOTES

Lynn at Lowell today.

And we're still on the threshhold of the first division.

Fifteen hits is batting some.

It was worth the price of admission to see Dady Loding-Legs clout the ball; a single, a double and a triple. If Yount could step around the bases like Magee that triple would have been a homer without any doubt.

Put Worcester down for second place.

Sullivan throws to second with grace and accuracy.

Magee and Fluharty furnished a couple of circus catches that got the fans going.

A delegation of Lynn fans is expected here this afternoon.

Red Rorty sprang a hot shot here recently to a local fan that shows his Celtic wit. "One or two fans were kidding him in Central square and one of them sang out to the red ump, 'We'll get you some time.' "If you do you'll have to hurry up, I may cash in before the end of the season,' " sang out Rorty as he painfully limped aboard a trolley car.—Lynn News.

Next Saturday afternoon the O. M. I. Cadets and the Brooksides of the Lowell and Suburban league will meet in a league game on the latter's grounds in Collinsville. The game will be called at 3 p. m.

The Y. M. C. A. second team of the Stony Brook league will play a team from the John Pilling shoe factory, of the Suburban league, on the North common, Saturday afternoon.

Jake Morse recently announced that Lynn would play in Lowell Saturday. Frank Leonard told him he was wrong and showed him. Now Jake says the game will be played in Lynn, and that goes.

The undefeated Lincolns and the strong Orioles will cross bats Saturday afternoon at the Lincoln's grounds on Chelmsford street.

FOOTBALL NEWS

The Lowell Athletics will play the Lawrence Juniors association football team on the Fordway park, North Billerica, Saturday afternoon in the first league game of the season. The Lowell boys are out to win from their rivals who have not lost a game for two years and a fast game is expected. These teams should have met last Saturday, but as the grounds were in a poor condition the game had to be postponed. The line-up for the Lowell Athletics is as follows:

Goal, Normandy; backs, Mahon (captain), Pendergast; halfbacks, Johnson, Trickett; forwards, Goodall, Taylor, Hoyle, Lamb, Clegg, Mitchell. Silva is president.

LOSS IS $20,000

Race Horses Saved From Fire at Risk of Life

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—A dozen speedy light-harness horses valued at from $50 to $5000 each and 40 work horses valued at $200 each were rescued early last evening by stablemen, trainers, policemen and others from a fire that destroyed the big boarding, livery and racing and express stables of A. J. Furbush, which is in the rear of 200 Washington street, Brighton. Three alarms were sounded for the fire from box 832 and help came from Cambridge and Newton.

The loss on the building, 50 tons of hay, the grain, harness, new buggies and other contents is estimated between $20,000 and $25,000. The loss is covered by insurance.

Much of the credit for saving the horses, racing sulkies, harness and wagons is due to the presence of mind of the owner's wife and their daughter Louise. They remained on the veranda of their home in front of the stables and directed the rescue work.

Mr. Furbush was at the Marshfield fair. Word was sent to him and he came home in an automobile.

The stable was of wood with a frontage of two stories and a loft on Nantasket avenue and three stories and a loft on Snow street.

The Furbush home fronts at 200 Washington street, Brighton, surrounded by spacious grounds and having a garage between the ell of the house and the stable.

Walter Burdick, trainer, and his assistant, Lawrence Lyons, were on the first floor on the Nantasket avenue side at 7 o'clock watering the light harness horses when a burst of flames and smoke confronted him, coming down through the hay and grain chutes. The next instant flames broke through the roof of the big building, which extended 150 feet along Nantasket avenue and had an ell extending 150 feet.

Men, women and children saw the flames and ran through the streets crying "Fire." A citizen ran to box 832 on Washington street opposite Shannon street, and sent in an alarm.

Mrs. Furbush and her daughter, who were alone in the big house, were almost overcome by the shock of seeing the fire, but they quickly recovered and ran to the piazza and began giving orders to employes and directing the rescue.

The rescue work had been going on some time before the firemen arrived. Burdick and Lyons hooded the heads of the high-strung racers and with great difficulty and at some risk to their own lives ran the horses out through flames and smoke into Nantasket avenue and turned them loose in the Furbush pasture on Nevins hill.

Patrolman Michael Sullivan, who covers the route; William Welsh and George Reeves, neighbors; reserve officer Nicholas Boye and Patrolman Jos. Quinan hurried into the burning stable and worked at the risk of life in getting the workhorses out of the basement into Snow street. Many of these horses were turned loose and rollicked in the streets until they were captured and stabled by neighbors.

Furbush House Set Afire

Philemon D. Warren, deputy superintendent of police, was on the steps of the Brighton police station and immediately directed that a big detail of policemen be sent and the streets were soon roped off.

Capt. John S. Cleverly of engine 29, acting chief of the Brighton district, ordered a third alarm as soon as he arrived.

Chief Mullen was soon on the scene and engine companies from Newton and Cambridge responded to the third alarm in accordance with the fire district agreement.

Sparks filled the air and set fire to the roof of the Furbush house. A fireman climbed to the roof of the house and wet it down with a chemical line continually until the firemen finally played a stream of water there.

When it looked as if the house would go a cry was sent up that Frank A. Edgerley, foreman for Mr. Furbush, who broke his leg some weeks ago, was helpless in a bed in the rear room on the second floor of the house. Patrolman Quinn and Reserve Officer Boye ran up into the smoke filled room and made a cradle with the bed clothing and carried Edgerley to the street. Edgerley weighs about 200 pounds, and they found it difficult to carry him without injuring his leg. They broke down a fence and carried him across to the office of Dr. Brackett in Shannon street.

At this time Mrs. Furbush and her daughter Louise were taken across Washington street to the residence of John Pierce, but sparks soon set the roof of this house on fire. This fire was soon extinguished. Then Mrs. Furbush and her daughter went back to their own home.

John Mahoney worked with a hand fire extinguisher on the roof of the Furbush house all during the fire.

Chemical's Horses Run Away

Chemical 6 was standing in Nantasket avenue near the burning stables when the horses became frightened and making a short turn started to run into Washington street. They were caught, but in their short flight they ran head on into the side of a building and one was severely cut.

Stable employes, citizens, policemen and firemen removed four hacks, a hearse and 12 racing sulkies from the burning carriage house, along with a large number of carriages.

Although a bold effort was made to save them, 16 new buggies, valued at an average of $300, were destroyed. While a great many sets of harness were saved there was a valuable assortment of racing harness, light driving and road harness, boots, racing gear, blankets, robes and other costly horse clothing of considerable value, in the loft of the stable, which was destroyed.

Maurice Keefe, Michael J. Kenney, James Furguson and Michael Russell succeeded in saving some of the harness and some of the racing gear on the street floor on the Nantasket avenue side.

Two automobiles in the garage were saved without appreciable damage and the garage buildings also were saved, though badly scorched.

A fresh breeze was blowing from the south, carrying the flames and sparks out over a vacant lot and across to many tenement houses that were kept wet down by the firemen to prevent their taking fire.

Spectacle for Great Crowd

When the fire was at its height R. H. Russell and family and Michael Connors and family, who occupy a two-apartment house at 29 Nantasket avenue, south of the burning stable, moved all their household effects into a field, and the women sat in the midst of the goods. Though the roof took fire several times, no appreciable damage was done to the dwelling. Later the two families moved back.

A large wooden building in the rear of the stable, occupied by the Brighton Construction company, was in danger, but was saved by being kept constantly wet down.

It was thought the fire originated from a spontaneous combustion in the 50 tons of new hay which was recently put into the loft. This was valued at $1250. There were about 100 bushels of oats and nearly as much other grain in the bins. The stock of winter horse clothing, boots, snow racing equipment, blankets and fur robes stored there was also destroyed.

The burning building was on a hill and the flames reached a great height and were seen easily by persons in Newton, Brookline, Cambridge and many other surrounding places, and a great many persons came in automobiles, carriages, electric cars, on bicycles and on foot to see the fire. The streets were jammed with automobiles and vehicles of all descriptions.

The fire was out at 10 o'clock, although a company of firemen remained and the stable employes began assembling and housing the horses.

Happy, Happy, Use TIZ

A Marvel For Sore Feet. Acts Right Off

Sore Feet? Never After Using TIZ—

Good-bye sore feet, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelling feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sore-proof.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

If you don't find all this true after trying a box of TIZ, you can get your money right back.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

A good auto race held here every year would cause many societies to hold their state and national conventions here.

The search of strikers for dangerous weapons is a new departure that has been tried but with little success by the police of New Bedford.

Edison, the electric wizard, announces that he can make moving pictures talk. Nobody can afford to be surprised at anything he may discover or invent.

It seems that the powder mills of Acton are blown up far too often. If the owners had to take any chances around the factory, they would adopt such precautionary measures as would lessen the number of accidents.

When children, boys and girls, begin to commit suicide, it is time to halt and ascertain the cause. Why should the juvenile temper be as explosive as a firecracker? It may come from ill-treatment or from heredity, where the highly nervous temperament of both parents is multiplied in the child.

UTILIZING THE ROOFS OF BUILDINGS

In view of the recent tendency to sleep out of doors and the very general necessity of open air breathing places, the owners of property will hereafter pay more attention to utilizing the roofs of buildings for purposes of recreation, health and comfort.

In Cleveland a new idea has been brought out for building a block upon pillars leaving a playground for children underneath with air shafts going up through the building sufficient to supply the necessary ventilation. While the playground underneath the building might be safer than on the roof, still it will hardly be popular with the children as it is likely to be objectionable on account of the collection of rubbish that in time might become offensive and unwholesome.

ROOSEVELT TO FIGHT IT OUT

It seems now that the republican leaders are becoming very deeply involved in a bitter fight over the political situation in New York City. Roosevelt as a result of being turned down by the recent convention is now determined to go into the fight against the leaders who administered that rebuke. He is backed in his attitude by President Taft, and the official who seems to come in for most of the blame is Vice President Sherman. For this reason Colonel Roosevelt espouses the cause of Senator Davenport, a New York insurgent who was rejected by Vice President Sherman. The fight promises to be very warm; and if it results in another defeat for Roosevelt, we surmise that that will overthrow his prestige as a political leader in the republican party.

GIVE US MORE STATE HIGHWAYS

When the state highway from Lowell to Lawrence will have been completed there will then be a direct route from Lowell to the sea at Newburyport. There should also be a state highway from Lowell to Lawrence on the south side of the river. At present the road is much better than that on the north side between the two cities.

The rough and neglected condition of both, however, go to show that the people hereabouts have been asleep to their own interests in their not having long ago forced the adoption of both roads as state highways. The drive between the two cities if these roads were like the road between Lowell and Tyngsboro, would be the most delightful in the state whereas now it is avoided as dangerous to autos and even to other vehicles.

Lowell should insist on having a state highway on the south side of the river as well as the north. She is entitled to this much consideration in lieu of the large tax paid to the state.

THE INSURGENT REPUBLICANS

The insurgent movement in the republican party is likely to spread. In Kansas and Iowa the insurgents are practically the whole thing and the movement is spreading all over the country. The protest is directly against the republican machine, against Cannon and the Aldrich tariff.

The insurgent sentiment was expressed by Senator Cummins, of Iowa, when he said:

> "The demand for revision of the tariff originated in the necessities of the people and was founded upon the fundamental instinct for justice. If there had been an honest attempt to fix duties according to the cost of production, I might have yielded my view on the question of fact, but there was no such attempt. There is no exigency in public affairs or party action that can induce me to say that a thing is good when I believe it to be bad, or to say that it is true when I believe it to be false. I for one refused to follow Aldrich, Hale, Lodge, Cannon and Dalzell into a sneering, contemptuous, open repudiation of my party platform."

That is but a part of the severe arraignment of the political machine and its workings for the perpetuation of its control. The great crisis that will test the strength of the party and that may bring a sweeping democratic victory is fast approaching and nothing but democratic mismanagement can prevent it resulting in the utter defeat of the latter. Should the democratic candidate for governor in Iowa be elected, the result would be a crushing blow to the republican machine throughout the country. It is a great opportunity for the democratic party to redeem itself for some past blunders.

SELLS THEM ALIVE

Europe Excels America in the Fish Business

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Valuable ideas concerning fishery methods were obtained in Europe by U. S. Fish Commissioner Bowers, who has just returned from abroad. Mr. Bowers is a Maine man, although he has been a resident of West Virginia for many years.

"I visited England, France, Belgium and other countries," said Mr. Bowers. "I inspected the fish markets of various cities and found their methods most interesting. One thing in which they excel America is the method of handling fresh water fish. They are kept in water and sold alive, so that it is possible for the purchaser to select a fish or eel that is swimming about and have it killed and dressed immediately. Eels are very popular among the people of Europe.

"I found no fish that excels our American fish as game or food. By the aid of French cooking, however, European fish sometimes taste better to the epicure.

"I believe the European fish known as sole would be a good thing to import and shall recommend that we try to propagate it in this country.

"I visited Hull and Grimbsy. The latter is to Great Britain what Gloucester is to American fisheries, the chief center of the industry.

Confers About Seal Pelts

"Crossing the channel I visited Rotterdam, Amsterdam, and Paris. Returning home via London, I conferred with British officials and furriers about the seal pelts which the U. S. government has taken from male seals killed on the Pribiloff islands and also about raising the fur seal in fresh water. London experts are interested in both of these matters.

"Twenty seal pups are now en route from the Pribiloffs on a revenue cutter. I have today ordered one of our special cars to Seattle to meet the cutter and bring the pups east. We will distribute them among aquaria in the large cities and elsewhere to demonstrate that the fur seal can thrive in fresh water.

"I have no doubt that aquaria in Boston, New York and other places will be glad to get a pair of the seals. We have had a pair of young seals in the fisheries bureau building for a year and they have grown and kept healthy in fresh water, despite the fact that zoologists insisted that the fur seal could not live out of salt water any length of time. If seals can live in Potomac river water, I believe they can thrive in Kentucky whisky.

"The success of our experiment here opens up the possibility in rivers or lakes throughout the country. I believe they will thrive in any body of fresh water that does not freeze completely over in winter.

"True, it will be difficult to confine the seals, but the expense involved in building a seal-proof enclosure would be amply repaid by the profits to be made in the business. A farmer receives perhaps $5 for a lamb, while the value of a fur seal pelt is about $40 in the raw state. I was led to try the experiment of keeping seals in fresh water by observations on the Pribiloffs four years ago. There I noticed that many seals went from the coast into a small lake, the water of which was brackish, and lived for long periods."

Takes Issue With Critics

Commissioner Bowers takes issue with W. T. Hornaday of New York and others who have criticised the department of commerce and labor's action in killing male seals this year.

"Only a certain number of males are necessary to preserve the herd," said Mr. Bowers. "No females should be killed at any time, but if the surplus males are not killed by the government they will kill each other or be captured by pelagic sealers. If conservation is the object of Hornaday and his friends they should seek to put the seal poachers out of business. If the surplus bulls are not killed when young their pelts become valueless except for crude purposes.

"I have received no report from the Pribiloffs, but suppose that probably 5000 or 10,000 males were killed by our agents. Their skins are expected to arrive at San Francisco aboard the cutter Homer about Sept. 9.

"The skins will be packed in barrels and sold and shipped to London for curing. They are the property of the United States government and I was anxious to see if the skins could not be located and cured in this country. I conferred with London furriers about the matter. They alone possess the secret of plucking the long hairs from seal skins, dying and otherwise preparing them for the trade. I urged one London firm to establish a branch in the United States to prepare Alaskan skins, but was told that they had been so long established at London that they did not wish to make a change."

All the crew of the Harvest Queen were taken aboard the Koenig Luisand the ship was left burning in midocean, having been set afire to prevent her becoming a menace to navigation.

BIG AUTO RACE

Was Held at Elgin, Ill., Today

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 26.—Illinois National Guardsmen this morning took charge of the Elgin automobile race course and cleared it of all vehicles preparatory to stretching their patrol over every foot of its approaches.

The course proved alluring in the bright moonlight last night for some of the drivers who are entered in the races, and George Robertson, Harry Grant and Ray Harroun took a practice spin around the course, finishing in less than nine minutes. The program today includes three races.

The Fox river trophy, distance 135.57 miles, 16 laps, the Cane County trophy 169 miles, 20 laps, and the Illinois trophy 203.35 miles, 24 laps.

It was decided to run the three races simultaneously.

The entries for today are:

GARTER SLIPPED

And Boston Woman Lost Her Gems

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Because of a defective fastening on a garter, Mrs. Florence Bailey yesterday afternoon lost three diamond rings valued at $450 and $84 in bills.

Mrs. Bailey, who lives at 74 Dalton street, Back Bay, noticed her loss just after she had left a Waltham car at Malvern avenue, Brighton.

She has enlisted the police in a search for her property, and declares that she will never again depend on a garter to safeguard her valuables.

"I left my house about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and walked to the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Boylston street, where I took an outbound car for Brighton," said Mrs. Bailey last night.

"The car I got was an open Waltham car and I sat near the centre, between two men. When I reached Malvern avenue I alighted.

"As I walked down Malvern avenue I began to feel my stocking slipping down. When I looked for my valuables they were gone. I managed to fix the broken garter and walked back to the corner, where I met an officer who went with me to the police station and there they started an investigation which resulted in the car being searched, but with no result.

"The diamond rings which I lost are very valuable. I had them wrapped up in tissue paper and the three little packages were tied together.

"The money I had rolled up in four small bundles. One contained $50, another $17, the third $12 and the fourth $25. I had put these into one large bundle and put a rubber band around it. It made a large roll, as most of the bills were of small denomination, and it is a wonder that I did not miss it the minute it slipped out of my stocking.

"I have advertised for the rings and the money and after this you may be sure I won't carry any money in my stocking."

GROOM HANDCUFFED

Friends Carried B. A. Helsey Off in Auto

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—With his wrists handcuffed behind his back, his face smeared with lamp-black and a policeman's club sticking out of the front of his coat Bert A. Kelsey of 117 Berkeley street, proprietor of a restaurant at 11 Essex strett, walked into station 10 at Roxbury Crossing last night. Kelsey could hardly control his temper as he explained to the police that he was the victim of a practical joke perpetrated by his friends.

Kelsey told the police he became a bridegroom only 48 hours ago. He was married quietly and had tried to keep the affair a secret, but the news leaked out yesterday afternoon. Kelsey said: "Some of those friends of mine won't forget it for a long time when I have had my innings."

Somewhere, this morning, Kelsey's wife, if the plans of his friends have worked out successfully, is anxiously awaiting news of her husband, and also a railroad ticket to return to her home of but two days.

Kelsey and his wife are each about 26 years old. They were married Tuesday evening. They were seated in their dining room in their flat at 117 Berkeley street last night when two taxicabs drew up to the door. Several business men entered, and after chatting awhile invited the bride and bridegroom to take an automobile ride. They consented, and about 8.30 they started out Columbus avenue.

Evidently the drivers were let into the joke, for when they reached one of the darkest spots along the roadway near Jamaica pond something happened to both machines at the same time. The passengers alighted and about 10 young men and women were standing, laughing and talking, beside the machines, when Kelsey was suddenly seized from behind.

Kelsey fought desperately—or at least he said so—but was overpowered and handcuffs were slipped on his wrists. Mrs. Kelsey was escorted to another automobile and placed in the hands of the women.

At first Kelsey took the situation good-naturedly, but when one of the number of "arch conspirators," as Kelsey termed them, produced a liberal quantity of black grease paint and began to daub his face and hands the affair ceased to be a joke.

Gleefully the men went about their work, until they had completed it to their satisfaction. Kelsey struggled, but could not get away. Then he was bundled into the automobile and the start for the city was made. They reached Roxbury Crossing a little before 10.

At a signal both machines were stopped and Kelsey was forced to alight. As he stood on the curbing, one of the young men put a pair of pincers and several other articles that might be termed burglars' tools in his pockets while another forced the club into the upper pocket of his coat, leaving the business end hanging out.

Laughing and giving all sorts of advice they drove away. Kelsey thought of several friends in different garages that might assist him. He visited two establishments, but in both places his friends were away and as he bore all appearances of a suspicious person the the garage employes refused to assist him.

Finally he wandered down Columbus avenue to station 10. Lieut. Albert F. Lovell and Sergt. O'Neil were talking in the signal room when Kelsey walked in.

"Say, gentlemen, don't you think this is a fine way for a fellow's friends to treat him?" inquired Kelsey, as he showed the handcuffs.

Kelsey spent the next half hour in convincing the police who he was. All this time he had to bear the humiliation of wearing the handcuffs. Finally a key was applied and Kelsey was allowed to wash his face and hands, whereupon he started in to convince the police that he was guilty of no crime.

When they put him out of the taxicab his friends watched him go to the garages and later trailed him to the station house. While he was inside the two automobiles kept going up and down Columbus avenue passing the station at intervals of 10 minutes, awaiting to learn the result of their joke.

Here, however, Kelsey turned the tables, for with the assistance of the police and while the two taxicabs stood across the street in front of the station with the occupants waiting to greet him, Lieut. Lovell passed Kelsey out the back door of the station to Elmwood street. Before he left he was given the articles taken from him.

Not content with the treatment they had already given him, his "friends" proceeded to take his watch, money and valuables before they put him out of the automobile.

It is understood Mrs. Kelsey has relatives living in a small town a few miles outside the city and the jokers planned to send her out to them on one of the last trains.

TWO CAPTURED

Alleged to Have Held Up a Man

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Joseph McCarthy, aged 21, of 30 Parker street, Charlestown, and Albert M. Carroll, aged 25, of 44 Florence street, Somerville, were arrested late yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Jere Crowley of the Charlestown police on a charge of robbery of a silver watch yesterday noon from Valentine B. Willey, a Wolfboro, N. H., business man.

Mr. Willey is 74 years old and rather feeble. He told the police that he was choked by one of two young men on Roland street, in the vicinity of Charlestown Neck, thrown to the street and his silver watch, worth about $12, was snatched from his vest pocket. One of the men, he said, stood on guard while the other attacked him.

Men in the vicinity say they saw one of the young men standing at Crescent and Reland streets, Charlestown, and then saw a second man rush around the corner and both men ran away. They told the police of seeing Mr. Willey, who tried to follow the men.

The attack occurred at midday, shortly after which Patrolman Crowley appeared on the scene. He was given a description of the men and a hunt was begun. Crowley got a warrant for McCarthy and about 5 last night found him.

Mr. Willey arrived in Boston from Wolfboro yesterday morning. He took a train for the Sullivan square terminal, where he intended to board a car for Medford on a business trip. But he lost his way in the crowd and went down to the street. He made his way to Roland street, and there asked two young men to show him the way to the Eastern station. They volunteered to accompany him.

Patrolman Crowley, after asking Carroll and McCarthy what was done with the watch, visited Egan's saloon and searched the sink in the men's room.

The services of a plumber were necessary and about nine inches of lead pipe, including the trap under the sink, were cut off. In the trap was Mr. Willey's watch. Although it had been lying in water two hours, the watch was still running and keeping correct time.

ACCUSED DRIVER

Of Having Run Down a Boy

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick D. Doyle, five years old, of 36 Essex street, Cambridge, had a narrow escape from death while at play near the corner of Austin and Essex streets yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Cambridge police are searching for an automobile that is said to have knocked him down.

According to the story told the police the boy had just gone out into the roadway, when a touring car containing four persons struck him. The machine was stopped and the chauffeur lifted the child from underneath and carried him to the sidewalk.

Then it is alleged, he jumped into the machine again and drove off.

Grace Roole, a child living at 4 Lamson place, saw the accident and helped the boy to his home. She gave the police the number of a Massachusetts machine. The owner of the machine in question told the police over the telephone that he knew nothing of any accident, that his auto was in a repair shop in Cambridge.

A physician found the Doyle boy had no broken bones, but there were several bruises and he is being observed to determine whether he sustained internal injuries. The lad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard S. Doyle.

FENLON J. HURD

Says He Paid $40,000 for Spirit Messages

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—One version of the so-called "spirit communications" through which Fenlon J. Hurd, a retired merchant of Greenwich, Conn., is alleged to have paid more than $40,000 to Mrs. Laura R. Cramer, a clerk in the state department here, is given in a deposition made by Hurd at Whallenburg, N. Y., and filed in the district supreme court here yesterday.

Dr. Lee M. Hurd, also of Greenwich, who was appointed conservator of the estate of the elder Hurd after he had been declared incompetent by a court in Greenwich, brought an action against Mrs. Cramer several weeks ago to recover the $40,000.

Mrs. Cramer has already answered that the elder Hurd gave her $27,000 for her care when he lived in Washington.

The case has not yet come to trial, and the deposition of the elder Hurd was taken on representations that he is very feeble and may not live until the case is reached.

GOODALE'S DRUG STORE, 217 CENTRAL STREET

Madam, Is Your Hair Falling Out or Turning Gray?

If it is, the hair roots need nourishment and need it badly. If you want the best results in the shortest time you must use Parisian Sage because it not only nourishes the hair root and causes it to grow in abundance but it kills the dandruff germ and eradicates dandruff.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by Carter & Sherburne to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It makes hair grow lustrous and luxuriant. It is a delightfully refreshing summer hair dressing, cooling the scalp, and will immediately banish all odors. Large bottle 50 cents at druggists everywhere, and at Carter & Sherburne's. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Mail orders filled, all charges prepaid by the American makers, the Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

On March 25, 1910, E. A. Widman, 8 Norfolk St., Newark, N. J., wrote: 'My hair was falling out and my head was full of dandruff. Since using Parisian Sage the dandruff has disappeared and now have quite a growth of new hair."

On April 2, 1910, Mrs. R. M. Worden, 5 St. James Ave., Holyoke, Mass., wrote: "Parisian Sage is the best hair dressing I ever used. It gave my hair life and gloss which no other dressing ever did, besides stopping it from falling out. It is the only dressing for up-to-date women."

March 24, 1910, Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, 4 Chester place, Bangor, Me., wrote: "My husband, J. G. Ketcham, was troubled with dandruff which caused his hair to fall out, and your Parisian Sage has freed the scalp from dandruff and given a natural gloss to the hair. No money could persuade him to be without it."

MORE FIREPROOF BUILDINGS

Fireproof construction methods are gaining ground in the United States. This is shown by the government report on building operations in 1909, just issued. Of the cost of new structures in 128 large cities, 75.24 per cent—or $661,640,000 in round figures—went into the kind classified as "fire-resisting."

The total cost of building operations in Greater New York last year was $250,314,778. Chicago was second, with $95,238,380. San Francisco's outlay for buildings $26,184,068, represented a decrease of $5,484,273 from 1908. It was the only one of the large cities to show a decrease.

The lesson taught by the conflagrations at Baltimore and San Francisco has been a potent factor in the movement toward better construction. At both the big fires the effectiveness of the few instances of modern fireproofing was demonstrated. On the other hand, buildings not properly fireproofed, even though made of steel, were powerless to resist the fierce heat.

Steel itself, though non-inflammable, is not "fireproof," as experts understand the term. It is the practice now, among the leading architects and builders, to provide for the protection of the metal by burnt clay blocks. These hollow blocks, which have passed through a temperature of 2000 degrees in the process of manufacture, are used to incase the columns, girders and beams of the frame. They are also used for floors and partitions, to make impossible the spread of fire from one part of a building to another.

The United States government attempts to set an example to builders by the thoroughness of its methods. Practically all the important government buildings put up in recent years are of the steel and hollow tile type.

CHOLERA EPIDEMIC

Reported to be On the Wane in South Russia

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 26.—A slight improvement in cholera conditions in south Russia is shown by the latest reports to the government sanitary bureau and to the Red Cross, which is taken as a sign that the epidemic is now on the wane. Reports to the sanitary bureau for the week from August 14 to August 20 inclusive give 16,100 new cases and 7743 deaths as compared with 23,944 cases and 10,733 deaths for the previous week, making a grand total of 121,091 cases and 58,030 deaths for this year's epidemic. Prof. Rein, at the head of the special sanitary commission dispatched to south Russia to combat the outbreak, reports that the epidemic in the Donetz mining region in south Russia is on the decrease. At Yuzovka, the principal center of the district, there are only sporadic cases and the same is true throughout the districts of Bakhmut and Slavyanoserbsk. The great improvement is due to the introduction of proper methods of medical aid.

The mine owners of south Russia who recently declared that they would have to suspend operations on account of the flight of the workmen and whose refusal to undertake contracts for the delivery of pig iron has embarrassed the iron industry in Russia, report that their workmen are beginning to return to the mines in considerable numbers. The proposal to reduce the duty on pig iron has had a particularly good effect in spurring on the mine owners to take measures to combat the exodus of the workmen.

ALLEGED CROOKS

Arrested by Martin Maher on Charge of Picking Pockets

Inspector Burr of Boston Knows Some of Them and Says They Are Professionals—Man Fined $15 for Assault; Another $20 for Breaking Window

In the arrest of the four alleged pickpockets at the Middlesex street station yesterday by Inspector Martin A. Maher, of the local police department, assisted by two employes of the Boston & Maine railroad, the police feel sure they now have in custody four of the cleverest pickpockets in this section of the country. Despite the fact that they stood the ordeal of the "third degree" at the police station in a manner which stamped them as either telling the truth or else being experts at lying, they lost their air of bravado this morning when they were confronted by Inspector L. W. Burr of Boston police headquarters.

The recognition between the inspector, who knows practically every crook of note in the east and a good many in the west, and the four men arrested on suspicion was mutual, and the latter knew that the presence of Inspector Burr would tend more to bring out the facts than did the several hours they were being questioned yesterday afternoon.

While it was John Corcoran, ticket agent at the Middlesex street station, who first suspected the men now under arrest, it remained for Inspector Maher to work up the case and subsequently arrest the quartet.

When arrested they gave the names of Thomas Kelly, John W. Ellis, Ernest Capasso and Frank Gilbert, but when Inspector Burr put in an appearance this morning he identified Kelly as Fred Berry, alias Andrew McLaughlin, a well known pickpocket. He recognized John W. Ellis as "Big John" W. Crane of Philadelphia, and Capasso as Frank Kelly of New York. He was not positive of Gilbert's name, but has known him as Owie Liss of Philadelphia, who it is alleged was at one time a pugilist. All four have served time for picking pockets.

Thomas Kelly or Berry is well known to the police, and it is said that in previous scrapes in which he has figured he has done the delicate work of picking the pocket of a victim, while the other three members of the gang did the jostling, and held the victim in such a position that the latter could not use his arms.

The quartet was arraigned in police court this morning on a complaint charging larceny from the person, the specific charge being that they stole a pocketbook valued at $2 and $19 in money from Bathólomew J. Cullinan.

Lawyer Joseph Sullivan of Boston appeared for the defendants, waived the reading of the complaint and entered a plea of not guilty and asked for a continuance for one week. The continuance was granted, each of the defendants being held under $600 bonds.

Case Continued

Fined for Evading Carfare

William F. Flannagan, a young man residing in Roxbury, who evaded paying carfare on the Lakeview line the night before last, entered a plea of guilty and a fine of $5 was imposed.

Threatened His Wife

Maria Comtois informed the court that her husband, William, had threatened to kill her and also assaulted her. The defendant said that he might have threatened his wife, but he did not mean to do her bodily harm. He said he only tried to frighten her. He was found guilty and ordered to furnish $100 bonds to keep the peace for six months.

Arrested in Billerica

John E. Brown accummulated quite a supply of intoxicating liquors yesterday and when he reached the square in Billerica Centre he saw a wagon and thought he would take a ride. He was about to climb to the seat when the owner, Arnold Pickering, objected. Brown decided that he was going to have the ride and when Pickering pulled him to the ground he turned around and struck the owner of the outfit. Constable E. Livingston was notified and he placed Brown under arrest.

This morning in court Brown admitted that he was drunk and when asked to plead to the complaint of assault he said: "I might have struck him," but that plea would not go with the court and so the defendant pleaded guilty.

He was found guilty on both charges and fined $15 for assault and $5 for drunkenness.

Smashed a Window

Hugh McCrossen was charged with drunkenness and breaking a pane of glass in the second hand clothing store conducted by David Bernstein at 186 Middlesex street. Bernstein testified that McCrossen entered his store yesterday afternoon and wanted to sell a coat. The man was under the influence of liquor and when Bernstein said he would give him 25 cents for the coat, McCrossen called Bernstein vile names and then seizing a shoe last threw it through a large pane of glass.

McCrosen admitted that he was drunk but said that he did not think of raising any rumpus until Bernstein called him a vile name and he said he was not used to being called such a name and he forgot himself for the time being.

He said that he had money and if given a chance he would settle for the window and the court continued the cases until tomorrow morning, but a few minutes later McCrossen said that he desired to be sentenced right away, so the court withdrew the order of continuance and imposed a fine of $20 for breaking the window and $5 for drunkenness.

Charles Hague, charged with being drunk, was fined $6. James F. Sproule was fined $6, four first offenders were fined $2 each and five simple drunks were released.

IVY BALDWIN

TO TRY TO FLY ACROSS THE GOLDEN GATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Ivy Baldwin, an aeronaut who was formerly in the balloon service of the United States army, announces that he will attempt tomorrow morning to fly in an aeroplane across the Golden Gate, the entrance to San Francisco harbor. The machine is one of his own construction in which he has made trial flights.

SEVEN JERSEYITES ARE SEEKING UNITED STATES SENATORIAL TOGA

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 26.—At least four republicans besides himself are seeking the place of Senator John Kean in the United States senate at the hands of the next New Jersey legislature, and two democrats have filed petitions to have their names placed on the primary ballots. Three of the republican aspirants have filed petitions. They are former Governor Franklin Murphy, former Governor Edward C. Stokes and Congressman Chas. N. Fowler, Senator Kean, who wants to be re-elected, did not file a petition, as he decided to leave his fate in the hands of the legislature direct. The same stand was taken by David Baird of Camden, who also wants the seat. The democratic candidates for the toga are Frank M. McDermit of Newark and James E. Martine.

THE KAISER SPOKE

KOENIGSBURG, Prussia, Aug. 26.—Emperor William, who is making a tour of eastern Germany in connection with his visit to Posen for the dedication of his new castle there, delivered a martial speech at the provincial banquet here last night in which he urged the necessity of cooperation with him in his work for the welfare and defense of the country. Taking as his text the role of Queen Louise of Prussia during the Napoleonic wars, he extolled her virtues and pointed out how the memory of her lived the courage of Prussian soldiers and saved the country.

ENGINEER'S CONDITION SERIOUS

DURAND, Aug. 26.—Clinton A. Davis of Montreal and Fireman Nelson, who were seriously injured in the Grand Trunk, wreck east of here Wednesday night, were reported today as resting easily.

The five injured who were taken to Hurley hospital at Flint also passed a comfortable night, except in the case of Engineer Bert Mitchell, whose condition is very serious, but it is now believed that he will recover.

Grand Trunk officials will begin an investigation of the cause of the wreck today at Battle Creek.

TWO EXPERT CUE WIELDERS TO PLAY FOR WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The first big cue match of the season will be held here Sept. 6, 7 and 8. Jerome Keogh, the world's pool champion, will defend his title against Tommy Hueston, the former holder of the emblem. The men will play 600 points in 200 blocks. At present Hueston is ruling favorite, the pool experts figuring that the former champion has regained his old form. On the other hand, the followers of Keogh claim that their choice will carry off the honors. Last January Hueston lost the title to Keogh in New York. Alfred De Oro, the Cuban, has announced that he will challenge the winner, and so has Johnny Kling, the star catcher of the Chicago National league team. Kling held the championship for a time, but lost it to Hueston.

TOWN IN RUINS

Four Hundred Inhabitants Are Homeless

PORTLAND, Ore., August 26.—The town of Flora, Ore., has been destroyed, according to reports which reached Asotea, Wash., last night. The flames came from the forests on the south side of the Blue mountains. The town is in ruins and its 400 inhabitants are homeless. Communication is cut off.

DR. CRIPPEN NEARING LIVERPOOL

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The steamer Megantic, on which Dr. Hawley Crippen and Miss Ethel Leneve are being taken back to England by Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard in connection with the supposed murder of Dr. Crippen's wife, Belle Elmore, was reported 200 miles west of Malin Head at 11.35 this morning. The steamer still has four hundred miles to run which would bring her to Liverpool early in the afternoon tomorrow.

ELLIOTT COLE DEAD

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—News of the death of Elliott Cole, president of the National Lead company, at Carlsbad, Germany, was received in a cablegram here yesterday. Mr. Cole sailed for Germany early in July in hopes of improving his health. His death was unexpected.

STEAMER WENT AGROUND

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 26.—The steamer Brazoria which left Philadelphia last night for this city went aground on Absecon bar off here today and remains hard and fast. The cargo is washing out of the holds. Captain Lynch and the crew of ten men have been landed here. The Brazoria is a small freighter and carries no passengers. It is owned in Philadelphia and plies between that city and Atlantic City.

2000 OPERATIVES IDLE

CHICOPEE, Aug. 26.—The Chicopee Mfg. Co.'s cotton mills here were shut down today until Sept. 12. The mills, which have been running five days a week for some time, employ about 2000 operatives.

M. A. Rawlinson, the agent of the company, states that the shutdown is in accordance with the general plan of the different companies operating mills in New England. The cause for this concerted action on the part of the mills, he said, was the result of the high cost of raw material and the scarcity of demand for the finished product. The plan is to shut down all the mills until the demand will have caught up with the output.

EAGLES' CONVENTION

The Grand Aerie Starts Reform in the Order

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 26.—The trial committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, after a 48-hours' session of deliberation, reported to the grand aerie convention, at the Olympic theatre yesterday afternoon a finding of guilty in the case of four men who are charged with a discrepancy in the handling of the order's money in the purchasing of supplies.

On a viva voce vote, the men were expelled from the order. The expulsion of the men was a culmination of the reform movement brought about by Pres. Hering and Theodore A. Bell of California.

When the trial committee first brought its findings before the convention yesterday afternoon it asked that only three of the men be expelled. These were Edward Krause of Wilmington, Del.; Martin Gray of New Haven and Thomas Hayes of Newark, N. J. Krause was former grand worthy president before Hering and the other two are also members of the past grand worthy officers' bench.

The committee found that Bernard J. Monoghan, although possibly cognizant of the discrepancy going on during his term of office, did not merit expulsion. After the viva voce vote had expelled the other three, members from all parts of the hall arose to move that Monoghan be ousted. Sergt. Thomas F. Grady of New York, grand vice pres., who was in the chair, gave the floor to one of these men and on a vote Monoghan was also expelled.

Monoghan and Krause were present at the trial and after their expulsion had nothing to say. Earlier in the day Monoghan and Krause had testified in their own behalf and had filed objections to the jurisdiction of the grand aerie to try them, claiming it was the duty of their local aeries and not the organization as a whole.

The convention also moved that the matter of the expulsions be kept absolutely secret and the facts of the convention were only gained after close examination of members.

Sergt. Grady was asked if he could say anything after the meeting.

"Not a word," he replied.

Pres. Hering said: "I will see that my policies are carried out to the letter. There is no more surmising. The illegal clubrooms will be abandoned, undesirable members will be expelled and those found guilty of anything criminal will be given penal servitude. The 'balloon ascension' of the organization has disappeared and I will carry out the reforms to its utmost."

The charges upon which the four men were expelled are that in dealing with the aeries in the purchas of supplies they are mixed up in a money affair which amounted to about $6400 to the order. Part of this was for a patent card-punching machine and the other was for the ritual. It is said that the ritual by an agreement was sold to the order for 68 cents instead of 58 cents, which it should have cost.

About $1200 is said to have disappeared on this method, as 12,000 rituals were sold. When the convention lines up for the election of officers and the proposed change in the constitution tomorrow, Hering will be in the chair and Bell and Grady on the stage with him, the former as grand worthy vice-president and the latter as grand trustee.

While the trial of the four men was going on in the trial committee chambers, an injunction was sought restraining the grand aerie from expelling the men, should the committee find them guilty. George H. Moore, a St. Louis attorney, associated with C. A. Handy in the defense of Krause, went to Circuit Judge Kinsey's chamber and asked to be allowed to read a petition for an injunction. He claimed property rights were involved, as the sire benefits and death benefits of the men might be jeopardized.

Judge Kinsey asked him to file his motion first and while this was being done, the men were expelled by the layed, the injunction would probably grand aerie. Had the grand aerie delayed, the injunction would probably have been issued. Pres. Hering says that this tribunal being final, there is little chance that any appeal can be made.

HEAVY DAMAGE

Done to the Crops in Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 26.—Market gardeners throughout this state have suffered losses amounting to more than $150,000 through damage to the cucumber crop by a new disease. The crop has been reduced 75 per cent and unless something can be found to check the epidemic the cucumber is threatened with extinction in Rhode Island. Melons have been affected as well. One large market garden firm in Cranston has already suffered a loss of $60,000. The ravages of the pest have become so extensive that plant specialists from the department of agriculture at Washington have come here to study the disease at the request of Dr. H. J. Wheeler, director of the experimental station at the Rhode Island State college at Kingston.

50 BURGLARIES

Boy Says He Made Many Breaks

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 26.—Fifty burglaries during the last three weeks are the boast that George Collins, 16 years old, has made to the police. Officers investigated his story and confirm it in the main. Collins said he sold his stolen goods to pawnbrokers. He stole goods valued at $1000.

MILLS CLOSED

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 26.—Fifteen thousand employees of the Amoskeag Cotton Manufacturing company were thrown out of work today when the seventeen mills of the plant were closed for fifteen days.

Curtailment of production is given as the reason for the shut down.

CARDINALS SAIL

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 26.—Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli, the papel delegate to the coming Eucharistic congress at Montreal, and Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, sailed today for Montreal on the steamer Empress of Ireland. Accompanying them on the steamer were over a hundred high ecclesiastical dignitaries and a hundred and fifty laymen of the Roman Catholic church, who will attend the congress.

LAWN TENNIS MATCH

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The Lawn Tennis association today cabled to Dr. James Dwight, president of the United States Lawn Tennis association, and to President Hoskins of the Australian Tennis association, asking if it would be agreeable to both associations to have the preliminary matches between the English and American challenging teams for the Dwight F. Davis cup played off in America this year. It had earlier been proposed to play off the preliminaries in Australia, but the Australian association declined to guarantee the money necessary for the expenses of the two teams on the ground that the proposed British team is not sufficiently strong.

The final matches for the cup of which the Australians are the defenders for the third successive year will be played in December.

Rev. Brother Osmond of St. Patrick's Boys' school and Michael J. Johnson, organist at St. Patrick's, attended the dedication of the new dormitory and hall at St. John's college, Danvers.

GREAT PITCHING

Nixey Coughlin Makes Record at Revere

Who said Nixey Coughlin of this city is a has been as a pitcher?

Nixey pitched for Lowell in the game between the John Hancock Insurance men of Lowell and their brethren of Lawrence.

The Lowell men won 15 to 0. Only 15 men went to bat in the five innings and Nixey struck out 13 of them, only two men reaching first base in the entire game. Rep. Erson B. Barlow umpired the game in faultless manner.

The outing was held at Revere by the Lowell and Lawrence agencies and it was a competition that has been on for three months, the agency making the smaller net increase in business during the three months being obliged to settle for the outing. Lowell not only beat out Lawrence but has shown the largest business thus far this year in the history of the company. During the year it was announced the Lowell agency has written more ordinary business, policies of $1000 and over than any other agency of the company in the United States, a Brooklyn agency being second.

The local men left Merrimack square at 7.15 o'clock in the morning on a special electric car and at Reading they were joined by the Lawrence men.

At the conclusion of the ball game the insurance men repaired to Sleeper's restaurant, where an excellent shore dinner was served. An informal program was carried out after the dinner. T. P. Donahue, Supt. of the Lawrence branch, delivered a humorous speech which was productive of vociferous applause, after which James West of Lowell entertained with a song. The song was composed by Mr. West and included compliments and knocks to members of the party.

In the afternoon the members of the party went bathing, after which the sights along the boulevard were taken in and Wonderland visited.

Specials left, conveying the party homeward at 8 o'clock, and the same route was covered on the way back, the Lawrence contingent leaving the local aggregation at Reading. The success of the affair was due to the efforts of Frederick G. Woodworth, Supt. of the company for Lowell, and of Supt. T. P. Donahue of the down-river city.

EXPERIMENTS

TO BE MADE BY ISTHMIAN CANAL OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—With the last three barges built of concrete just completed for canal work, officials of the Isthmian canal are to undertake other novel experiments with this construction material. According to a report to the Isthmian canal zone, experiments are to be undertaken at once on both the Atlantic and Pacific divisions of the canal to determine the effect of seawater on the concrete for the lower docks at Gatun and Minaflores. The object is to ascertain if steps will be necessary in order to protect the concrete. Slabs of concrete will be subjected to the seawater. Some of them will be left in their natural state; some will be treated with sodium silicate in the form of soluble glass in solutions of different strength, and some of them will be treated with alum and soap, using three-quarters of a pound of soap to one gallon of water, applied boiling hot for the first wash and 24 hours later a solution of alum, two ounces to the gallon, applied cold.

The only walls that will be subject to action by salt water will be those of the lower or sea level locks and the guide wall leading into these locks. At Minaflores about 1,400,000 square feet of surface will be thus exposed and at Gatun 1,270,000 square feet.

THE NINTH REGIMENT

Is Making a Fine Showing at Pine Camp

PINE CAMP, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Yesterday was an interesting day for the militia regiments in this camp, and particularly so for the 9th infantry. It was out early yesterday morning for battalion drill and yesterday afternoon participated in a very interesting problem, in which the three battalions had a part.

Maj. Casey's battalion represented a part of the red army, which had been gathering supplies in the vicinity of the camp, and took its position at Dolan's crossing, some three miles from camp, and was allowed about 30 minutes to get into position. His wagon train was supposed to have broken down and he received information that he was to be attacked by two battalions of the blue army, which was represented by the 1st and 3d battalions of the 9th, commanded respectively by Maj. Murray and Maj. Dunn, but they were late in discovering Maj. Casey's position and by that time he was well intrenched, and as he had only to hold the position until 4 o'clock the task was comparatively easy. But he was fiercely attacked by Maj. Murray's battalion, while Maj. Dunn had worked around his flank.

Time undoubtedly saved Maj. Casey's little force, and according to the umpire's decision, he had held the position and retired in good order. The "battle" was well fought on both sides and the observers were loud in their praises of the work of both officers and men. Both the Maine and Vermont regiments had interesting problems to work out.

The beauty of these maneuvers is that intrenchments and earthworks are thrown up by the men and not theoretically built, as in all previous maneuvers. This makes the work more realistic. Of course all are very much interested in the coming bivouac and battle tomorrow which has been arranged, when all the troops will participate, but no orders have been given, consequently all are in the dark on the subject.

This evening the cavalry are working out a problem in the rain, as almost immediately after they left the camp the first rain of the week began to fall. The fighting took place close to the camp site, but as the moon was overcast but little of the maneuvers could be seen. Hogs Back, where the searchlight had been placed by the engineers, was crowded with officers who were disappointed that more of the fighting could not be seen.

The rain not only had a dampening effect on the camp, but also on the spirits of the officers and men, who would hate to lose the maneuvers, which they have worked so hard for the last four days to grasp and become proficient in. It would undoubtedly be a great disappointment to every man.

The great progress made by the men of the 9th regiment has been a revelation to the officers who have charge of their instruction, and the instructors have not been afraid to express themselves to the writer and also to the officers. The regiment does not make a move that is not followed by a dozen observers and umpires.

Possibly the most conspicuous company on the field is Co. L of Natick, as it is well known that it had trouble in connection with its officers just before coming to camp. It is here, however, with 60 men and two officers, and it is doing great work. It turns out with full ranks at every drill. Brig. Gen. Elliott C. Dill ,adjutant general of Maine, arrived tonight. Yesterday morning Hon. William S. McNary of South Boston "blew" into the camp of the 9th, where he received a warm welcome from his old comrades. Some years ago he held a commission in the regiment.

At the band concert of the 9th over 1000 men of the 10th cavalry and 24th U. S. regiment were present. Bandmaster Barrington" Sergeant having captured the colored troops with his star aggregation. At the close of the concert Chaplain Jas. Lee conducted the men in singing "America," which had to be repeated. The men then took possession of the temporary bandstand and conducted a most enjoyable vaudeville show until taps were sounded.

MAY YOHE IS ILL

She Was Stricken With Paralysis

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 26.—May Yohe, once Lady Hope of the English nobility and later wife of Major Putnam Bradlee Strong, is destitute and ill in a local hospital. She was stricken with paralysis in a cheap cafe, where she was singing, and death may end her adventurous career at any time. May Yohe was born in Pennsylvania in a little town near Philadelphia. Her mother took her to the city, where she learned French and German. She developed a singing voice that was first heard in a Philadelphia church choir. Then she went on the stage. She attracted the attention of Lord Francis Hope, son of the Duchess of Newcastle. One of the wedding presents was the famous Hope diamond. It was in 1895 that they were married, and for seven years they lived together. Then came Captain (Later Major) Putnam Bradlee Strong, the son of the mayor of New York. Fresh from the Philippines, he met her in San Francisco, and they eloped, going to Japan, and Lord Francis Hope divorced her. She and Major Strong traveled much, separating and uniting several times, but finally separating for good. Since then May Yohe has been heard of from time to time, dropping lower and lower in the ranks of the profession until the end came in the San Francisco cafe. Strong when last heard from was at Macao, in China.

THE HOT SPELL

THE BACKBONE OF IT MAY BE BROKEN TODAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A drop of 25 degrees in temperature made Chicago shiver last night. On the streets the women wore their wraps and the men their overcoats.

The change—it isn't a cold wave, says the weather man, for cold waves come only in winter—is sweeping across the western states, shattering some summer records as it advances eastward. Snow in the far west and killing frosts in many states are unseasonable companions of the change.

The sudden drop in temperature is accompanied by high winds, and the weather bureau issued a special storm warning to navigators on Lakes Michigan, Huron and Superior. High westerly winds will prevail and summer voyagers will have a rough, cold time of it for the next 24 hours.

Concert tonight, Breezy Point.

Minor Heir Defeated Hedgewood Boy in Fast Race

GALESBURG, Ill., Aug. 26.—The world's pacing race record was broken on the Galesburg track by Minor Heir yesterday afternoon in a heat with Hedgewood Boy, the mile being covered in two minutes flat in the presence of 10,000 spectators. The weather was cold and a high wind blew, making the going slow.

Hedgewood Boy had the pole, but was passed at the quarter, which was reached in 31 seconds. On the backstretch Minor Heir gained the pole and held the lead to the wire, beating the world's record by a half second. The third quarter was done in 29 seconds.

The mile was evenly and smoothly paced by both horses, and Minor Heir was going easily and without distress when he went under the wire.

The 2.10 pace was very closely contested, and every heat was marked by close and driving finishes. From the sixth place in the first heat W A took the next three heats, with Auctioneer as a close contestant. The two other races went in straight heats. The summary:

THE TALENT FOOLED

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Canadian trotter, General H., was the star performer at Empire City track yesterday afternoon. The Grand Circuit horses are drawing much larger crowds to the Yonkers course than the runners ever have, and it is a pity that the people cannot see more of them at one session. Seven heats were the best that was offered yesterday, with a mile in 2.07¼ by the stallion from far-away Calgary, the only bit of high rolling seen.

A high wind made fast time out of the question, as 2.05 was the low figure for the pacers that are up to miles around 2.03. This makes the performance of General H. stand for something, and tells that before long the turf will have another 2.06 trotter. The General's win was a surprise, as the battle looked to be between Teasel and Soprano.

The latter was making her first start of the season, and her appearance attracted much attention. An accident to her harness caused her to be pulled up at the half-mile post in the opening heat, so the regulars will have to wait until Readville to find out much about her.

Teasel was not at her best and played in good luck to get a division of second and third money. Aquin went a smashing good mile in the second heat. He took the word several lengths back and finished a close third.

The 2.05 pace went to Ess H. Kay in rather an unusual manner. The black horse from Buffalo made a break in the second quarter of the first mile, leaving Walter W. and Baron Whips to fight for the heat, the latter getting the decision. Ess H. Kay won the next heat comfortably. This left only the two heat-winners to finish out the race, but all the horses came onto the track.

While the judges were discussing the conditions, White and Murphy scored down and, not hearing the recall bell, took it for granted that the word was given. Ess H. Kay went to the lead and came home with something to spare. A conference of drivers and officials followed, with the result that the announcement was made that the mile should stand as part of the contest, thereby ending the race, with no time taken.

The final in the Speedway stakes, the event for 2.16 trotters, to wagon, driven by amateurs, was a gift for the European stallion Willy. The handsome foreigner finished with a commanding lead in 2.11¼, 2.10½. The summary:

CLEANS UP FREE-FOR-ALL

TROY, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Walter Cox brought Aileen Wilson up from the Yonkers yesterday afternoon to clean up the free-for-all and did so admirably. It was the first time in several years that the black mare had been on a half-mile track, but her behavior was faultless.

Cox won the $200 offered to drivers when he sent Aileen over the mile in 2.07¾, lowering the track record of 2.08½ made last year by Gallagher. The summary:

RACING AT BANGOR

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 26.—The races at the Eastern Maine fair yesterday were each settled in three straight heats, but all were interesting. The feature of the day was the 2.22 trot-2.24 pace, which had twelve starters and which resulted in an upset, for the favorites did not place.

Direct Braden from Hartford, Conn., and driven by R. W. Burrill of Bangor, was the surprise of the day, taking the three heats of this race easily. Gold Bug and Col. Direct paced the winner home, and the fight for place was hot.

Lewiston horses won in the other two races. Prince Alfondly taking the 2.20 trot-2.22 pace easily, and Maude S having the speed of the 2.30 class trot. Both were picked as winners. The summary:

FEAR OF ARREST

Does Not Stop Girl Raffles

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The girl letter thief who has been keeping the Cambridge police on edge for the past two weeks has not stopped her operations through fear of arrest, but on the other hand the new reports that have come to the authorities show she has been making large sums of money by duping her victims on the bill and check game.

The thought of a gang of thieves working with the sixteen-year-old girl as an agent has been dropped and now the police believe she is working alone, with remarkable cleverness for one of her age. Many prominent Cambridge men have sent word to police headquarters that they have been either duped on checks, or have lost mail with money in it, within the past three weeks, and as the complaints pour in it is easy to see the large scale upon which the girl has been working.

A. C. Evans and William C. Stearns, both of 18 Center street, Cambridge, have been the victims of the girl's mail stealing. Mr. Evans received a check for $50, and a bill for $5 was received from a Boston department store by Stearns. The girl went to the store and paid the small bill with the large check and cleared $45 for her day's work.

The girl "Raffles" has caused much trouble for Edward H. Cook, formerly of 2 Clinton street, but now living at the house numbered 332 Broadway, which he has recently bought. Important papers relating to the transaction were mailed to him but were stolen by the girl, at least so think the police.

One case where the girl went astray was learned of when it was discovered that she had stolen a letter containing a bill for $5 from Dr. Charles H. Thomas. She took the bill to a woman of the same name as the patient to which it was made out, but not the patient. Nothing more has been heard of it.

HOWARD A HERO

Lowell Player Saved a Child From Drowning

Paul Howard, centre fielder of the Lowell team, who is recuperating at East Weymouth, saved a child from drowning Wednesday afternoon, and is now the hero of East Weymouth.

A little child had fallen in the deep, grass-tangled waters of a mill pond near the village, while at play. Her playmates were too young to go to her assistance as she drifted down beneath a bridge which crossed one end of the pond, and it seemed certain that she must drown.

Howard, who was sitting on the piazza of his cottage a short distance from the pond, heard the mother of the child scream and dashed down to the beach which borders the pond at that point.

Without stopping to divest himself of his clothing, he plunged into the water and though hampered by his clothes and the long grass, managed to reach the child as it was about to sink for the last time.

The former Lowell ball player, without assistance, managed to reach shore with his burden, and in time to save the child, which, after receiving the care of a physician recovered consciousness.

ROOSEVELT "LOST"

THE NEWSPAPERS COULD NOT LOCATE HIM

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—For twenty minutes last night Col. Roosevelt was "lost" in this city and the eastern correspondents and the members of the newspaper club were much perturbed to know what had become of him. The secret came out. Col. Roosevelt wanted a breath of fresh air before going to the reception that had been arranged in his honor. The ride came nearer to being a secret expedition than anything he has done since he left the African jungle. From the moment he was whisked away in an automobile from the shouting crowd in the station until he reached the entrance to the club he was lost to the public eye.

LOWELL COUPLE

GOT LICENSE TO MARRY AT NASHUA, N. H.

Among the marriage licenses issued by the city clerk of Nashua, N. H., yesterday, was one to Arthur E. Redmon, aged 19 years, and Amelia Gauthier, aged 19 years, both of this city.

HERMIT IS DEAD

He Has Left $15,000 in Cash

NORTH SCITUATE, Aug. 26.—Silas Litchfield, 84, for many years a recluse, was found dead yesterday with bankbooks representing $15,000 about his person.

Three days ago "Hermit" Litchfield gave his brother, Bridgo Litchfield, $3000 in $5 bills.

"Hermit" Litchfield was famous for the motto that he posted up some years ago that read, "Free from water with plenty of rum." Some years ago he sent his second wife to her parental home in New York, after having refused to speak to her for a period of five years.

Mr. Litchfield ran a general country store at this place, but it was not generally believed that he had any amount of property. The bank books found in his clothing were issued from banks in different cities, including Boston.

The old man was found dead in his store yesterday afternoon by William Harney. When the medical examiner was summoned by Selectman F. B. Bailey, he stated that Litchfield had met his death from heart reaction caused by falling and hitting his head on the bed.

LOWELL AUTOISTS

Trapped by New Hampshire Cities

The police of Nashua and Manchester, N. H., are enforcing the automobile laws in a rigid manner and the drivers who operate their machines at a rate of speed faster than that provided by the law will come to grief.

Yesterday three autoists were arraigned in the Manchester police court and fined $10 and costs of $4.62. One of the trio was Albert S. Taylor of this city.

Another Lowell autoist came to grief in Nashua, Preston Landers of this city was the victim. He was fined $10.

WHEEL CAME OFF

Octave Daignault Was Dragged on Street

Octave Daignault had a narrow escape from being badly hurt at the corner of Paige and John streets shortly before 10 o'clock this morning when the nut on one of the rear wheels of the wagon which he was driving dropped off, allowing the wheel to detach itself from the wagon and precipitating him to the pavement.

The horse became frightened and started to run but the man clung to the reins and after being dragged several yards brought the horse to a standstill. The wagon was filled with barrels of swill and when the wheel came off the swill was scattered about the street.

The driver after regaining his feet stated that he had suffered no injury other than a few slight bruises.

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALVENA SPERLING, 1468 Clybourne Ave.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

For local playgoers the treat of the season is here this week at Lakeview theatre, in the shape of Eugene Walter's drama of New York life of today, "Paid in Full." Not to know of this most celebrated play of the time is to confess one's self uninformed as to the exceptional features of the American stage; not to have seen it is to be outside the three million persons who had witnessed its many performances up to the end of last season. No play ever produced in this country or abroad has the brilliant record of "Paid in Full." It will be here all this week with matinees every day at 2.30, evenings at 8.15, and one should avail himself of the opportunity to see this great play.

"Two Jolly Rovers" is the name of the "comedy perplexity" with musical interruptions that will awake to peals of almost endless laughter patrons of Lakeview theatre next week every evening as well as the matinees. When the concocters of this attempt to make all the world happy were burning the midnight oil during long weeks of preparation, they had one motto ever before them—"Make 'em laugh." Anyone who sees the performance will readily agree that they have succeeded.

THEATRE VOYONS

There are many minor details to the presentation of motion pictures that if not carefully looked after greatly hinder the fullest enjoyment of the pictures. At the Theatre Voyons, however, this is never the case, for with years of experience in the motion picture game, the most competent operators and the best equipped apparatus, the finest and most satisfactory results are sure to follow. The projecting equipment of this theatre has served as a model for many newer houses and it ranks as one of the very best equipped houses in the state not barring the big Boston houses. Then, too, the careful selection of programs means that a well balanced program is always shown and no matter how critical one's tastes are some one number will just suit them. Today's feature Dora Thorne, a pleasing dramatic story picture, finely acted and well staged.

CANOBIE LAKE THEATRE

There is a wealth of fun in "My Girl," the latest of J. W. Gorman's musical farces that is to be seen at Canobie Lake Park theatre for the week commencing Monday, August 29, and this will be clearly demonstrated when the large audiences that are expected at the Monday performances see this new care dispeller. As in all the Gorman musical plays there is a sprightly chorus of young ladies who interpret the many musical numbers with vim and abandon and who form the very pleasing frame in which a comedy of more than usual mirth is placed. The plot deals with the entanglements into which a number of the funny characters get themselves by making pretentions in spiritualism. No tinge of seriousness is allowed to enter into this real fun show and the only touch that is made upon the subject of spiritualism is in the dealing with these imposters.

The play is liberally interspersed with bright catchy music each and every number of which is a gem in itself. Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the entire week.

KILLED BY GAS

Man Found Dead in His Room

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick Joy of Skowhegan was found dead from gas poisoning in a room at a lodging house on lower Washington street in the South End today. When the room was entered Joy was found in bed. All the windows of the room had been closed tightly and the gas cock was wide open. It is believed to be a case of suicide. It is understood here that Joy, who was about 35 years of age, was a widower with two children. The children are said to be living at Augusta, Maine.

ARREST CASHIER

Said to Have Stolen Firm's Money

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—George Wenzel, who started in as a cash boy with B. Altman & Co. 26 years ago, and who has been a cashier for that firm since 1898, was arrested by Store Detective Larkin and locked up in the West Thirteenth street station, accused of stealing $15,000 of the firm's money. The specific charge against Wenzel was the theft of $111 on Aug. 15. According to Detective Larkin, Wenzel confessed not only to taking the $111, but to appropriating other sums belonging to the store which would raise the total amount of his peculations within the last year to $15,040.

Wenzel is 39 years old and is unmarried. He lives at 407 West Fifty-first street. At the age of 13 he got a job as a cash boy in the Altman store down-town. His rise was rapid. When he became a cashier his salary was raised to $30 a week. In the uptown store Detective Larkin and Wenzel grew to be good friends. The store detective as he passed Wenzel's desk would occasionally say: "Well, old man, I'll get you yet."

The cashier would invariably raise his head from his books and reply, with a smile: "Yes, I guess you will. But not today."

Wenzel said that years ago he was tempted and fell. He needed a little extra money to meet an unexpected emergency. He had not saved anything out of his salary, having long since drifted into ways of living for which $30 a week proved inadequate. So he took a little of the firm's money—just enough to tide him over. By and by he took a little more to cover up his first theft. And so it went on until he had diverted the whole $15,000. He merely abstracted money orders and checks from the mail, which he cashed in his own name, and then juggled the books to conceal the abstractions.

When the time for his vacation came around Wenzel was afraid to leave, fearing that in his absence his substitute would learn the truth. His announcement that he would stick to the job aroused some suspicion and led to an investigation which disclosed the thefts. Wenzel was called to the office, where he broke down and confessed. The only excuse he had to offer was that he had been a good fellow and had been played for a good thing.

Wenzel asked for a chance to raise the money from his friends and make restitution and got it. He secured the town, but none of those he had regarded as his friends would help him. Finally he appeared to the proprietor of an uptown cafe where he had spent most of his pilferings. The proprietor not only refused to make him a loan, but disclaimed all knowledge of him, saying that he had never seen Wenzel before. All that remained after that was to submit to arrest.

MAYOR FITZGERALD

TO TAKE STUMP IN WESTERN PART OF STATE

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Chairman Macleod of the democratic state committee accompanied by a number of his active lieutenants, will leave Boston at 10 a.m. tomorrow for a political visit to Hampden and Hampshire counties, where they will hold a number of meetings and confer with members of the state and city committees of that section in the interest of a more thorough organization for the fall campaign.

At Springfield, immediately after their arrival Saturday, the party will hold a reception. In the evening they will go by automobile to Westfield, Chicopee and Northampton. Sunday will be spent in Holyoke, with a mass meeting at 2 p.m. Among the speakers at this and four other meetings arranged for will be Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston.

Besides Chairman Macleod, the party will include Chairman McDonald of the executive committee of the state committee, Chairman Maynard of the Boston city committee, and Representatives Riley of Malden, Parks of Fall River, Shaw, Callahan and O'Brien of Boston, Dean of Wakefield, Carmody of Worcester and Cummings of Pittsfield.

The mayor yesterday said he indorsed all that had been said about Gen. Charles H. Taylor as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, but he said nothing to indicate that he would pull out of the fight to allow Gen. Taylor's nomination.

MATRIMONIAL

M. Albert L. O'Malley and Miss Anna V. McMahon were married yesterday morning by Rev. A. P. Wedge, pastor of the Worthen street Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. O'Malley left on a honeymoon through Maine.

ROWAN—JARDINE

Mr. James A. Rowan of Barre, Vt., formerly a resident of this city and well known here, and Miss Jessie E. Jardine of Blackburn, England, were married last evening at 6.30 o'clock by Rev. James M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at his residence, 3 Belmont street. The wedding, though private, was a very pretty one. The little flower girl was Miss Margaret Holgate, while the best man was Dr. Robert Holgate and the bridemaid Miss Harriet Elizabeth Bowden. All are of this city. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs Rowan will make their home in Barre, Vermont.

TOMPKINS—GOOKIN

The marriage of Mr. Frederick Tompkins and Miss Mary Gookin took place at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the Immaculate Conception parochial residence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lawrence J. Tighe, O. M. I. The bridemaid was Miss Alice Gookin, a sister of the bride, and the best man Mr. Frederick Sullivan, cousin of the groom. The bride was attired in a gown of ivory silk and duchess lace and wore a white picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridemaid wore a dress of pink silk with lace trimmings, a picture hat, and carried pink roses. After the marriage ceremony a reception to the immediate relatives of the bridal party was held at the home of the bride's mother at 324 Rogers street. The ushers were Mr. John J. Gookin, Mr. Charles Boutilier, Mr. Thomas Kelley and Mr. Thomas Ward of Ayer. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts. Amid showers of confetti Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins departed on the 9.45 train on a wedding trip.

BASEBALL AT NIGHT

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—C. A. Comiskey's recently installed lights received their first real tryout at the American league grounds last night when the Illinois Athletic club and Calumet Lacrosse teams battled for over two hours in a fast match in the glare of over one million candlepower of light which constitutes a portion of the light plant that will give Chicago night baseball in the near future. The plant proved itself equal to the occasion for the test held up to what was expected.

The Illinois A. C. won the game 11 to 10. At no time during the eighty minutes of play did the players find it hard to follow the ball but the game proved as fast and as interesting as if it had been played in broad daylight. No complaint was heard from the players and with the roof lights uncovered the contestants were in no way bothered by the force of the lamps.

NEW ECZEMA REMEDY

Stops Itching At Once

The new remedy Cadum has astonished the medical world. Many cures of eczema and other distressing skin diseases are reported, and the remarkable feature in most cases is the quickness of the cure. Eczema is not a blood disease, but a skin affection. It cannot be cured by internal medicines. External treatment is absolutely necessary. Since the introduction of Cadum eczema is now recognized as a curable disease, and that tormenting affliction has been robbed of its terrors. Cadum stops the itching at once and begins the healing process with the first application. It destroys disease germs, allays inflammation and is soothing and healing to the skin. From the moment it is applied to any skin trouble immediate relief is felt. It is for pimples, blotches, hives, tetter, itch, acne, herpes, scaly skin, psoriasis, rash, chafings, eruptions, sores, scurvy, scabs, blackheads, itching piles, etc. Trial box 10c; large box 25c; all druggists.

Extraordinary Sale of Real Estate

TWO TWO-TENEMENT HOUSES, COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT 8015 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT NO. 32 AND REAR OF NO. 32 HIGH STREET, A THREE-TENEMENT HOUSE WITH STORE AND ABOUT 1574 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT 137 FAYETTE STREET, A FIVE-TENEMENT BLOCK AND ABOUT 2712 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT 28-30 AND 32 CHESTNUT ST.

Tomorrow Afternoon, Commencing at 2.30 O'Clock

FIRST PARCEL AT 2.30 O'CLOCK

AT NO. 32 AND REAR OF 32 HIGH STREET, CONSISTING OF TWO TWO-TENEMENT HOUSES, COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT 8015 SQ. FT. OF LAND TO BE SOLD IN ONE LOT. The two-tenement house facing High street and numbering 32, has six rooms and bath, with hot and cold water, open plumbing and furnace heat with one tenement and nine rooms and bath with hot and cold water and open plumbing with the other. There is a piazza in front of house running full length. The two-tenement house in the rear has six rooms and bath, with open plumbing with each tenement, hot and cold water and gas. The cottage in the rear which has been built within five years, has six rooms, and bath with hot and cold water, open plumbing and gas. All the buildings are in first class repair inside and out, the two-tenement houses being remodeled a few years ago, and the cottage in the rear practically new. The property is all rented to a first-class lot of tenants, most of them living there since it was remodeled, and brings in a yearly rental of about $860. The lot has a good frontage on High street and an area of about 8015 sq. ft. The yard is all concreted and the lot is all fenced in. Now then, this property is located in a very central part of Belvidere, it being the second property on High street from East Merrimack street, bringing it less than five minutes' walk to Merrimack square and the many industries located in that vicinity. I consider it one of the best pieces of realty that has been offered at public auction this season; for it has all the essential qualities which go to make up a good piece of realty, offering you as it does, about 8015 square feet of land with three substantial buildings, in first class condition, in an excellent location and bringing in a steady income of about $850 a year. It is a proposition worthy of your careful consideration; look it up. A good, liberal mortgage can be had at 5 per cent. Terms, $650 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as the property is struck off.

SECOND PARCEL AT 3 O'CLOCK

AT 137 FAYETTE STREET, A THREE TENEMENT HOUSE WITH STORE AND ABOUT 1574 SQUARE FEET OF LAND

On the first floor is a store with two rooms in the rear, and a tenement of five rooms; on the second floor are two tenements, one five and one of six rooms. There are toilets on each floor, and the house is in good condition. The tenements are occupied by a lot of good tenants and bring in a yearly rental of about $455. The lot has a good frontage on Fayette street and has an area of about 1574 square feet. Now here is a proposition which should command the attention of the speculator, for it is bound to pay a large revenue on the amount invested.

TERMS—$250 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

THIRD PARCEL AT 3.30 O'CLOCK

AT NOS. 28, 30 AND 32 CHESTNUT STREET, CONSISTING OF A FIVE TENEMENT BLOCK AND ABOUT 2712 SQUARE FEET OF LAND.

The block consists of two tenements of nine rooms, bath and back shed with each tenement, and two tenements of four rooms and bath with each tenement, and one tenement of four rooms. This property is in excellent shape inside and out, has all open plumbing and is occupied by a very nice lot of tenants and brings in a yearly rental of about $690. The lot has a good frontage on Chestnut street and an area of about 2712 square feet and is all concreted. The property is located about half way between High and Fayette streets on Chestnut street and is within five minutes' walk of many large industries.

TERMS—$400 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

Now the above three parcels will be offered for sale on the day and hour advertised on their several premises, regardless of any conditions of the weather. They are located in a central part of Belvidere and have always been rented and have paid me a large percentage on the investment, but I recently purchased some land in Revere and am about to erect a hotel there. For this reason I have placed the above properties in the hands of the auctioneer.

Make all inquiries of the auctioneer, whom I have left in full charge.

TWO-TENEMENT HOUSE WITH SLATED ROOF AND ABOUT 2475 SQ. FT. OF LAND AT NO. 39 AND 41 UNION STREET.

On the premises regardless of any conditions of the weather I shall offer for sale my two-tenement house and about 2475 sq. ft. of land, at Nos. 39 and 41 Union street. There are eight rooms with each tenement and the house is in very good condition inside and out. It is lighted by gas, and each tenement has separate front and back doors, cellars and toilet. It rents for about $312 a year and tenements in this locality always rent well. The lot has a large frontage on Union street and an area of about 2475 sq. ft. with right of way to the centre of a passageway that must be forever kept open. There is a large elevated piazza in the rear for the drying of clothes. The property it located on Union street about half way between Gorham and Central streets, which brings it within 10 minutes' walk from many large industries in this section of the city. Now then, I think a two-tenement house of this kind is one of the very best investments for a man of moderate means, as he can occupy one tenement and have the income of the other.

Terms: $300 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

Tomorrow Afternoon at 4.30 O'Clock

HEIRS' SALE OF THE DOLAN PROPERTY AT 148 LAKEVIEW AVE., CONSISTING OF A COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT 2325 SQ. FT. OF LAND.

The heirs of the above estate have placed with me this five-room cottage and about 2325 sq. ft. of land to be disposed of on the premises on the day and hour advertised. The cottage which has five rooms is in fair condition inside and out. The lot has a good frontage on Lakeview avenue with an area of 2325 sq. ft. which gives quite a nice yard in the rear. Now this is a good proposition for a man with a small family or for the speculator who would like to improve, as there is ample room in the rear for improvements. This property is located on Lakeview avenue about opposite Coburn street, and this part of the avenue is a very busy thoroughfare.

Terms: $160 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

C. F. KEYES in charge for the heirs.
